Edmonton — The Prince Charles When Mac. Rob. Says of the ing Alsat Long River at midnight on the day of the traditional bling.

Cash offered for the bling was used as prize in an elimination and spot dance. The farmer was won by a young man, the son of the later by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Feinsch.

The numerous of opinions were that "it was a wonderful evening." Other remarks included, "Best we ever had in this country," and "a bling." "I can think of a dance more people I had forgotten about than the one we had here," said one. "I would have loved to run." "I should have told us and."

It was a Friday night, and a wonderful quality and feeling were there, the quality that seems to be inherent in the bling.

Local Red Cross hamper project is well supported

There is an enormous outpouring of support for our Red Cross group in this city. The response to the appeal for help in the collection of a hamper for the children of the public is the following information:

On the first month of Dec., the pupils in three schools, El, Franklin and Washington, were asked to bring in a Red Cross bag (together with a note from their parents) for the hamper. The response from these schools in a tremendous drive has been such that the hamper will have many needy families.

On the first month of Dec. went down to Mrs. Hendricks house, who is the Red Cross worker, Mrs. Kimball, and her husband, Mr. Kimball, and we helped to pack 20 hamper bags. We were joined by Mrs. Wells and children. These hamper bags were packed by Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Wolf, Carroll, Clark, Carson, and Mrs. Anderson. These were received from the Jr. Citizens of Richmond and the

First Council meeting sets annual town report Feb. 8

The Mayor and Councillors of the Edson Council will report to the annual newspapers meeting in the Legion Memorial Hall on Monday, Feb. 8. It was decided at the first regular meeting of the Council this year held on Tuesday, Jan. 5.

Two of the items of the provincial government's five year plan were discussed by Council. The assistance with the pricing of some of the town's streets and the $10 per capita grant for capital expenditures on recreational facilities.

The works committee are in bring in a report at the next Council meeting on the problems involved in taking up the paving offer. Plans for spending the $22,000 recreation grant will take a lot more thinking out. No doubt some sort of plan for getting the ideas of citizens will be worked out.

Present at the meeting were Mayor W. R. Brunette and Councillors W. R. Brunette, L. A. Korman, W. Macdonald, L. A.

Finds pearl in oyster

It was a small oyster, but it was a pearl. The town's first regular meeting of the Council this year held on Tuesday, Jan. 5, was a success. The Mayor and Councillors met to discuss the town's business for the year.

Later sessions decided to investigate and found a replacement. The town's first regular meeting of the Council this year held on Tuesday, Jan. 5, was a success. The Mayor and Councillors met to discuss the town's business for the year.

Lady's smile make traffic mishap pleasanter

We heard of a slight traffic mishap that might have gone a little better if the lady involved in it wasn't a lady.

It seems a pity that was the intersection of Main Street and Main Street when a car being driven east by a lady suddenly turned to stop at the intersection and gave the other vehicle a bump.

Naturally enough friend motorist was a little offended and quick as a wink took the license number of the other vehicle, not intending to let anybody get away with such a stunt.

The day was saved however, when the lady pulled around the corner, stopped her vehicle and came back to apologize and explain that she couldn't see with the sun on the traffic light and the angle it was just then, and thought that she had the right of way.

Being a gentleman, our friend-motorist was a little offended and quick as a wink took the license number of the other vehicle, not intending to let anybody get away with such a stunt.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Junior Past Noble Grand, Sister Catherine Christensen, on a very busy and successful year's work.

Following the meeting a very delicious lunch was served by the committee.

The paving offer by the government is the second section of the five-year plan presented at the election last June. The province will supply the paving only. The Town prepares the base, the fill and takes levies, etc.

The top end of the Main Street was chosen at this time as it will not need the installing of storm sewers due to the avenue falling both ways from Main. The thinking of the Council is that work could then be started on paving the avenues from Main Street

The Council started on the job of preparing this year's budget and getting reports ready for the annual meeting of ratepayers which is scheduled for Monday, Feb. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Legion.

Kinman Don Wilson told the Edison club Monday night about his attending a huge symposium of representatives from all the countries bordering on the Arctic sea held recently in Calgary.

Don ferences considerable geological activity in Canada's Arctic this year.

Mr. Wilson is a geologist with Canada Pina in Edison and has been an active Kinsmen since first coming here a couple of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kallie (center) prepare to cut into the lovely cake baked to help them observe the occasion.

Red Cross address meeting

In the coming weeks last week, there was an address and Christmas party at the Red Cross. This is what is going to take place. This is a brief from the business administrator, Mr. D. D. Grant. It is prepared by Mr. A. H. Grant.

"The object of the visit is to discuss a matter affecting the Red Cross program for which we are responsible, and it was felt that a Christmas meeting could be more convenient for the community as well as our own expenses."

"We would like to suggest that representatives of the various community or organizations be invited to attend such a meeting with a view to assisting their help. We will be prepared to show either or both of two films on hand 'Provisional for Life' requires 15 min. showing time. Questions concerning Red Cross program will be welcomed."

Grain Club at McLeod Valley

The McLeod Valley All Grain Club held its organization meeting on Jan. 17 at the Paken School. There are seven new members. Three of whom are girls. The date of officers elected is as follows: President, Paul McLeod; Vice President, Peter Valchuk; Secretary, Timothy, Richard, Pauline and Club Reporter, Alvin Adams. The next meeting will be held on Feb. 18 at 8 o'clock at the Paken School.

Liens to hold charter night

It was decided to hold a charter night February 17 at 10 o'clock, meeting of the Edson Lions Club in the Commodore Hotel support room last week.

President Alvin Goldstick, took the opportunity of thanking all the Lions for their aid in preparing and delivering Christmas hamper to needy families.

Next regular meeting of the club will be Jan. 28 when all take the form of a dinner meeting at the Commodore.

Lt. Franklin Clark of Edson is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson.

Edson C of C regular meeting next Wednesday

The first regular meeting of the Edson Chapter of Commerce will be held in the Commodore Hotel Room, next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

This will be the first meeting since the Board of Trade was re-elected. The Chapter of Commerce is being the business and professional organizations in line with other leaders across Canada. Included in the agenda of the business meeting will be the report of the nominating committee followed by the election of this year's officers.

In line of the usual guest speaker it is hoped to have a thorough discussion of the various projects the re-elected Chapter will be undertaking this year.

Local and, as industrial development committee under the chairmanship of A. W. Leonard was up.

Obed Lumber Co. suffer huge fire loss

A fire, which came at their last moment of the year, wiped out the garage and cars of Obed Lumber Company at Obed last Saturday night, causing damage estimated at between $80,000 and $100,000.

The fire started about 10:30 p.m. during welding operations in the garage and within ten minutes had swept the whole building making it impossible to save equipment in the pressure of the time. Members of the staff, living in the second story of the building were lucky to escape with their lives and the clothes they wore at the time.

At the time of the fire the garage contained two lumber loaders, two or three trailers, two lumber trailers and a diesel truck as well as a quantity of lumber. The building which was owned by Obed Lumber Co., was covered by insurance.

Mr. Claude Reche, manager of reached and has been meeting regularly here and with various provincial governments and industrial people.

In addition to the report of the nominating committee a budget committee chaired by G. V. Holmes will bring in a report on a new mode of membership fees. This will be heard upon the Chapter before it is accomplished this year.

Tickets will be sold by various executive members and at least some and professional people are urged to make an effort to get out to the meeting.

It is a deeper truth that life on earth should be a place of opportunity for the redemption of the sinner, and that the concept of eternal deliverance from sin and death is difficult to grasp. The concept of eternal punishment is interpreted as an inadequate punishment for the crime of capital punishment is to prevent, discourage and rehabilitate the criminal. IGNORING THEM IS CRUELEST THING

In the realm of law we are told that to ignore the actions of the other party is the cruelest thing. In the annual meetings that are coming thick and fast at this time of year it is equally cruel to ignore the efforts of the volunteers who run our local community institutions, such as the Town Council and School Board, as well as our community service organizations.

If we can get councillors and trustees to take on these jobs in municipal government and others with executive talent to spend their time and energy with community service, then the least the rest of us can do is get out to the annual meetings and hear what progress has been made.

On Monday evening in the Legion Hall the Mayor and Council members will present their annual reports of the various committees within the Council. They are going to give them anyway, but because they are giving reports on events of interest to every taxpayer in the community, they are hoping that a good number of citizens will turn out to hear first hand what has been going on in our governing town.

Besides the reports that are given by the Council committee heads, these Council members make an attempt to predict what will be needed in the coming year and quite often recommend a course of action.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

As we are to discuss the location of the new high school we had to find time, Friday Jan. 25, with reports from all districts around the district, each representative must state the school in their own words, but as individuals we would prefer using our present classroom and remodeling on some teaching staff.

With the apparent shortage of teachers it would seem a deplorable waste of money building another or elaborate lunch mark when teachers are available to teach the new school.

If it came to the actual lack of room or facilities could be converted into classrooms.

CAPITAL REPORT

Opposition to have help

By KEN MASON

EDMONTON—Like an iceberg, the Opposition in the Legislature has been melting for some time. While it is an odd sight to see the few members left on the Opposition side of the House and the Opposition side of the House, they are supported by an invisible support which will work quietly to lead the House and those of the House in the House.

Liberal and Conservative parties, with only one member each in the House, are organizing a committee to help aid through the heavy volume of government legislation and pass the amendments to the M.L.A.

Michael Macgregor of the Liberal Party, the House Liberal, in the House, will have most of the Liberal Party members who were in the House working for him. Robert W. Smith of Calgary, the Conservative, will have a committee of seven working government bills and passing material to him.

The two other Opposition M.L.A.s, the House Liberal and the House Conservative, are working to help the House in the House.

There is no better place than the annual meeting for citizens to express their views on how the town should run. We are starting a new decade with a first rate Council. The past few years in Edson have been momentous ones for the town and surrounding district, and the town coming up promises to be even more challenging.

A good attendance at the annual meeting will show the town officials that we consider the work they are doing is important to us. The date—next Monday, February 12—in the Legion Hall. Need your financial statements? They will be in the mail, then come and take part in the discussion of town affairs.

The second important annual meeting is the School Division meeting to be held Wednesday, February 14, at 8 p.m. in the Central Valley School auditorium. This meeting should also be of interest to a great number of taxpayers and parents.

Combined with the Edson Town meeting will be the reports of the Edson School Division. The biggest part of our municipal tax dollar goes for school costs and it is in this field that most taxpayers would want to see, we are a democracy and must be heard.

Why then do we not see more of our children's education? The biggest part of our municipal tax dollar goes for school costs and it is in this field that most taxpayers would want to see, we are a democracy and must be heard.

It is at the House and School meetings that we often hear of money plans for education. With our opinion on the Council, we can help the parents choose to vote their opinion on our educational system.

Everyone welcome.

Professor William McCallum of McMaster University, Hamilton, Ont., says it's quite possible that the first life on earth came from Mars, McCallum said, the theory is supported by "strong scientific evidence."

That has been a revolutionary idea since 1953. That theory has been developed in light of declining life prices over the last three years and the government figures reached the decision that it was necessary to discontinue supporting the market by purchase of eggs. In place of this, as announced last May, a deficiency program was established.

In establishing the deficiency program, it was provided that producers would be able to sell for as low as 13.7 cents a dozen.

See...

The national weighted average price in 23 cents a dozen. The cumulative weighted average price from figures received for the first seven months in January was 13.7 cents. Then, if a deficiency program was established, the price would be 13.7 cents a dozen. That is the price range now lower than it is during the first three weeks of January and remains lower throughout the remainder of January, February and March. The price of eggs per dozen will be more than the 13.7 cents. If the price of eggs per dozen during the month of January, February and March, then the deficiency payment will be less than the 13.7 cents; but in any event the price the producer receives will be brought up to 23 cents a dozen, which is the support price, and have I should say that this is the average support price across Canada.

See...

As I have said, if the price of eggs per dozen is 13.7 cents, then the price the producer receives will be brought up to 23 cents a dozen, which is the support price, and have I should say that this is the average support price across Canada.

"DON'T CALL ME YOUR LOYAL OPPOSITION THIS ISN'T PARLIAMENT!"

IT'S NICE TO BE IN GOOD SHAPE

At the risk of seeming arrogant — it was a nice meeting to attend — the annual Edmonton taxpayers meeting was held in the good shape. It showed in every report given by the various Councilor committees. We're for all practical purposes debt-free. Which is something in a province where municipal debt is mounting astronomically due to Alberta's expanding economy.

Residential starts and finishes were down from previous years, but none the less Edmonton's building permits cleared the million dollar mark to make it a neat record year.

The only unavoidable cost factor over which the town has no control is the spiraling cost of education. Property owners will have to dig even more deeply for this necessary expense in all likelihood. No estimate of the probable mill rate increase was possible at the meeting time.

The nice thing about Edmonton being the fiscal capital of the province is that the Council can be a position to expand our educational, sewer system and street program or hold it back at the discretion of common sense. In some major developments in the immediate area shows the need for more residential lots to be serviced for instance, the town has the borrowing ability to finance the project. If, on the other hand, there is no more than normal expansion and need for going into debt, the Council can stand pat, and meet moderate improvement costs out of current revenues with no interest charges.

Through the years, Edmonton has had an unruffled financial position. During the dirty thirties the town never missed a debenture payment when towns all around were defaulting their provincial, municipal and all. Down through the years the town has been fortunate in having officials and Councilors with foresight. Careful planning and good solid administration have brought us to our present good state.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Contributions to the general news letters are published in the last issue of this newspaper.

With reference to the letter of the district parent concerning the proposed Union high school, it is interesting to note the failure of the parent to mention the fact of this school district.

Not so many years ago Pitham and Perry could not save on a new, far one large centralized school the school board built two schools — one at Pitham and one at Perry. The year, an equally sized Union high school was built between Perry and Pitham and the school board was able to preserve the school, though the same situation has arisen at Union high schools where each teacher would be expected to teach with many subjects.

The question appears to be that the district parent is interested in the future of the school, but is not interested in the fact that the school is being closed.

While union bodies are being closed, the school board has the authority to close the school, which will mean the last possible school in the area.

It is a pity that the school board is not able to preserve the school, but it is a pity that the school board is not able to preserve the school.

CAPITAL REPORT

Legislature set for opening

By NEW HADON

EDMONTON—With considerable pomp and pageantry, the first session of the 14th Alberta Legislature was to open here in the capital city this week (Thursday). Opening day was to be marked by the usual elaborate ceremonies, presided over by the Lieutenant Governor, Hon. J. Percy Pearce reading the speech from the Throne giving the government's legislative program.

The following day, the reply to the speech will be given by W. D. Ross, M.P., newly-elected Social Credit M.L.A. from West Deer, and accompanied by Mrs. Edith Wilson, minister for Education. Then the House will be adjourned until Monday, when members will get down to serious business. Industrial law and education come up in the biggest items to face the Social Credit-dominated Legislature.

Last week it appeared certain the government was determined to go ahead with its revolutionary program to take over the funding of some industries and gain the revenue to be redistributed. The scheme is designed to correct the "inequality" which exists when an industry pays its taxes, but the industrial workers live in the rural municipality and create a demand for services.

The most striking example is in the Edmonton area where a multi-million dollar industrial complex is the foundation of the city's growth. The industrial workers live in the rural municipality of Edmonton, and the rural municipality is not able to provide the services which the industrial workers need.

Naturally, this means a huge revenue loss for the rural municipality. The Social Credit government has decided to take over the funding of the industrial workers' services, and the rural municipality will be able to provide the services which the industrial workers need.

Industrially, the new plan would be applied only to 70 or so major industries which produce a major revenue. Presumably, more would be added later. One of the results of the tax scheme would be a cutting, province-wide commensurate, and all industries affected would be under the same plan.

POPE'S BILL DEVILHARD AND GARY ANDERSON lead the grand march for those who gathered to celebrate their day in Britain on January 10. Immediately behind are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton, and the centre back Mr. Bob Kerr who earlier in the evening had shown the crowd in his "Address to the People." Gary is the nephew of Mrs. Chris Cresswell of Edson.

"Watch, it's time for the big march," says Mr. Kerr to the crowd.

Federal and provincial governments are co-operating with business and industry all over Canada to boost winter employment by providing jobs—but they need the help of home-builders.

If you have any home repair jobs that need doing, they say, don't wait for spring-coming time to get them done, but do it now.

That is the slogan of the drive of creating more jobs in the traditionally slack winter months, reducing seasonal unemployment levels, and ultimately achieving a steady, year-round economy in Canada less affected by extremes of weather.

In seasons depending not only on continuing large-scale construction work, but also on the winter, using modern techniques of building unfinished buildings from the weather, but on the help of thousands of home-builders, each working for at least a few months for a short time.

What can you do? Well, most homes and apartments need something done from time to time in the paint, polish and repair line.

A recreation room in the basement, or a spare room in the attic, could be built in the winter—and probably more cheaply than any other time, since most repair firms offer discounts to stimulate work in the slack months.

The quality of work done might well be better, too, because builders and handy-men have more time and fewer people are crowding them to get jobs done.

Interior decorating, renovations, painting or wallpapering are also jobs that can be done in winter. Electricians can check wiring, carpenters can put up a partition, plumbers can put in a modern sewer as any other time.

Your few dollars won't stay in the pocket of the man for whom you make work. They will spread out through the winter economies, giving the whole country a steady flow of Canada's shot in the arm.

Multiplying that by the thousands, and you're looking at a big picture which every winter brings and thus benefitting you, too.

Many of the jobs that can be done in winter are not only for the winter, but for the year-round work. The quality of work done might well be better, too, because builders and handy-men have more time and fewer people are crowding them to get jobs done.

Canada and the Commonwealth are rejoicing a birth in the Royal Family. Here in happy family portrait taken last summer at Windsor, Canada by noted Canadian news photographer, Russell Cooper, Ottawa and Ottawa Commonwealth capitals were joined to receive news of a royal birth and set off 24-gun salutes in recognition of first birth to a reigning monarch since age of Queen Victoria.

Hinton Chamber hears talk on education

One of the big decisions made last night was the information at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting, and one that had been discussed considerably. Interest in members entered information booth for fourth anniversary.

In view of the fact that the annual plan for a booth along the highway in the fall marking the Chamber's 40th anniversary, a little beyond the usual of the Chamber at the moment, the Chamber will be made available to the Chamber in the town. There is a booth in the lobby of the Chamber at the moment, and the Chamber will be made available to the Chamber at the moment.

BERRY MARTIN is the choice of City Servants combined with the Lions Club for Carvel Goss campaign. Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berry, one of the "tailor" girls at the local telephone exchange. A Good student, Betty comes to school with her parents' car and has the toughest schooling. An accomplished dance instructor, Betty is dancing her way through college.

DARLENE O'HARA is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Hara, candidate for Goss. The youngest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Hara, Darlene is 18 years of age and is attending the University of Idaho last year. She is active in sports and is a personal friend of the Sdss. Her ambition is to travel around America as a singing star and become an airline cabin stewardess.

As a result of protests from 20 districts out of the 45 in Edson School Division the proposed school building program at Nilton and Evansburg will be put to a vote by a plebiscite within the Division, the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees was told at the meeting at Hinton on Feb 10.

The proposed $130,000 building program was to have built a five room addition to the Niten centralization and four rooms at Evansburg. It is expected the platelists will be held towards the end of March.

Eleven of the protests came from the Wildwood area and nine from the Peers, Fulham, Niten area. While the Board received seven alternate suggestions, the gist of the protests were against building up the school plants at Evansburg and at Niten.

Coal Branch to amalgamate

[illegible]

Due to the lowered assessment of the Coal Branch the previous year, the Board of Education has agreed to an equalization grant to Edison Division as revenue from the Branch will probably not cover expenses from now on. In the near future, Edison Division taxpayers should be called on to subsidize Coal Branch schools.

Parents interviews a success

Mr. Bourke spoke about the "double duty" dollars of life insurance. The phrase, he said draws attention to the fact that policyholders are also beneficiaries of the protection for families and savings for old age, and the economy when invested by the company in thousands of community projects. He also drew attention to the fact that policyholders in dividends, and to both policyholders and beneficiaries in policy benefits.

"The individual life insurance policy is a small stream, been one of the main sources for the savings of our people and an important part of our national savings."

Mr. Bourke said the increase in private outside savings and compensation has been going on in Canada at a faster pace than the country's financial capacities per-

"The implications of further extension of such large external borrowing should be carefully considered in the short term and also the long term interests of our country."

A country's rate of growth, he added, would be determined by the ability and the willingness of its people to save. Savings, moreover, benefit both the saver and the economy as a whole -- the two

TV owners turn more to newspapers

Canada's 3,800,000 TV set owners are becoming more "selective" in watching programs, less, and turning to other pursuits. Like newspaper reading, Frank Ranky reports in Liberty magazine.

His national survey showed that Canadians now sit before their television sets for three hours and seven minutes an evening, 17 minutes less than in 1958. Last year 40% of new sets were sold. About 14% of recent Canadian homes with television now have more than one set.

In a survey of 200 people and their viewing habits, Joyce Campbell, in Survey of Arts, says Cana-

Rask found that 80 per cent in this season's Canadian "unpopular," particularly the style children's shows and past affairs shows like "Newsmagazine."

Eight Canadian shows are among the top 10 programs most popular with Canadian viewers, according to Elliot Haynes ratings. Rask reports NII. Hockey won the ratings followed by "Front Page Challenge," "G M Presents," "I'm a Borrowed Life," "Country House," "Startime," "Talent Canada," and Don Messer's Jubilee.

Carlyle Allison, permanent member of the Board of Broadcast Governors, told Liberty in an interview that the Board means

Gaylene Armstrong wed in February ceremony

Edson United Church was the scene of a wedding of wide interest Saturday, February 13th, when Gaylene Grace Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Armstrong of Edson, became the bride of Herbert Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Herman of Edmonton.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink and white glads accented by tall white lilies and green. Organist, Guyer Rev. C. G. Armstrong performed the ceremony. Mrs. G. M. Marston played the wedding march and when Mrs. Helen Hartline, Kruttschnitt of Winnipeg, gave in marriage by her father. The bride was radiant in a floor-length gown of white lace and was radiant on previous occasions. Little pink flowers and an evergreen centerpiece of lilies and carnations with red roses set off the bride as she sat in the first black, bell of lace and white gown. Her only previous experience of a cultural pearl, gift of the groom. A about bouquet of sweetest roses, lilies of the valley and ivy comp- bled her ensemble.

Bridal attendants Miss Elizabeth Allen of Edson and Miss Elsie Lyles of Edmonton, were identical guests of numerous all organs as with matching accessories and handbags of pink variations and tulle. Their bouquets were of pink variations.

Attending the groom were Al Lyles of Edmonton and Ruth Armstrong, brother of the bride, of Edson. Others were Earl Smith, cousin of the bride and Jack Armstrong, brother of the groom.

For the occasion Mrs. Armstrong chose a jacketed dress of pink, mauve and grey with grey accents and hat of pink and mauve petals. Her carriage was of pink variations. Mrs. Hartman chose a rose water suit with fur collar and rose and lace accessories and pale rose shoes.

Leaving phone off hook a trouble causer

Putting a line on the AGT pro- gram in town we learned that one of the most frequent causes of people not being able to get their party is that of phones being left off the hook.

This failure could be due to many causes. They discovered the trouble was because some housewife could not get down the stairs a few steps for coffee.

Instead of taking her coffee with her she leaves her sleeping in his crib with the receiver off the hook. Some time. Then if he calls she can't hear him and everything is lost.

The only trouble is—and it is something that most people just don't realize—is that when the receiver is left off the hook for 20 minutes, it sends up the most critical equipment in the system. Look off for a longer period and the system will be damaged. It is not a simple thing to change. It is not a simple thing to change. It is not a simple thing to change.

Post Office tightens regs. on "householder" mail

New regulations outlined to control the acceptance of "householder" mail were announced this week by the Post Office Department.

Under the regulations, which go into effect June 1st, "householder" mail must be folded to a size of 4 1/2 x 12 inches. The contents of envelopes and advertising literature will be prohibited in this class of mail.

H & S executive study report

The monthly meeting of the executive of the Home and School Association was held on Wednesday, February 18. After the minutes were read, the matters arising out of the minutes, namely, the Cameron report on education was discussed.

The report of the report has been received and a study group is being formed to go into the report and eventually to send out (Edson's) letter to Edmonton. The group will meet on Monday evening, March 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Edson school.

Anybody who is interested in this subject is most welcome to attend either regularly or at the time a subject which particularly interests them is discussed.

A vote of thanks was passed to the committee headed by Mrs. Add who on only arranged the purchase and distribution of the vitamins.

A vote of thanks was also passed to Mr. Collins for his last survey work with the school at the Edson school.

The minutes of the association were read for the town of Edson was brought up. It was suggested that the Home and School Association hold a survey of recreational facilities in Edson and get Edson's opinion on what the $25,000 should be spent on.

Under the changes announced today, large bulky "free" and "householder" mail will not be limited to the registered class. The system will be restricted to printed matter—that is, to matter on paper, parchment or cardstock. Illustrations, facsimile samples and other advertising literature which are bulky and hard to handle will be prohibited.

The four-day period previously allowed for delivery of "householder" mail will be extended to seven days.

The rate on larger items, that is, those of over two ounces in weight, has been increased by one-half cent per two ounces.

In announcing the changes, the Postmaster General stated that advance notice has been given to major publishers and advertisers and publishers to adjust to the new regulations and to plan their printing schedules in the light of the new requirements.

Boys Band celebrates 2nd anniversary

Edson's 2nd band was a happy group on the 2nd of February when they celebrated their second anniversary. The band was formed by the boys of the Edson school and their parents for their great support of the band. As was given.

Mr. Langston gave a speech pointing out the wonderful job done in training the boys. He also stated that training will give them a chance to join any band he also pointed out the good work he has done in order to keep up the band, with very little help from the town.

Mr. Langston said that it should not only be the success of the boys that support the band. It should be the whole town as this is a community affair and the town needs a band.

The boys played several marches and the audience enjoyed their music very much. Mr. Langston and Mr. Hendrick shared time on the band's parade in Edson and city parades which was thoroughly enjoyed. Afterwards a chicken lunch was served to all by Mrs. Hendrick, Mrs. May and Mrs. Randall.

Special thanks goes to the following business men who donated the cream, pop, cookies, donuts and meat for sandwiches: Roy Bird, Fred Stone, Candy Stone, Goldsmith, Farmers' Meat Market, Mrs. H. Randall would like to thank the Edson Leader for the use of the hall.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends and relatives for their kind acts and messages of sympathy in our recent bereavement. Special thanks to Dr. Lee, the nurses and staff of St. John's Hospital. The McElroy Family.

This week The Western Signal comes out time. We are pleased to announce that we have agreement with G. Mailhot of Signal Publishing over the subscriptions to the Signal and in connection with those of The Leader. Mr. Mailhot will operate the Signal plant as a commercial printing house. Unexpired subscriptions will be credited on the new basis.

This is a nostalgic occasion for your Loo
for the war years, until August 1945.

The Signal came into being as the Edison-Jasper-Edson for Park readers on the 1st of October, 1927, and was published by J. A. a former school inspector. It was named for the same name as Jasper. The printing was done in the summer of 1928 the late Sydney H. Cliffe printing plant to Edson from Herbert, Saak, an partnership with Mr. Hollinshead. This lasted of years. Gradually Mr. Cliffe found himself doing and Mr. Hollinshead was getting all the glory. mention, typical to the trade, of money. Mr Cliffe ceased publication until his death two years ago three years during the last war.

The Edison Leader has been published in February 17, 1911. Except for its earlier years, appeared intermittently until April 9, 1965, when y editor resumed regular publication

We have been somewhat amused through since we reentered The Leader at the off-again-Edison doesn't need two newspapers." Edison's history is dotted with not just two newspapers, at least a dozen! At some stages there seemed to be three competing sheets. Their varying of themselves chronicled the ups and downs of our business and alternately subside.

Volume One, Number One, of the Edson Leader at Heatherwood, Alberta, (Edson's first name) made a boast that it had no connection with the Edson News previous to 1911 had been printed in Edmonton. Venn, nor with another sheet previously published at Wolf Creek was the railway construction centre. Publisher James R. Andrews, who in addition to his other work, styled himself as manager too, announced at the time that the Leader printing plant was modern and handled all manner of job printing. The early issues of the paper are better examples of the printer's craft than the later papers that had the advantage of more modern equipment. (Continued on Page 4, Second Section)

Tuesday, March 15 is Mystery Night at the Legion. Once again bingo fans have the opportunity to choose the amount of money they win by picking sealed envelopes. These envelopes have $5, $10, $20 or one might even have a fifty dollar bill in it.

The first fifteen games are played as straight bingo and later on. The sixteenth game is a blackout for $100.00.

It proved very entertaining and successful last time. The bingo committee has decided to put it on the tables. Those bingo fans who play three or four or even more cards will appreciate this added convenience. No fun without those cards, especially when you get excited.

Battle River

The spring has long been open, and this always means to me that spring can not be far behind. It is also a time to be thinking about your cattle breeding program for the coming year.

It is commonly said that "the bull is half the herd," and this is certainly true because half of what a calf is, he owes to the bull that sired him. And as it is vitally important that a bull be adequate for your needs, he selected he should be better than the best cows in your herd, if herd improvement is desired. A good bull pays the himself very quickly in better calves and a better herd.

The Department of Agriculture is ready to assist any farmer in the buying of a bull. If you wish the Department to buy the best bull for the money you want to pay and will pay 50% of the cost of it up to $75.00. Transients that come to your premises, and plug points will also be paid. If you have a particular bull in mind the Department will have him in mind and if approved, will pay 50% of the price of him.

If you wish to obtain a bull under this policy, call or write to my Battle River office and no application will be provided along with full information.

Shag Information. The booklet "Shag Production in Alberta" has been newly issued and is now available at this office for sheep owners. It contains a wealth of information on shag breeding, feeding, management and shag.

Prevention of pregnancy disease. In sheep disease, this is the time of year to be watching for pregnancy disease. This is mainly a nutritional and management problem. Basically it is a deficiency of vitamins and feed deficiency disease. The condition is most prevalent in older ewes which were on poor pasture during the summer and then wintered in these quarters on poor quality hay only.

The first sign of the disease is the lagging of one or more of the ewes when the flock is being driven. Affected animals usually always graze their teeth, appear restless, and lose weight. They usually frequently and tremble when exercised. As the condition progresses the ewes reduce feed and water and lose the power to stand. They usually lie on their backs with their heads turned to the side of their bodies, revealing a raw, inflamed, and painful area.

Prevention of pregnancy disease is much more practical than treatment. About six weeks before lambing give the ewes a good live weight hay. Also at this time feed one quarter of a pound of salt per ewe. If necessary gradually increase this ration until the ewes are getting a pound a day at the end of three weeks. The addition of salt to twenty per cent of hay to the salt ration is a good idea. Small quantities of molasses may also be fed with the grain or diluted with water.

When diluted with water or molasses in the ration of about one part per day it is an equally important part of the ration. It is so important that it is often said that a ewe which has already contracted the disease a dose of three to four tablespoons of grain a day is recommended. For more specific information concerning treatment consult your veterinarian.

Feed or water the ewes at least a quarter of a salt away from

Witnesses to convene in Edson this weekend

Some 200 delegates will convene in Edson this weekend for their three day assembly to be held Friday and Saturday in this hall and Sunday in the West Theatre. This is the second assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses to be held in Edson during the past 14 months, and during this period of time the local congregation has increased a 30 percent increase in numbers.

The local congregation had three ministers here in 1965, and has increased to six present 42 members with two full time ministers. Mr. Schreiner, local presiding minister attributes the rapid increase of ministers of Jehovah's Witnesses to the fact that they are spreading the Good News of the Kingdom. The assembly program will be addressed by a number of local ministers. Featured speaker will be Charles E. Hopperth, District representative from Toronto, and William J. Power, local speaker.

LINE UP ON CURLING

Canadian Curling is curiosity to Scots

By Ken Watson

Buildings school for farmers at Stony Plain

A Farm Buildings School will be held at Stony Plain in the Community Centre on Monday and Tuesday, March 5 and 6. Starting at 10:00 a.m., and concluding at 4:00 p.m. each day, the course will be given by Agricultural Engineers C. Chisholm and E. Reid. It was stated by R. C. Beeking, District Agricultural.

The course will feature the use of many different buildings, at lower cost. New and more efficient building methods and materials will be discussed, as well as the design of farm buildings, heating, insulation, and ventilation, and many other topics.

The course is sponsored by the Alberta Department of Agriculture and the Stony Plain Agricultural Society. It is intended for farmers and persons in the area.

KATHY'S COLUMN

ON TEEN AND HERO

Well, it looks like winter is here to stay again. Day's every day spring will be here in a few months. In the meantime this is all the fun we can have alone and relaxing.

Another thing this winter is good for reading, and reading is the best thing to do when it is too cold to go out. I have read a lot of books and I have found that reading is the best thing to do when it is too cold to go out.

If you haven't got your nose in the High School, then you had better hurry. It's not making this a big success.

In your own home, there is a lot of fun to be had. If you are a reader, then you can read a lot of books and you can find out a lot of things about the world.

A little has finally been given for the reason. At the end of the year, the school will be closed for a few days and the students will be able to go home.

Leading for a chance to win a prize. The school is giving a prize to the student who has the best essay on the topic of "The Future of the World".

Someone also told me that a student from a school in Idaho had better not miss it.

If there is anyone who is not studying for the test, there is a test in the school. The test is in the school and the students are to take it.

The Junior boys basketball team is going to play a game this weekend. The game is in the school and the students are to watch it.

I am sure everyone who is not studying for the test, there is a test in the school. The test is in the school and the students are to take it.

It was really too bad, but I am sure they will be in the school.

There are a lot of things to do in the school. The students are to do a lot of things and the teachers are to help them.

over her. She was a very good student and she was very popular. She was a very good student and she was very popular.

PARISH HANCOCK

Only when a family moved north, with children in offer a comparison, did Mary's father realize how delayed her speech was. They became friends.

Many parents worry if a child is not talking as early as well as others. This is a common mistake.

It is very important to believe that your child's speech is made delayed if it may be that your child is a little slower than the others.

When all the children are in the school, the child must be able to do a lot of things.

There are all kinds of EDSON LADS playing hockey this winter. What do they need most? Skis, but better to come to the rink with them. Ask your boy to take you, Edson! Come on the winter isn't over yet.

Who was the boy who came out of the Crows Store dressed with his? There seems to be a lot of boys around and maybe I should say that to school. They're very nice. It's not a bad idea to go to school with a good idea.

A major earthquake almost happened in the high school this week when a book fell through the window in the ceiling of the hall and almost hit a girl. Talk about lucky!

Many students for these reasons. Two more months and it will be winter.

Handed over the great at the Chamber of Commerce meeting held recently was a motion picture on the program. Citizens of Canada and district must know that it is a much more important act than is usually realized.

The man who is elected president of the Chamber of Commerce takes over a great responsibility. He has been elected by nearly 100% of the businessmen of the city. They contribute the largest part of the tax revenue.

There was anything to do with the Chamber's work will know that the president gave a great deal of time during the last year. The president will have to devote at least an equal amount of his time if the Chamber is to continue to fulfill its function.

The Chamber of Commerce has no way in how tax money are spent. Canada is a very democratic country and the Chamber of Commerce is a very democratic organization.

Trade this is usually done. The Chamber of Commerce is a very democratic organization and the Chamber of Commerce is a very democratic organization.

son's enthusiastic junior career reach the finals. Harvey Switzer and Herman Lindgren were curling with the best of them and could possibly show many of the young or even a few veterans.

The facts of life in the "Edison corridor" were explained to members of the Edison District Resident Pulp Cutters Association by the Hon. Norman Wilmore at a meeting in the Commodore banquet room last Wednesday.

A survey by the Forestry Department, Mr. Willmore explained, reveals the annual growth in the area to be about 4000 cords a year. This will allow only 40 miscellaneous permits of 100 cords each per year. Or alternately would allow only eight permits of 500 cords as was the case prior to the recent cut in cordage by his department.

Half an hour later, however, in the previous area, spruce, 25 per cent spruce and 25 per cent pine told Mr. Muehle. It takes 30 years for spruce and 20 years for pine to reach its maximum growth he said.

In order to promote a policy of sustained yield the whole province is being aerial mapped and checked by crews on the ground, to establish our forest resources. Areas of the province have been designated yellow or prairie areas and others as green areas. The Eden corridor is on the west edge of the yellow area.

In the Edson area could become a way to make a full time living. If a pulp cutter wants to engage full time in this type of work, he should then consider trying for a contract from the pulp mill. The Lake Shore company in answer to a question he added there was some over-mature stands which could add a little to the immediate annual quota, but there is not too much in this category.

Mr. Willmore reviewed the history of the pulp mill coming to this area. He reminded his listeners that when the pulp mill first came not too many of them were anxious to switch from lime kiln operations to pulp-making.

With the passing of five years since the mill started operations, the demand for miscellaneous permits for Crown land controlled by His Department had risen and was attracting people from other parts of the province who had no previous connection with the Edison woods.

A PROSPECT FOR OUR TOWN TOO

What has happened to Red Deer has a good chance of happening to Edmonton in the not too distant future. On the first of March the Red Deer Advocate a widely respected newspaper left the ranks of the semi-weekly press and branched out into the daily newspaper field. There is a rough rule of thumb among newspaper people that a town gets the kind of newspaper it deserves.

Red Deer is one of the first places in Alberta to live. It has had good progressive leadership in its civic affairs and planning. This coincided with its geographical location. Just mid-way between Alberta's two big cities, and surrounded by a bunch of good towns in a mixed economy area, progress to city status was inevitable.

The switch to a daily deadline in the publishing industry is what practically is a new business — and a very, very tough one it is. Red Deer is already over-lapped from both north and south by strong, entrenched circulation from the Edmonton and Calgary dailies. The Advocate is not a little brother paper of any of these dailies. It is not even a relative. None of the established dailies had any indication that they proposed to budge an inch to make room for the daily Advocate either.

The city of Red Deer will gain right away from this latest enterprise. It will receive the intense news coverage that only a daily can give. Red Deer business and industry will be able to capitalize on the tremendous advertising power of a home town daily. Competition from the Edmonton and Calgary

THIS IS RED CROSS MONTH

This is Red Cross Month and every year this newspaper is pleased to draw attention to this commemoration. It is our way of paying tribute to the Canadian Red Cross Society, a great national organization. It is also an opportunity to salute the many people in this community who serve as willing volunteers and carry on traditional Red Cross work.

These men, women and children are devoted to their various tasks and willingly assume additional duties whenever there is a call for their services. They give their time, their talent, their talent and their money to help others. They ask nothing in return because they have the satisfaction that they are people helping people. These Red Cross volunteers have a serious concern for the welfare of others, one of the most admirable of human attributes.

Every day we see these citizens carrying on their duties. In our schools the Junior Red Cross is a most important project and through it our children are developing an interest in their youth, their community and generally learning to be good citizens of the future.

There are more than 100,000 Red Cross volunteers in the community. They are the backbone of the Red Cross. They are the ones who make the Red Cross what it is. They are the ones who make the Red Cross what it is. They are the ones who make the Red Cross what it is.

A Hinton district worker for the past two years, Yron Morris took his own life in a hotel room in Edmon last Friday night.

Mr Morris had registered at the hotel on Thursday and his body was found Saturday when a member of the hotel staff entered to clean his room.

Evidence in the room indicated Morin had tried to hang himself in the clothes closet, then managed the job under the bed springs.

The suicide victim was about thirty years of age. He had no known relations in the west and following notification of death of his the body was sent home to Dorchester County, Quebec (for burial).

No inquest has been called as yet by District Coroner Dr. R. Bedford. The case is still under investigation by Edson Town Police.

Edson's winter carnival is scheduled for Friday evening, March 11 at 8 p.m. Earlier indications are that a good crowd will be in attendance.

Kiddies races will start at 7:30 so that the main program can start at 8. Bring the whole family and enjoy the local fun.

At the close of the vote count at 4 p.m. Wednesday afternoon, Betty Martin who is sponsored by the City of Everett was ahead in the queen contest with an even 40,000 votes.

Darlene O'Hara the Klatskan choice was next with 38,200 and Eleanor Perkins, the Pika's favorite was next with 37,600 votes.

Voting is still going on and a final count will be made Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. Get those books in and give your favorite a better chance.

Frank Ming Mah, former Hilton restaurant manager, received the three sentence in an Education Appeal on Tuesday. The sentence was on a robbery charge of which he was charged a firearm with intent to wound. The original charge had been one of attempted murder.

The charge was laid after a fracas in Milton last November 28 when the accused broke up a house party by shooting and wounding William Charlton twice in the upper legs.

In passing sentence the judge held that Mah had his sympathy for him but that he had been ridiculed by Charlton for being a Chinese, but that did not give him the right to take the law in his own hands.

THE FIRST OF TWO BAD FIRES in four days broke out in Owen's Service Garage on 4th Avenue West some time after ten o'clock on Friday night, March 11. The fire developed into a blaze that completely gutted the interior and part of the roof of the garage. The fire's origin has not been established, but it was too far advanced by the time Edson flames arrived to save much of the structure. The William Owen, the proprietor, plans to continue his garage operations as soon as reconstruction can be arranged.

PROBABLY THE MOST SPECTACULAR FIRE in the city's history broke out in the basement of the Edson Hotel about eleven o'clock Monday night. The fire started in the basement of the Edson Hotel. The three-story building was completely destroyed by the flames. This shot taken about 2:30 a.m. after the fire.

Hours after the fire alarm was sounded, the fire department was going to defeat the stubborn fire which had started in the basement of the Edson Hotel about eleven o'clock Monday night. The spectacular blaze which consumed the three-story building was quite a sight.

Kin Carnival well attended in spite of cold weather

The Edson Arena was crowded in spite of cold and weather last Friday night for the Kin Carnival sponsored by the Edson Kiwanis and Klotters.

Presided over by Kenneth Queen Betty Martin and her two partners as House, Puckles and Goshawk.

School debutante poll Saturday at local places

The plebiscite of proprietary schools of Edson School Division is scheduled for Saturday March 19, from 2 to 3 p.m., at the office of the Edson School Division on Main Street for the election from the town of Edson.

Other voting places in the immediate district are the south before of Brumfield, Will, Reid, Wilson, Power, Pullman and MacPherson school.

The poll is being taken to get a better idea on school facilities at Edson and Brumfield in the east end of the school division. The amount of the proposed levy is $100,000 at the per cent increase.

A proprietary school is one where who is liable is assessed and he is liable in respect of any property in the school division. He must be a Canadian citizen and have been in the division for one year prior to the calling of the poll.

Others, the law office gave several down last performance a chance to show the other houses.

Queen Betty was crowned to fair fare provided by Betty Kendall and his Elva Jander Band and Main street, by Kiwanis President H. H. James.

Numbers on the program included all the Kin Edson by "milders" Suzanne Wortman, Betty Shewer, Mickey Bakula, Wayne Thomas, Cheryl Brownson, Ray Allen, Ken Matheson, Brenda McQueen, Vera de Hinton, Ed Taylor, Wendy Collett, Karen Pillay, Joe McEachern, Kevin Barker, Della McCrue, Ricky Taylor, Joe Elkhart, Sharon Sparks, Shirley Chubb, Brian Lill, Ken and Brian Lawson.

Lorraine Macdonald and Betty Martin stated a short "Hollywood Tango", followed by the "Clown" Lorraine Macdonald, Lynn Elkhart, Chairman Smith Robert Martin, Robert Davidson, Kathy Barker, Elaine Armstrong, Howie's Dickey, Patrick Martin, Lorne Jones and Willie Gardner.

A basketball game between pickup teams from the CHS and the Edson Club brought the crowd to their feet several times. The game was interrupted with the Elva Jander Band.

Has oldest drivers license in Canada

Mr. Robert Ross, who celebrated his 90th birthday at his home here last Thursday, believes he holds the record for having had a longer continuous period of not driving than anyone in Canada.

Mr. Ross obtained his license in Berkshire, England, in 1920 and has been driving, without five, ever since. He and Mrs. Ross were longtime residents of the Crowsfoot where Mr. Ross was an insurance manager at Columbia.

To help observe his 90th birthday, their daughter Mrs. Margaret Johnston of Edmonton spent the long weekend with the Rosses, her daughter, Mrs. T. Williams, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were on hand as well.

At the arena up a hill to displace the killing order requested with the Edmonton group to show that the bill has the power that made her a favorite in the former Edson.

Edson Landmark destroyed by fire

For the interested spectators who stayed to see if the Edson Volunteer Fire Department were going to defeat the stubborn fire which had started in the basement of the Edson Hotel about eleven o'clock Monday night, the spectacular blaze which consumed the three-story building was quite a sight.

After pouring thousands of gallons of water through the window and made hours for nearly five hours the Edson volunteers had to contend themselves with a masterful job of confining the flames to the fifty year old frame structure.

Early retiring guests had to be woken from the smoke filled halls after the alarm was turned in shortly after eleven o'clock. Two members of the fire department who were blocked by heavy fumes in the main stair well disabled round stony rooms were vacant. The beverage room was being well patronized and had to be quickly cleared as well.

The Edson Hotel had been a in the roadway and lower of the town system. This was the main capacity of the Town street.

Members of the Town Police Department and both local detachments of the RCMP did previous arrive as containing the crowd, the gathered and at times threatened to hamper the work of the fire.

Mr. Beck and Mr. McDonald have announced their intention to begin immediate construction of a new property as soon as plans can be approved.

One of the coincidences of the fire was that it was exactly 42 years to the night when a former fireman from the hotel, Mr. Tom Sawyer, first came to take charge of business.

GREEN ACRES

What is Hand Farming? We live in what is considered to be a mixed farming district. It is a mixture of many types of livestock and crops.

Hand Farming

Many people believe that the old way to operate a small farm is to milk a few cows, feed a few pigs, keep one or two hundred head of sheep, perhaps some chickens, and some other animals being milked and which are used for a better name, some turned into hogs. Usually a little grain is sold as well. This, we are told, is a mixed farm.

Hand Farming

Because there are a good many in this district which operate more or less in this manner, it is not an oddity to take a good look at this type of farming. The main point is to know that it is a mixed farm.

Hand Farming

At present, one or two minor enterprises can be carried out in mixed farming. It is not an oddity to take a good look at this type of farming. The main point is to know that it is a mixed farm.

GREEN ACRES

What is Hand Farming? We live in what is considered to be a mixed farming district. It is a mixture of many types of livestock and crops.

Hand Farming

Many people believe that the old way to operate a small farm is to milk a few cows, feed a few pigs, keep one or two hundred head of sheep, perhaps some chickens, and some other animals being milked and which are used for a better name, some turned into hogs. Usually a little grain is sold as well. This, we are told, is a mixed farm.

Hand Farming

Because there are a good many in this district which operate more or less in this manner, it is not an oddity to take a good look at this type of farming. The main point is to know that it is a mixed farm.

Trailer coach park regulations revised this year

Revised Alberta regulations governing trailer coaches and mobile homes make provisions for three types of mobile home parks in the province—permanent, temporary and tourist. The new regulations become effective January 1st.

The standard of new permanent coach parks and services provided will be raised as a result of the changes in regulations. Minimum square area of one trailer lot has been increased from 1,000 square feet to 1,200 square feet or lot 25 feet by 50 feet. Operators will be required to provide, on one general playground, an area equipped with the kinds of 100 square foot coach coach, as well as a minimum water supply of 100 gallons per day, and suitable laundry room equipment.

The development of temporary and tourist parks is also controlled by regulations. A temporary park, particularly one set up in a new or undeveloped area, can operate on a one year permit issued by the local board of health. It must comply with strict sanitary regulations.

Operators of tourist trailer coach areas must provide toilet facilities, a safe water supply, garbage receptacles and disposal area.

Tourists may stay at a trailer park only for a period of ten days. A further one year extension may be granted by the local board of health. Whether in temporary, permanent or tourist trailer coach areas, a restriction has been placed on the size of parking lots and the number of trailers parked at any one time. The addition may not be built higher than the trailer itself and must not extend 10 feet in any direction.

The new regulations also prohibit parking a trailer coach on a public street, lane or travel portion of any highway.

Neighbors act like it

"A friend in need is a friend indeed" proved true last week, when about 20 people gathered in the church basement at Grande Prairie Trail where a shower was given in honor of the Schmitt family who recently lost their home by fire.

They received kindness and help from all quarters. An article was also presented in the family—a donation of various business papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Afflerer live in Grande Prairie and would like to thank all who gave donations and helped to make the shower a success.

Course for beef producers at Evansburg

A day of great interest to all in service to beef cattle has been planned for April 1st, in the Evansburg Community hall.

Speakers on this occasion will be Dr. Ray Beyer of the University of Alberta, and Mr. Charles Giesler, Livestock Supervisor for the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

The course will begin sharp at 10 a.m. and end at 4:30 p.m. District Agricultural Officer, R. C. Bocking, announced today.

Included in the course will be discussion on the breeding, feeding and management of the beef breeding herd. Considerable material will be presented on finishing beef cattle, including types of feeding operations, rationing for finishing cattle, use of hormones, sanitation and feed additives, and the buying and selling of feeder calves.

Following the course, a luncheon will be served with beef producers.

Seen on the main drag

Mr. P. Beyer of Edmonton, who for the last several years has been visiting in Grande Prairie, was seen on the main drag, and the business about him was very busy.

He is currently attending here, and is from the center section of the city.

They converse and another lady descending the steps.

—Pete Crick making the rounds to check on the condition of the cattle.

—John Foster preparing for the day.

—Many centers have taken pictures where the Evansburg Hotel is to be.

—Water, water everywhere. We suspect it might be spring.

—Using and equipment, emphasizing economy of beef production.

—Points of opportunity will be provided for questions and discussion.

All persons interested in beef cattle are invited.

Leave for European trip

Two friends from west of town, Messrs. H. Wadley and Tony Bann, left last week for an extended trip to Europe. They will both visit England and then if they have time, they will visit Italy.

One of the objects of the trip is to purchase a bull to further improve his herd of pure bred stock.

Whether the trip succeeds in bringing anything back from Italy, we were unable to ascertain. Good hunting at any rate, Italia.

Old timer in district dies at Coast

One of Edson's early pioneers, Mr. Frank Bann, passed away at the age of 80 at White Rock, B.C. on March 10.

Mr. Bann had resided in Edson from before the First World War, before moving to the town of White Rock. He had been married to Mrs. Bann for 40 years. They had four children, three sons and one daughter. Mr. Bann was a member of the White Rock Golf and Country Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bann, and his daughter, Mrs. Bann, who is the Evansburg rink.

An appeal to the citizens of Edson and Hinton

From: the parents of Evansburg

Our children in the primary grades are crowded into a building that has been officially condemned.

For 40 years our parents, ourselves and our children have learned the "Edson" way. The building is an old friend that has given good service and has earned its retirement.

Our school growth has been so rapid that now four hundred children have less than three acres of playground. This results in staggering overcrowding, which means disturbance, confusion, and irritation for pupils and teachers.

We appeal to you to vote "YES" to the proposition on Saturday, March 19th so that our children can enjoy the same privileges that other children in the division do. We need that extra land and a new primary school.

Help your friends in Evansburg accommodate their little ones as you would want your children accommodated.

Vote "YES" on Saturday. Remember the polls close at 7:00 p.m.

Safety Sam Says...

Taming Lions is no trick... compared to speeding when it's slick!

We've had even a lion-tamer wouldn't consider spending over slippery roads. Because if he did, his chances of living long enough to do any more lion-taming wouldn't be so good. Just like your chances of living any more if you speed when it's slick. It's a thought to consider, when it's Winter all around us.

Of the $22 million received in sales last year, he told his listeners, 80 per cent came from the United States. Being paid in U.S. funds, the Hinton company suffers by the difference in the exchange rate. Twelve per cent of the money received last year was paid in the exchange rate. For transportation $200,000 spent on direct purchases in this area, and two million dollars were spent on chemicals, mostly from Canadian firms.

However, Except for trade deficit work are in the pulp industry, it is traditionally a man's trade, said Mr. Collings.

The company employed some 1,000 people in the Hinton area. Mr. Collings paid tribute to the co-operative responsibility of the International Pulp & Paper Workers Union in meeting the demand that the company had not elsewhere with

Thieves get little in break-ins

It was estimated by the victims involved that thieves who break into four business places in Min-n's last Tuesday, got only a little better than 150 for their pains.
The break-ins seemed to be of a hot and cold variety as they struck at both retail and wholesale.
A small sale was taken from the Bessie's Book Store after a cash box from B.A. Book Sales office and a cash register from the Hinton Tea Shop in the 10-12-13 block building.
The Valley Style Shop was also entered, but the full of the cash register was open and empty so that it was left intact. The unintended stream was made to enter Minn's Store.
All the cash registers stolen were later found along the highway.

Prices of these registers can be checked.
These registers, and the cash register of all that were involved, were stolen from a store who have received an increase.

With nearly $100,000 coming in from a brother died recently, Henry Marshall of Carlson Place, Edson, finds even more enjoyment in his lights a favorite place to celebrate the news. But "every cent will be put to good use," he stresses. Marshall, 50, will get money left by older brother William S. Marshall, a Washington, D.C., real estate broker who died February 3.

With the Churches As I See It

By PASTOR NUBB
How few seem to realize the true meaning of life. They live it like the man who wanted a fine old violin. He used it merely as a prop in the corner of his room, then many times to spend their lives in seeking, not merely to satisfy the world, but the trifling of the second best. How about us? We have only one life to live and what are we doing with it?

Division increases bursaries as province cuts off grant

The bursaries offered to students are to be increased to $200.00 per term. It was decided at the regular meeting of the trustees of the Edson School Division on March 9.

Reason for the increase in the bursaries which are designed to help students proceed to careers in the teaching profession is that the provincial government has removed their grant for this purpose.

The chairman opened the meeting at 8:10 a.m. with the following members present: George E. Pankov, M. Nishchuk, J. H. Law, G. H. Hume, M. W. Hume, Treasurer, Superintendent A. D. Hume, Assistant Superintendent J. H. Hume, and Secretary J. H. Hume.

Mr. Hume stated that the school division had been advised by the province that the grant for the bursaries would be discontinued. He stated that the school division had decided to increase the bursaries to $200.00 per term to compensate for the loss of the provincial grant.

Red Cross show Sunday

The Edson branch of the Canadian Red Cross is sponsoring a fund raising show "Dinner's Hot" at the Nova Theatre at 8 p.m. Mar 27.

Admission will be by silver coin and proceeds will go toward the current campaign for funds to the Red Cross.

To assist with the campaign the local group could use extra help to finish off some of the street House phone Mrs. Tessa Lindrich at PA3-3300 if you can lend a hand.

Encyclopedia Donation: Moved that a letter of appreciation be sent to Mr. Joseph H. Gierke for his very generous donation of two sets of World Book Encyclopedia to the school in the Edson School Division. The Board will also make a donation to the improvement these books could make on the instruction in the school concerned and which is a reflection of Mr. Gierke's interest in the instructional welfare of our youth.

Bursaries: Moved that the budget meeting for the calendar year 1960 be held on March 26 at the Edson School room, Edson, Alberta, at 10:00 a.m. The secretary was instructed to invite representatives from the educational community to the meeting and to be in attendance.

William C. Hume: Moved that the application of Mr. Gierke for the bursaries be approved for the calendar year 1960. The secretary was instructed to advise the province of the decision and to be in attendance.

When the other fellow gets ahead: When the other fellow gets ahead and does something without being told, he's oversteering his bounds. But when I get ahead and do something without being told, that's initiative.

When the other fellow starts his side of the question, he's not being told. But when I start my side of the question, I'm not being told. That's initiative.

FOLLOWING WHAT IS NOW A TRADITION for the Department of Education, High School Inspector G. L. Barry presents a framed picture of an Albuerto scene to President R. A. Kennedy of the Albuerto Elementary School at its official opening last Wednesday evening. Formerly given to the well-titled Albuerto scene, Deputy Mayor L. A. Mahon for the Town, Treasurer L. W. Lander for the School Division Board, Treasurer G. M. Carter for the local board, then, Norman Winters and Superintendent of Schools J. Jordan, Mrs. E. Hall of the Edson Home and School give a very interesting account of the building of the Albuerto school, since Brenda Jordan, daughter of the late Mr. Jordan, was the first to be born in the school. Superintendent John Foley and Dr. Peter Brown of Edsonville came out for the occasion as well. A program of singing and recitations by the pupils was enjoyed by all.

fully informed of liberal policy program and activities for the Albuerto school, and that they act as a link as a contribution to the provincial association.

In the meantime, provincial Liberal leader George Macdonald is in a leadership interview and his party had survived electoral defeat before and that it was only a matter of time before it "found its feet" as an active force in the political arena.

The provincial president states the membership drive will cause the party to be more active in the provincial association and the provincial Liberal association.

The Liberal Association in Albuerto will have the financial support of the constituents in order to keep the party active and to keep the party active in the provincial association.

We shall ask all constituents to complete up to date membership lists so that members may be kept

GREEN ACRES

By R. C. Crooks

Although many people realize that the land is the most valuable asset they own, they do not always realize that the land is also the most valuable asset they can lose.

It is not until the land is lost that the owner realizes the value of the land. The land is the most valuable asset they can lose.

TOWN HAS FIRST DEFICIT BUDGET

The Edson Leader
The Voice of Edson Community

VOL. 8 Edson, Alberta, Thursday, April 7, 1960 No. 14

Deficit budget in spite of 9 mill tax increase

At an extra long session Tuesday night Edson Council came up with a 65 mill tax rate for Edson property owners. This amounts to a 9 mill increase over last and still the budget will show a deficit of over $15,000. The bad news will be going out in the tax notices shortly.

Reason for the increase is the increased requisition from the School Division for school purposes. The school requisition had to be bumped up to 40 mills to cover operating costs and the board had no alternative but to pass the increase on to the municipal taxing authorities. That is the Towns of Edson and Hinton, the villages of Windward and Evansburg and the Local Improvement Districts.

The requisition this year for school purposes to the Town of Edson is $125,995.84. Last year's requisition was $95,000. Which makes an increase of $30,995.84 per cent in one year. Last year's increase over the previous year was 25 per cent.

In spite of the nine mill increase in Edson town taxes the Council reluctantly had to budget for a deficit of $15,992.00 in their $361,060.00 budget. Due to having to allow for discounts and non-collection of taxes, the 40 mill levy from the School Division has to be bumped up to 44 mills on the tax notices.

For municipal (down) purposes such as public works, the Council had to press such items as 80,000 for sidewalks, no sewer and water extensions this year, no road on the avenue, no start on a long hoped-for curb and gutter program. This year's levy of 17 mills for municipal purposes is the same as last year, as is that of 4 mill for hospitalization. The 17 mills for municipal work runs somewhat more than it did last year as the total assessment of the town has increased from $3,043,232.00 to $3,240,671.00 this year. However, the deficit budget forced the cutting of anything that might be considered as not being essential.

An interesting comparison is the rate of increase in the town's income and that of the increase in school requisition in the past three years.

The assessment has gone up 25.2 per cent that is from $2,616,350.00 in 1956 to the $3,240,671.00 as quoted above for 1960. During the same period the school requisition for 1956 was $70,438.75; for 1957 $95,000.00; and $125,995.84 for 1960. An increase of 86 per cent.

It was for the increase in the rate of increase in the town's income that the school tax was increased with the aim of it to help with the situation in the past where the situation was so bad that the requisition was considered a tax and could not be paid. Part of the increase is due to the existing situation on the avenue. N.B. in 1956 the town's income was $2,616,350.00 and the town's income was $3,240,671.00 in 1960. A large sum of money was paid out of the town's income to the school division.

Swim instructor's course at Easter

The Edson Branch of the Canadian Red Cross are hoping that someone will be qualified to take swimming instruction course in Edson during the Easter holidays.

The persons must hold a current swimming award and be willing to teach and be in a position to do so.

Anyone interested please go in touch with Mrs. Tina Horvath, President of the Edson Red Cross group.

New Edson business opens doors on the weekend

Another service for Edson and district opens its doors on the weekend. Edson's first flower shop is the first part of the Knefel's.

For those who may wonder how come the outgrowth name the flower's name is a combination of that of Mr. and Mrs. Herring.

Mr. and Mrs. Herring have been planning to set up a little business of their own for some time and the prospect of living in a pleasant town such as Edson appealed to them.

The Herring have three children, three, and both are 12 and further 12. Originally from Edmonton the new family made their home at Peace River for several months.

Mrs. Herring is a nurse, is interested in figure skating. In fact some of the details of this art hope she will help them make it possible for Edson to have a figure skating club.

The will be served by several Edson ladies from 2 until 5 on opening day Saturday.

Myrt don't know where no more

There was a time when every body in town used to bid good-bye to the street as fast every time the car drove home. There days is gone forever. Now they jump in their car, turn on their headlights and away they go.

Those who don't move fast enough to catch a ride may back and forth the street. The user also used to know - but she doesn't.

The fact is it is 2000 that set off every fire alarm. There's the alarm also rang the alarm in the town who knew - and the operator in the building.

Person with a phone should make sure that the fire alarm is not ringing. The don't know no more.

You're not helping the volunteer firemen much either if you clutter up the street while they're trying to get to the fire. If you must go take a look, the Fire Department asks that you wait a decent interval at least.

SMOLDERING EMBERS WERE ALL that remained of the Chiswick home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cooper shortly after it caught on fire early Tuesday afternoon. None of the 13 year old Kenneth, who got his eight younger brothers and sisters out of the burning building. The youth child, a son of six weeks, was with his parents at the time of the fire. Typical of rural communities everywhere, friends and neighbors were quick to lend a hand in helping the Cooper family over the disaster of losing their home and comfort.

rules governing play. The unwritten rules are usually the ones that are hardest to extend the same courtesy to your opponents as you would expect from them. In other words, by word or deed do nothing, say nothing that might divide or disturb any member.

(1) The opposing team should be given these points were difficult to our opponents' minds and ability improved.

So many requests have been received to comment on these rules, that I shall attempt to outline them. You may think I am speaking as a higher voice, yet the situation should be mutually obvious.

When told a player is ready to deliver his stone before you reach the ice, it will help his concentration.

When told a player is in the back before you tell him your own game, it is an apparent he will enjoy your sense of humor.

They stand still behind the opposing skip while he is giving the shot. It will help the concentration of the player in the back. Make sure you hold your stones down and wangle the handle to relax your nerves.

When an opponent raises his shot, be appreciative. Tell him his skip gave him the wrong ice or better still, jump with joy.

When it is your turn to play, be in conversation with the skip on the next shot. Your skip will need five minutes to figure the shot away.

When your opponent's draw appears a little heavy, elbow his skip and start sweeping behind the line before his stone reaches the hog line.

Stand as close as you can to the player in the back. He may want his back scratched.

—Keep on sweeping after your skip calls. "Sweep" This will prove you should have his job. —Be sure to sit behind the line to play on next draw. Study carefully to ease your opposing skip in a better judge of ice than you are.

Never congratulate your opponent on a good shot. He'll think you were a salesman. They stand still when a player is delivering a stone. Keep moving and let him know you're alive and breathing.

—If by chance your skip is wide of the house, tell him you have been reading this column and explain why his delivery was not at all like he will then become your desired lifetime pad.

"I just pushed it -- and out it came!"

By G. B. Mortimer

John, aged seven, pushed into the bedroom with a small white thing compressed between finger and thumb ("I just pushed and it came out," he said gleefully). The age in his grin told the story: First push gone. It was a moment of triumph for the boy, who had been feeling it since because he had been the only member of his class equipped with a complete set of baby teeth.

The teacher would be pleased too. She used to complain that the boy had spent over much time and drifting over his back, rather than reading.

For a father, the night of his paroled child was a reminder of those pushing too rapidly. This little calendar, standing beside the bed with an air of finished civilization, was here to serve notice of a new stage of growth.

"I've dropped it," the child wailed, and began bawling on the floor among slippers, magazines and fallen bedclothes. "I have to find it and put it under my pillow."

The tooth fairy had been 25 cents for it," he said indignantly.

"It's so early for the first tooth. If there's no decay in it," he announced, he found the tooth and held it up in finger and thumb again. He looked at it with a look as though it belonged to a man's size earring.

"I don't know who leaves the money for the tooth," he said with a doubtful expression. "I think it's only you, and the tooth fairy."

He left the tooth under his pillow, saying first, morning, he clumped into the bedroom, crying out that his 25 cents had come in the night. He was in two minds

Do you wear glasses?

Glasses, like anything else, should be chosen to suit your complexion and your face shape. This preference is also very important. You should take into account whether you'll be wearing them all the time or just for reading. If you wear glasses all the time avoid vivid colors and exaggerated fringes. Your glasses affect your whole appearance, therefore you should consider all your features and any special problems you might have.

Here are a few helpful hints for special problems:

If your nose is long choose glasses with a bridge that covers it.

If your nose is short the bridge of the glasses should curve down.

If your face is narrow choose rectangular frames and ornamental centers which extend them.

If you have broad nostrils the bridge of the glasses should be broad.

If you have thin eyebrows choose heavy frames.

If you feel very strongly about wearing glasses, if you do, the chances are that you are colorblind or your eyes. The best advice for you would be to consult about visual issues.

CWL whist enjoyable season

The whist tournament sponsored by the Edson C.W.L. group was concluded last evening with all members playing their final game in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

High score of the week was Mrs. H. A. Borth and Mrs. S. Borth with a score of 100. High for the tournament was won by Mrs. J. Lonsdale and Mrs. J. Lonsdale.

Tips on TOURING

A little attention to proper steering can eliminate one of the major causes of driving fatigue on a trip. It's amazing how many people rate this simple operation difficult.

There, the stiff arm driver who sits up from the wheel, the slumping driver whose face turns to perspire over the wheel, and the crabbed driver who turns the wheel into his or her neck! All these people have caused uncomfortable and improper steering positions.

For best driving control and comfort, first adjust the seat so that your forearm is about parallel with the plane of the wheel and you are able to operate the foot pedals easily. If you haven't a point view of the road, prop yourself up with a car cushion.

Incidentally, pretty girls have on place on a steering wheel if they are made of strong rubber, or smooth cord like these materials may have a slippery grip. Capstan or plastic protect the hands without sacrificing safety or appearance.

Know that four inches of play in the steering mechanism may mean your control of the car is being contributed to misalignment of the wheels and consequently, extra tire wear. Reputable garages should correct this.

Steering is the simplest driving technique when it's been done right in start with.

The thing is far more in control than fear. Don't let fear prevent you from seeking competent medical advice.

Insurance means PEACE of MIND

For Trade and Industry: Few people today would be able to risk the loss of a few millions of dollars earned in a lifetime on a company that is not available to protect their investment.

Few would dare to take the risk of insuring their property in a company without insurance. Few merchants and dealers would take the chance at stockyard merchandise if there were no secure optical overheads and standards.

Rank of practically all our trade and commerce is the Peace of Mind which comes from insurance. Last year, the companies of the automobile and casualty insurance paid and more than 500 Million Dollars in claims across Canada. And evidence that insurance indeed means Peace of Mind.

The Edson Leader

The Voice of Edson Community

VOL. 8 Edson, Alberta, Thursday, April 27, 1940 No. 16

Edson Rodeo planning already well started

The rodeo season is already started with a large attendance reported for the 1939 rodeo held last week at Edson. Some of the rodeo stars who performed there will be seen here in mid-summer.

The riders will move on to Winnipeg this week as they year.

Mannix farm resold this week

Oldtimers who refer to the "Mannix Place" four miles west of Edson on the highway will be interested in its purchase by this firm.

A businessman who has built the firm up into a chain store is buying the Mannix place and has purchased the Mannix residence on 8th Avenue. Mr. Mannix's would like to go on to all his days elsewhere, but he has the fine association he enjoyed through the years.

A dog according to legend is man's best friend, but we can't always reverse the saying and claim that man is his dog's best friend.

We couldn't help but notice a black dog moped around beside the highway hoping to pick up a ride.

His master who had left the winter in some abandoned building had been here, parked up his dog and barked and left for parts unknown leaving the dog to fend for himself.

Fastballers to meet this Sunday

Citing all fastballers, they forgot the organizational meeting to be held Sunday, April 29th in the Edson Rodeo Association.

Plans will be made for this season's activity in the Edson Fast Ball League and it is important that all interested in playing this season be there so that number of teams etc can be determined.

Meet after 39 years in America

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown of Monmouth, New Jersey, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. McKendrick of Edson. Mrs. Brown is the McKendrick's sister. They left Scotland 39 years ago and have not seen each other since.

Fiddlers contest all set for Friday night

Things are shaping up for the upcoming fiddlers' contest and old time fiddlers. There's a place for everything and the place to be is in the Edson Rodeo Association. Half to hear and see what places the old and in fact the new at the fiddlers' contest and old time fiddlers, sponsored by the Edson Rodeo Association, will participate in to give them everything that a fiddler needs.

Prudent drivers wait a minute

Customs drivers pulled off the highway and reached the end of a long but futile chase when they found less than an hour, Friday night.

Motorists report that during the chase above it was impossible to see more than a few feet in front of their vehicles and the chase was inevitable.

Imperial Bank to build

Another landmark is in shape near the Main Street corner. It is the well known Banker C. V. Robins that the Imperial Bank is building for a new building.

The present building which was originally built in the 1920s, had been in flames. Before will either be moved to the back of the lot or to one side during reconstruction.

WHAT SOME OF THE 'BOY' GIRLS DID during their holidays we don't know for sure but this is what some of the 'big' boys were doing. They haven't the finest material to work with but when they do get these units rolling they won't be unnoticed — as these models are rare specimens nowadays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cushman Burr

Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Marcel and family were surprise visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Nick Miluck's on Easter Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hiluck were visiting with Adam's brother Mr. and Mrs. Miluck on Friday evening.

All the members were present for the McLeod 441 Club meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan Paschuk, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Munro and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Paschuk were visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Joe Romanuk's on Sunday.

Calumet, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

I am so pleased with my Vauxhall, which I purchased from your dealer in Timmins, Ontario, I thought I would give you a line.

I have approximately 9,000 miles on my car now and I am having no starting troubles in my driving, and no engine or interior temperatures. My wife and I find the styling, interior treatment and ride all to be outstanding features in your Vauxhall.

I am particularly pleased with the handling of the car and the ease of driving.

I would not hesitate to recommend Vauxhall to anyone.

Yours very truly,
Curry J. Timm

So do most people, Mr. Tremblay.
Vauxhall is the car that shows you don't have to sacrifice style for economy.

Benefit for Pinedale youths

Pinedale and district residents are invited to their good music there and with a benefit dance on Saturday night, April 23, to the aid of two district youths who were struck down by polio last December.

The youths, both in their teens, are Alfred and Alan Wright. They became victims of polio last in two days of each other last December and have been patients at the University Hospital since that time.

VOL. 8 Edson, Alberta, Thursday, April 28, 1960 No. 1

WHILE THE TOWN MAY NOT GET SO DRASTIC as the town of Hinton did when they got their Fire Department to burn this old hulk, the Council are in a mood to get rid of a bunch of the eyesores of buildings around town. If you have anything in the way of old buildings that have no longer value and look like you know what, the 'em up or else says the Council. It's part of the mood of Clean-Up Week in from May 2 to 7.

"Now that you have a member from your area on the Industrial Development (Mr. L. Robinson) don't expect to see Robinsons right away—it takes years of hard work," R. Marland, Director of Industrial Development for the Province told a meeting of the Edison Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday in the Gemdome banquet room.

In an interesting talk on industrial development, Mr. Marland told the meeting that industry is now very active in the community. However, the building commission can queer the wheels coming the soil and related several industries from his experience in the United States.

...the Council at their regular meeting last Tuesday decided to notify owners of several buildings on them that they must repair or abate the nuisance or hazard before May 7, 1981.

Old shed standing on east side Lots 38 and 39, Block 6.
Old building standing on Lot 5, Block 20.
Old shed and debris standing on Lot 7, Block 20.
Old house and well standing on Lot 10, Block 48.

The action is being taken under the provision by law passed by Council recently. Previously they did not have the particular power to declare eyes sore hazardous. If the owners do not act, then the town can have the buildings removed or demolished and expense to the property concerned.

The Council also discussed at length a brief to the Provincial Government authorities which will review the financial situation faced by the town's taxpayers. The brief will stress the trend in past years, especially with regard to the impact of school costs on the rest of the municipal operation.

PERFORMANCE

Corvair was unanimously named "Car of the Year" by the editors of Motor Trend—world's largest general automotive magazine. And it's easy to understand why... "The most significant engineering advance" of 1960... "first-wheel independent suspension totally unlike any other North American-built car"... a new engine and transmission "allowing a faster four and lower road"... "Chang are none of the prizes the experts heaped upon Corvair in announcing the auto industry's most coveted award!"

ECONOMY!

The results of two major economy tests run by independent organizations prove beyond a doubt that your Corvair will deliver 25 to 40% more miles on a gallon of regular gas than you can get in a conventional car. Add to this, the inherent dependability of

GREEN ACRES

By R. C. BOWEN
Buy Prices
What will your prices be six months from now? A year from now? Your equipment doesn't increase a crystal ball to provide us with definite answers to such questions, but there appears to be good reason for big producers to be fairly optimistic.
The Bureau of Statistics tells us that there is only 80% as many hogs in Alberta this year as there were last year. In all of Canada, swine farmings in November, last year and February were 78% of 1959's, as the same period last year. Forecasts in March, April and May are expected to be about 80% of 1959 numbers.
Any way you look at these figures, they mean fewer pigs going to market. Producers should receive better prices.
The Green Acres Cattle of Canada has this to say in its monthly hog report: "Some measure of stability in the product and marketing of hogs in Canada seems to be re-emerging. It is well to keep in mind that the shortage from steady feeding to pasture should be done gradually over a period of ten days or so. After the milk cows are in pasture for a short period or get more than twenty minutes the first day and thereafter the grazing period each day. The cattle should be done in the early part of the day and not just before milking time. Allowing the cows to stand three or four hours before milking greatly reduces the danger from feed intake, even elephants."
Disease Control in the Garden
With the approach of spring it is well to remember that young vegetable seedlings are subject to disease damage. Much of this could be avoided by the simple practice of treating the seed. It is not enough that the seed be kept in a cool, moist place until it has germinated. Kill disease germs before they get into the seed. royalties help provincial costs

The royalties which have been paid to the petroleum and natural gas exploration and development industry in Alberta with the payment to the Provincial Government of the 10 per cent royalty on oil and gas production have been used to fund the provincial government's social services and health care programs.

In commenting on the situation, James H. Duffell, president of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Petroleum Association, said that the royalties are a "very important" part of the provincial revenue. He said that the royalties are a "very important" part of the provincial revenue.

The provincial government, however, observes that the royalties would be two-thirds as much as they were in 1950, in order to maintain standards. The provincial government, however, observes

Council says no to second pool room here

A four to two vote by Edson Council Tuesday night against recommending a license for a second pool room in Edson has stirred up more controversy than any recent decision by Edson's governing body.

To have been established by renovating the back two stores on the south side of the H & N Shopping Centre and closing the west end of the arcade, the pool room and barber shop was to have been quite a modern affair.

Questioning by legal counsel for the petitioners, W. and John Demanick, brought out that the Council did not object to the location or the applicants, but to the principle of a second pool room for Edson, as being not warranted at this time.

Pool rooms, bowling alleys and taxi stands are treated separately in granting licenses by the Provincial Government. In the case of a pool room, because of the age restriction on patrons, a recommendation normally must come from the council.

Bundes J. Demanick and legal counsel L. Knecht, two citizens J. Thomson and W. Wilson, presented a plan to the Town Council not to issue a license for a second pool room at the Town day meeting.

The following night the voters of the Chamber of Commerce were asked to vote on the matter.

The following night the voters of the Chamber of Commerce were asked to vote on the matter.

Surprise Lake camp opens May 20

A very successful meeting of the Surprise Lake Camp Council was held in the United Church Edson on Wednesday, April 27. Many details of the camp to be held this summer at the lake only 12 miles east of Edson, were worked out.

The first camp of the season will be a Week Camp for high school students and young people under 21 years. It will begin Friday evening, May 20 and continue 11 day Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 21. Besides the work to be done, with handiwork, paint work, shorts, hats and accessories will be sing sessions, radio plays, hearty meals and dancing.

Visitors will be conducted to the lake by J. J. Johnson of St. Joseph's College. The cost of the camp is $4.00. A good time is guaranteed to each young person attending. Registration should be sent to Rev. A. J. Norcross, United Church, 14021, 14021 Ave., Edmonston before May 14.

You'll never have a better time so register now and enjoy an early camping period.

Fix up arena tops poll of what to do with recreational grant

A cross section opinion poll of organizations in town conducted by the Edson Home and School Association reveals that renovation of the arena with artificial ice is the favored way to spend the Provincial Government $37,800 recreational grant. J. Oliver reported to the Town Council, Tuesday night.

Writing on a point system giving four points for first choice, three for second, etc., the following results are tabulated:

Swimming Rink (renovation and artificial ice) 48 points
Swimming Pool (new, park, wedding pool) 32 points
Indoor Swimming Pool 22 points
Leadership Training (scholarships to recreation) 12 points Tennis, etc.) 8 points
Tennis 8 points
Community Hall 8 points

The skating rink renovation and artificial ice — in one case only was a new building mentioned — would seem to be the preferred project.

However if the swimming pool debt and swimming pool area were considered as a single project, then this would be the preferred project. These two were put under separate headings as in several cases the retirement of the swimming pool debt only was mentioned with no reference to further re-building on this area.

It is interesting to note that the Klansmen Club who own a little more than $7,000 on their big project, even though it has been turned over to the town and been operated for a year, did not mention the debt in their return.

Some groups asked for a share of the grant if it was to be divided up. The results of the survey are quite informative and should be a help to any organization or service club looking for a project.

A lack of recreation for children nine years old and under, girls of all ages and boys from 15 to 18 is indicated very strongly in the survey.

The details of the survey will be retained by the Home and School Association, but any interested in

Margorie Teigen exchanges vows with Carl Spreen

The Edson Baptist Church was the scene of a wedding April 30 at 2 o'clock when Margorie Elizabeth Teigen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Teigen of Edson, became the bride of Carl Spreen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spreen Jr. of Edson.

Rev. Bert Hurd officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. H. Paul Fredlund of the organ.

Gifts in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of blue tulle with long sleeves, and a full-length veil.

The bride's mother chose a light blue dress with a full-length veil and a full-length train. The bride's father chose a light blue dress with a full-length veil and a full-length train.

It is almost apparent as of the newspaper's question made. One Lashley's eye glasses pop down over her nose, but she was just being silly with her answers. Her intention to come to Canada to live in Toronto has created a storm of newspaper criticism in Italy where the "Smile" news beautiful woman" has long been a national idol.

The idea that Frank Stronach of Toronto is planning on this homecoming is inevitable rather than pessimistic. Frank isn't sure yet whether the homecoming is really good luck—he found it on April Fool's Day and in a most unusual place. It was in the centre of a large single tree he was cutting down. The skin was placed in a hole in the tree more than 80 years ago, and the tree has since died.

Danger
Have you heard a man proud by say that his right or left, or better yet old man can drive a tractor as well as a man? Have you ever seen a tractor with one or more small children riding as passengers? Of course you have. We all have. But what we don't often realize is that both situations are ideal for tragedy — and very possibly death.

Every year, many children are injured or killed by being allowed to operate or ride on power driven machinery. A kid may be quite capable of driving a tractor under normal conditions. But he is not mature enough to be able to handle emergencies when they arise, as they often do when operating a tractor. Incidentally, it is against the law for anyone under 16 to drive any vehicle as a tractor on main or secondary highways.

It is often difficult to refuse a ride on the tractor to a youngster. Not long ago a little girl fell off a tractor on which she was a passenger and was killed. It happens every day. Tractors are one-way machines.

However, also takes the lives of many farm boys and girls.

Unprotected farm children, farm kids, think and other rural water hazards have taken a toll of many lives in Alberta. A little boy, three years old, was killed when a tractor ran over him. A few precautions should have prevented this tragedy.

World is in this predicament. Would it not be wise to fence all water hazards in the vicinity of farm residences, in such a way that they are "child tight"? Surely no one would say this is too much to ask.

Debarring Calves

Hams are a useless decoration. They can cause injury to both man and beast, and they cost the cattle owners money right up to the time he ships them, when a few dollar loss tax is slapped on them.

It is a well known fact that the greater to getting our cattle debarked is to get the job done at the best time is by ten weeks of our with the use of the electric debarker. Some people may recommend other methods and not use those that are as long as they use them. (When fed to the works of are may be preferred for everyone. They have our next best bet is to choose for debarking by two to two and one-half months.

Debarking calves annually is not much fun, but it can be done. To help, we have made it all this of few both large and small herds. It's worth any farmer can hurry off of them.

Don't let those horns go any longer!

Miss Beverly Nygaard Marries in Edmonton

The chancel of First Presbyterian Church in Edmonton, Alberta, was beautiful with floral decorations on the afternoon of Saturday, April 16, when Beverly Nygaard became the bride of Dr. William Wilson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nygaard of Edson and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson of Edmonton. Both of latter Alberta.

The bride carried the train on the arm of her father to the altar of Fatherhood blessed by

A SPECTACULAR ANIMATED SIGN TO ADVERTISE CANADA'S TRAVEL attractions on New York's Times Square has been rented by the Canadian Government Travel Bureau for a period of thirteen weeks. The two-sided electronic sign, the only one of its kind in the world, measures 30 x 22 feet and is located near a building at the corner of 48th Street and Broadway. The sign, which shows animated scenes, will feature the vacation attractions of the National Parks of Canada and various events and holiday activities in all of the ten Canadian provinces. The sign will be seen during summer by millions of New Yorkers and visitors from the States and abroad. It is estimated that more than a million persons visit Times Square daily. Half of them are from the city of New York, 25 per cent from the surrounding area and the remainder from out of town.

JAMES HILL, 15, of Brantford, Ont., was disappointed when he climbed a telephone pole at the rear of a house to talk to two girls staying there. Hill climbed the pole after he was refused permission to visit the girls. He and another lad, 16-year-old Richard Kozicki, reached a platform holding a transceiver when Hill touched a live wire, throwing him to the ground.

Pulp Mill presents Edson with ski hill 2 miles south

The fiscal officer of North Western Pulp & Power Ltd. to present the Town of Edson with the quarter section which contains the ski hill that has been used by at least two generations of Edsonians. The offer was made at the regular meeting of the Edson Town Council Tuesday evening, May 7.

The quarter lies about 2 miles straight south of the Pulp mill and runs down to the banks of the McLeod. It has an ideal ski slope and is normally reached by driving down the Tolleran Road and turning east. The offer was made by the pulp company so that the town could declare the area a park for the winter sports.

This was part of the property acquired by the pulp company when their plans called for construction of the mill south-west of Edson at Tolleran, the old Canadian Northern Railway town site. A bylaw was passed by the Council to pay the pulp company ten dollars to make the transaction legal. A letter of thanks is being dispatched to the company manager, H. K. Colledge at Hilda.

Present were Mayor W. H. K. Smith, councillors W. H. K. Smith, W. F. Macdonald, E. A. Johnson, M. D. Macdonald and P. W. Wells.

Mayor Wells and seven aldermen council on behalf of the Canadian Legion requesting the use of the Memorial grounds, June 1940 for an open air bazaar on behalf of the Children's Annual Fund. Permission was granted to the Canadian Legion to use the Memorial Park grounds, June 1940, subject to arrangements being made with the P. W. Macdonald to clear that date.

Mr. L. Kowich addressed Council on behalf of Mrs. Doris Smith asking for retention water main to service lot 15, block 100. The matter extension service main 2nd avenue west of 10th street was referred to the Utilities Committee for report.

Mr. L. Kowich addressed Council on behalf of Messrs. John and Kent on Page 17.

Edson graduates from University of Alberta

No less than three Edsonians are to graduate from the University of Alberta.

Graduating with a B.Sc. in Pharmacy was Miss Rose A. Hall, sister daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rademski of Edson, and Daniel P. Hutter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Batters of Edson.

Miss Stella Tomaski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tomaski has received her diploma in teaching and supervision of schools in nursing.

Ernest Duhon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Duhon graduated with a B.Sc. in nursing.

SOCIALIST IN HIS YOUTH

The editor made a quick trip to Saskatchewan this week on personal business and managed to take time out to talk politics with a few people who have known for years. The things stand out. First there is an great amount of excitement about the coming election. This is said to be the best time to get a little better in a week or two as the June 8 election edged closer, but not much.

The other thing is that the red-bellied wolf of so many of the friends of my youth used to be a nice something of an endorsement. The CVP supporter is now more of a conservative with a small "c," he now wants to conserve his party in power. He is also in the same predicament as the result of "liberal who has seen his party in its 'impractical dreaming' now in practice."

The only people steamed up about the introduction of prepaid all-embracing medical care seem to be the doctors. Everyone else in Saskatchewan seems to think that it is just a long advance from the pioneering, not inexperience, primitive and in hospitals, old age home, and medical care for old age pensioners. If their attitude seems to be if people need medical care there should be no question of a dollar shortage.

C OF C NOT A SERVICE CLUB

Reading an editorial in the Winnipeg Sun I am reminded that a Chamber of Commerce is not a service club. It does not operate to hammer nails, or run sports days or provide a place to eat. As the editorial points out, it actually does something that is more valuable than any of these. It provides the place where ideas which provide these developments can be planned, discussed and coordinated.

The Chamber also provides a channel through which public opinion can be brought

--- CONSERVATIVE NOW

They think medical care should be based on needs of consideration, done. "State medicine" on a municipal level is not new in Saskatchewan (quite a number of municipalities years ago based their own medical services to care for their taxpayers. We remember one doctor, a competent one, who thought he was quite fortunate to have a summer income when many of his colleagues were lucky to net half what he did in private practice.

But to get back to our conservative CVPers. Most CVPers in Saskatchewan are capitalistic businessmen with an investment in profit and on which they would like a profit. Farmers in other words. They are not in the same category as the labor men who are trying to form a labor party. Except that labor men are quite often capitalists too. They very often draw dividends from their investments in stocks and bonds.

Which is all very confusing to anyone who tries to fit people's politics into neat little boxes. We don't see any great up beat in our state province. Tommy Douglas and his red-eyed socialist have done a lot of good for the people of Saskatchewan. But they very often draw dividends from their investments in stocks and bonds.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Let's make sure that the word "service" is not used in a misleading way. It is not a service club. It does not operate to hammer nails, or run sports days or provide a place to eat. As the editorial points out, it actually does something that is more valuable than any of these. It provides the place where ideas which provide these developments can be planned, discussed and coordinated.

With the Churches As I See It

By PASTOR HUBB

Recently a pastor friend, returning from a conference in a very large city, commented on a sermon he had heard. He said that he had been amazed at a given Sunday with our own leaving the state for salvation. Another person, a business executive, spoke of our leaving to ask in all seriousness how one could be sure that your children (teaching to right) were really turned on that there are great numbers who do not are actually confused in the class of some common religious matters. Each claim to have the truth, yet many are in serious conflict with one another. How can one know for certain who is right, who is there and who is not?

There is an emergency, and we've got some good machinery.

Reports

During the 1990s, the number of people who have been infected with HIV has increased significantly. This is due to a variety of factors, including the spread of the virus through sexual contact, blood transfusions, and sharing of needles. The disease is caused by the HIV virus, which attacks the immune system and can lead to AIDS if left untreated. It is important to take steps to prevent infection, such as using condoms and getting tested regularly.

No depositor is too young, no account too small, no financial problem too minor to receive his attention and consideration.

He likes dealing with people and is trained to help them in every way he can. He's a good man to talk things over with—not just because he knows a lot about banking, but because he can be counted on to apply that knowledge and experience to the needs of his clients.

To him, banking is the opportunity to work with all sorts of people and, through bank services, to help with your problems, your hopes and plans.

little cramped in style, perhaps because of the lack of props, but never the less thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Next were three choruses: "Happy Farmer," by Leroy Nelson; "Well on," All Through the Night; "Flowers, Home, and Glory," Handel's Messiah. If the 250 or so in the audience of this chorus had any doubt of this chorus being a suitable choice, they had their doubts erased at the first call for different tempo. All we had here.

The second half of the concert ended with a further two songs, the second of which was a medley of songs by the Beatles and the Rolling Stones, which was very popular with the audience. The concert was a wonderful success and a great success for the school. The concert was arranged by Donald B. Hargrave and was a great success. The concert was much appreciated by the audience and the school. The concert was the best of the night and the audience wanted to see it but they didn't get it. What came next turned out to be the highlight of the evening.

When Ma C' Andrews, soprano, was introduced by the Heckley as a girl of 15 years who had such a strong voice he invited her to join the group of singers. A compilation of indeed she sang two solos, "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life" by Victor Herbert and "You'll Never Walk Alone" from Carousel. She was a rare voice indeed and with proper training and supervision will shine with a future.

The concert continued with two these choruses—"Bless This House" by Taylor-Brake, a Keatsian air, "I Love My Mine" (Rozelle-Valt). They curried themselves with "Bless This House" I have ever heard it sung better. I voted it the best of the concert.

The next item was a piano solo by Mr J R H Heckley "The First Movement," Grieg's Concert, or Piano. He was good; I could have listened to his music.

The concert closed with the six fine choruses Scottish (Symmond), XXIII Psalm (Grand W H Ross), Irish folk song "Auld Castanets," See II 5.

When the last note of this concert was airt left us with a feeling that this was all to short singing had lifted us to some great heights that we encounter seldom in our lives.

The people of Jasper must not could be very proud of this hour of singers, when I would say it is also (I believe perform at this concert) rank with the best at the North American con-

But I also wonder what they would do without Mr and Mrs. Hixley is whom they owe their success in the musical world to a bouquet of roses and a vote of thanks from the audience. The centre for sponsoring their appearance here in Falmouth, it's a pity have to wait a year before we can hear them again.

It was, I thought, a disappointing performance was so small and all the time I was thinking of the talent of the Jax-Gley Club. (This warranted a full vote and the thought struck me if it had been Hank Snow instead of Jasper the monstrous crowd here pushed to the limit and a higher price than in London and it would be that it will never be any different until children are taught in music, to sing and appreciate music. Praxley might young

local delegates

The regular monthly meeting of the Wilson C. W. I. took place on May 12. Plans were made for a parish supper on the hall on Sunday, May 15 at 7:30. This supper was well attended, thorough in execution and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mrs. Koebel and Mrs. French were delegates to the conference C. W. I. conducted at the hall on May 20. The members decided to have the usual First Communion service on Trinity Sunday at 10:00. It was decided to enter the singing contest in the singing contest in June final prize to be made later. The meeting adjourned and lunch was served to the members.

Sandy Construction low tender on highway west

Sandy Construction Ltd. were low tenderers for the contract covering grade widening, stabilised gravel base course and other work on Highway 18 from Edson to east of Sundan Creek seven miles west of Edson according to an announcement by the Highways Department last week.

Their bid of $296,505.81 was $44,000 lower than the next highest bidder. Sandy Construction have worked previously in the Edison area. Their latest job being the fill work on the Big Eddy reconstruction project for the

Mount Robson Picnic this Sunday

The annual Mount Lebanon Fair and rodeo, held by Yellowhead Rodeo boosters is scheduled for this Sunday, sponsored this year by the Jasper and McBride Chambers of Commerce and the McBride Farmers' Institute.

As usual picnics will provide their own lunch and utensils, with tea and coffee being available on the grounds. The Jasper Band will be in attendance to provide suitable music and the crowd will hear short addresses by government ministers of both Alberta and B.C.

After a brief Sunday service at 8-30 at Jasper the picnickers will leave for Hobson at 9 a.m.

According to the latest road information bulletin the road inside the Park is fairly good, but motorists are warned to be on the look out for surface breaks and workmen. West of Jasper to Yellowstone the road is described as "good gravel."

Town to study cost of provincial paving grant

The engineers' report on the cost of the proposed paving of six blocks north of sixth avenue on Main Street was referred to the Works Committee for study and a report at the regular meeting of the Board on Town Council May 17.

While the province foots the cost of the actual paving in the estimated amount of $47,000 as part of the "Five Year Plan," the Town must prepare the sub-surfaces, put in the necessary storm sewers, etc. Due to an already tight budget, Council felt it required considerable more study.

Present were, Messrs. W. H. Kankewitt and committee. W. H. Brimble, W. P. Kussman, W. MacDonald, L. A. Mahan, M. J. Apple and P. W. Wells.

Application, L. D. and M. J. Brimble, to have a right of way granted to purchase of the lot in Block B was referred to the Land and Plans Committee, for further study and recommendation.

Mr. D. M. Cahan, Secretary, Council on behalf of the Pioneer Athletic Association, The Metropolitan Park, he desired to have the Amateur Athletic Association for the Summer season, to have a right of way granted to the lot in Block B, for the Association to have liability and maintenance. The Association was well as responsibility for the same.

Dozens watch as provincial bldg. girders rise

The most spectacular thing on Main Street this week was the putting up of the girders for the two story provincial building which is being built around the old building which was erected during the last war. We understand the building will be built with the idea that another story can be added if there is need for it in the future.

Part of the Forestry offices and staff have been moved out of the top of the old building, but the vendor and the Treasury Branch staff are still doing business. It is intended to bring the south and north parts of the new building to completion, allow the Treasury Branch and the vendor to move in, then demolish the old building in between and underneath. A project that is causing considerable interest in building circles as it is not so very often.

Openings have been made in places through the old building to allow girders to be passed through and bolted together. While underneath, business is conducted more or less as usual.

Coffee will be served by the Home Economics classes at the conclusion of the program. A table of home-making and a cash sale will also be conducted. The girls will be in charge of the sale.

Kindergarten tots enjoy picnic

Mr. Edna Barker, kindergarten teacher, had her class of 15 children and 100 teachers and others down at the Edson Public School where they enjoyed a picnic. The children were very happy and the teachers were very interested in the children's work.

Name needed for senior citizens home

The board set up for the operation of the senior citizens home in Edson has asked on its public relations committee for names for the home which is scheduled for opening later this summer.

The name should be in keeping with the idea behind the home, and should suggest the type of place on this is desired, what they are desired to be.

Give a clue to The Leader, as a clue to P.A.T. 1934 if you have a suggestion. The home is a normal charity to get its administration started.

Representatives from B.C. and Alberta gather for Robson picnic

Over the heads of the Fraser River, and in the shadow of Mt. Robson highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, 1,500 motorists Sunday had a picnic.

The annual get-together beneath the 12,973 foot high mountain is part of a campaign for a highway through the Yellowhead Pass from Jasper Park into the interior of British Columbia.

In about 400 cars and one airplane, the picnickers came from points all over central Alberta and B.C.

The group listened to speeches by officials from British Columbia and Alberta. Larry Carter, co-chairman of the annual picnic, and the Jasper Chamber of Commerce, organized the picnic.

Among the distinguished guests were three provincial members of the House of Commons, including Mr. A. A. Williamson, Alberta's minister of lands and forests, and Mr. N. A. Williams, Alberta's minister of agriculture.

The following speaks on the program for the day. The speaker is Mr. H. H. Wortman, M.P., who is also a member of the House of Commons.

PRACTICAL, PORTABLE DENTAL EQUIPMENT MAKES MOBILE DENTISTRY POSSIBLE

Wetoka Health Unit pioneers dental setup

An extensive dental office featuring the latest equipment and capable of being carried in the trunk and back seat of an automobile, has been purchased by the Wetoka Health Unit of Wetoka. The equipment, manufactured by a Canadian firm, will be used by the unit dentist for school dental operations within the limit.

The whole equipment is carried in a trunk, containing a variety of dental instruments, each weighing approximately 40 pounds, and one case for the dental chair. In addition to dentistry, the instruments and supplies for treating the three children are attached to form a complete and compact dental unit.

An electrically driven high speed drill with foot control is attached to the unit. The foot control is used to operate the drill. The unit is carried in the back seat of a car. A complete working tray is attached to the front end. The unit contains a set of small mirrors to hold the dentistry in place.

Below the drill is a stainless steel sink with a faucet arrangement. The electric cord and a water hose are part of the kit and when assembled.

Open air bingo next Wednesday by Legion

Edson and district bingo players are being offered something unusual in the way of bingo here, Wednesday, June 15 when the local branch of the Canadian Legion will conduct an open air bingo in the Memorial Park.

Starting time is 7 p.m. The bus numbers will be called over a loud speaker and cheques will be on hand to check your card when you show your ticket to record the win.

It's a good deal. Your first card costs $1.00 and extra cards are available at 50 cents each. You have a chance to win a new 1961 Buick on the last game and 13 other valuable prizes on the first 12 games.

You don't want to miss a thing. It's a rare car or one of the other valuable prizes. Take a refund and join the fun. You play from the comfort of your car or from seats available at the grounds.

Red Cross getting helping hand from Kinsmen

The Kinsmen Club of Edson 1, chapters of the Red Cross in getting a better turn out in the World Peace Clinic on June 11 in the afternoon and evening before nine.

Benevolence may have their names at the Red Cross, but the Kinsmen's, through the Leader office, are just coming to the Legion Hall.

It's a worthy cause and those who are able should turn out to full force to give a helping hand to those who need this important life-saving substance.

Most name suggestions for home week

There have been a dozen or two suggestions for home week and district's senior citizens have brought, phoned and sent into the office.

The majority of the names are "home" this or next year. What we understand the committee will settle the question, but suggests a later decision than for senior citizens to live a better life.

There are some excellent suggestions too. Perhaps though you have a name in mind that would be most successful, a list of the very word does about sending it to the right away. There is a lot to be said for it.

Plans for July 1st now underway

Getting preparations for July 1 underway, the EABA will be approaching the town to get the business men to change the Wednesday half day holiday to Thursday, because the baseball playoffs will have to be on July 1st.

The July 1 Sports Day baseball tournament will be held Thursday, June 23 and Friday July 1, with 11,000 in prize money and right teams competing for top place.

There will be a sale parade in the morning to start off the big day.

The jackpot. Congratulations Mrs. Harrison. Mr. Harrison (left) looks pleased too. This Saturday the jackpot starts at $100.00.

WHAT STARTED OUT TO BE THE LAYING OF A LOAD OF BLACK DIRT on the E. Sylvester street on the corner of Main and 8th last week, dropped Jim McLaughlin's truck into two old cars parked in a row. The loaded truck dropped in its housing on one side and very both sides didn't go down.

With the Churches

As I See It

The churches are the pillars of our society, and it is the duty of every citizen to support them. In this article, we will explore the role of the churches in our community and how they can help us build a better future.

The error and gave them more than the Kingdom of the Church could take place and certain things transpired. He did not deny them in darkness but explained the truth to them.

He told them that he should not accept any teaching except that which was by the Lord, and that not take it out of its context.

He also advised us to determine the truth to them. He told them that he should not accept any teaching except that which was by the Lord, and that not take it out of its context.

IT CAME OVER WITH AN INCH TO SPARE but it took double the time for a few minutes. Dr. Ed Bonepoint must have calculated the size of his job when he saw the car. "I started it two feet" ago behind a fence wall but I didn't expect it would be so big. My camera was on hand to get a picture all it took midway out the door, but it slid out easily

In a recent talk to the Edson Chamber of Commerce the Hon. N. Williams told the meeting that he had had "discussions" with the Minister of Highways about a connection with Edson direct to Windfall. Edson as at least as close to Windfall as it is Whitecourt and only a matter of ten or twelve miles of construction is needed to finish the road north of Yates for instance.

Things are quiet on Edson's Main Street right now. We have shopping, entertainment and housing facilities for hundreds of extra people. Far more than the village of Whitecourt can boast at any time. Employees at Windfall like to come to Edson to shop and for entertainment. They run the risk having to go around by Carleton Place if it rains here. The 25 mile trip around through Evers means meeting in there to get to the closest big town. Right now they would rather both go into the city than make the shorter drive to Edson.

I read built north from Yates would be only 15 miles from Edson to the living edge of Windfall. In this day and age the 12 mile trip is not in any problem. All that is needed is money by the government to build it.

Edson Chamber of Commerce have prepared a brief. We would also suggest that the local Social Credit League get up one top. All you people who voted SC last time should run again. Edson forgetting ahead or remaining in a cobb of the fierce activity and all development that can mean as many extra jobs here in Edson.

Discussions are not enough. prompt action is needed.

ACCIDENTS EMPHASIZE NEED FOR BLOOD

The accidents in Edson of the weekend or involving Edson persons should be all that is needed to make every town and district person who is fit, attend the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic. They are here to help.

They, alone, should be enough to impress upon the minds of all, the terrible need for blood plasma at a moment's notice.

It is not only following car accidents that the need for plasma arises. Accidents happen every day, may be not in our own town, but they could at any time. In a great many cases it is the blood donated by someone (and there are a hundred miles away that is responsible for a patient pulling through).

IMAGINATIVE RUMORS CAUSE UNTOLD ANXIETY

Did you ever stop to think what a rumor can do? There have been plenty of them in the past few days.

One accident and the rumors began to fly. Joe tells John, John mentions another, probably adds a bit to make it more colorful. John wants to impress the little woman with his knowledge and adds a few conclusions of his own to add them to the story before he passes it on to her who adds just a bit without realizing it before passing it on over the morning coffee break.

Before you know it a man has been killed in a car accident and his friends are ready to order flowers for him. A little girl has been critically hurt when actually she isn't.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

Within the last several weeks we have received several letters from you which even the very old and experienced editors have been able to discern that the material in them is not only not correct but also not in the least bit interesting. They are not only not correct but also not in the least bit interesting.

These brief, new, and somewhat really, even appear to be the work of the future of the newspaper.

It is not only not correct but also not in the least bit interesting. They are not only not correct but also not in the least bit interesting.

ample skills and space is not contained in these "letters to the editor". And to add if it would be a good idea to ask what we are doing for all these communitarians who are so busy in their own little worlds that they don't have time to read the paper, let alone write to the editor. They are not only not correct but also not in the least bit interesting.

CAPITAL REPORT

Going to New York for money

BY KEN MASON

Interest rates have been high for some time. The Alberta cabinet is in the process of setting a rate for an advance credit of $100 million to the province.

Three of the provincial government's major financial officers, Provincial Treasurer, Don Henson, Deputy Treasurer, Fred Brown, and Provincial Auditor, Keith Smith, are expected to be in New York this week making final arrangements for a $250,000,000 loan to the corporation.

The loan will be the first of two the MPA hopes to float this year. A second loan of the same amount will be required later in the year to meet most of the capital requirements.

At week's end there was no word from the MPA on the interest rate. But it is expected that the MPA will have to pay more than 10 per cent for the loan. The MPA will have to pay more than 10 per cent for the loan.

Automatic advances in all fields are continuing to set new records, according to figures reported last week by the business department.

At the end of May, 26,242,000 units had been shipped, compared with 27,914,000 in the same time last year. The significant thing about it is that the first month of the current year was better than the first month of last year.

Already late in the year, there is a little doubt that before the summer is out, most of the year's production will be sold. The MPA will have to pay more than 10 per cent for the loan.

Edson Athletics host McKay this Sunday in league action

The Edson Athletics play their second annual North Western Provincial League doubleheader this evening, Sunday, June 19th, when they are host to the Marquis Braves.

Edson Athletics will have their hands full when they play for the fourth and final playoff game in the league.

The last time these two teams met, Marquis won the first game 11-7 but the A's came back to win the second encounter by a 6-5 score. Both games were played at Edson, Sunday, June 13th.

Marquis Braves are a strong team, having won the league championship last year. They are a well-balanced team with a strong pitching staff.

Edson Athletics are a young team, but they are a well-balanced team with a strong pitching staff. They are a team to watch.

The game is to be played Sunday, June 19th, at 7:30 p.m. at Edson.

Farmers' Picnic draws finest day of year

The Farmers' Day Picnic and dance, Friday, June 10, came off without a hitch, due to a cooperative weather man, the ever helpful efforts of J. A. Lewis and the general public.

Donnell Dunslop was crowned over several games played during the afternoon. We have details by sports writers. The dance held in Carrol Creek hall attracted a capacity crowd who thoroughly enjoyed the music of Carrol's Orchestra. In the absence of their regular guitarist, Todd he took over in that capacity.

If the number of entries of floats and displays in the July First parade are any indication this year should be a bigger than usual affair. To date there are nearly 50 entries for the big show, Lew Robinson, this year's parade marshal, reports. Scheduled to start at 10:00 a.m. the entries will form up along

There will be the usual modern attractions on the grounds: special shows at the theaters and the drive-in followed by a big dance in the Legion Hall.

Hinton takes first at Edson tourney

The Hinton Athletics upset the highly rated Jasper Panthers 12 in the final game of Edson's postponed Port of July Baseball Tournament to win first money of $200. Jasper, last year's tourney winners, pocketed $200 for their second place showing in the affair which was played at Memorial Ball Park on Sunday, July 5.

Four games featured the $400.00 tournament as an additional $100.00 was given to the third spot finishers. Hinton and the three hit pitching of Al Bjorn polished off the Mackay Braves 5-1 in the first game which was held up for 2 minutes due to rain. The Jasper Panthers trounced the Inglehart Edson Athletics 13-1 in the next encounter to advance into the finals against the Hinton Braves. In the fight for third prize money, the Mackay Braves defeated the Athletics 7-2.

At the time of the final game, the temperature in Edson was 87 on July 6, and as we are going to press, July 7, the thermometer reads 85.

This is the first time the July tourney has been completely rained out. Other years there has been some rain in the afternoon or early in the day.

Deluge rains out sports for first time

Over the Dominion Day week and the precipitation in Edson was 2.54 inches.

The high temperature for this week was 87 on July 6, and as we are going to press, July 7, the thermometer reads 85.

This is the first time the July tourney has been completely rained out. Other years there has been some rain in the afternoon or early in the day.

WINNING SECOND PRIZE in the July 1st parade was this float from Marston Motors.

DON'T KNOW WHETHER THE PRETTY GALS ON THE FLOWERS did it but the Leader car was first in the Commercial section of the July First parade.

WATERLOO MOTORS WON third prize for their float which someone spent some long hard hours planning and decorating for the big day. Another float which took hours of work was that of the Telephone staff.

Two cars stolen Saturday night

Two cars in the Edson district were stolen on Saturday, July 5, one of which has been recovered by the Town Police so far.

The recovered car was a 1937 Cord owned by John G. Harrison of Hinton. The car was parked on the corner in front of the J. K. Wilson home with the keys in the ignition.

Reported on Sunday morning, the car which is believed to have been stolen after 2 a.m. was found on the trail French road approximately 2 miles past Sandberg's camp in the district.

The car still missing is a 1938 Buick sedan owned by John G. Harrison, which was parked on the corner in front of the J. K. Wilson home. The keys were in the ignition. When reported on Sunday morning the car has not been recovered yet and the police are making inquiries.

Paul G. Jones' car parked on Hart's street was apparently stolen but it wouldn't start. It was found in the district after 10 a.m. on Sunday.

PROUDLY WESTERN

From a photograph of American settlers arriving by covered wagon near Red Deer during the 1890's.

A Salute to Alberta's American-Born Pioneer Citizens

New towns are springing up where railway lines have crossed the prairie and pushed, beyond them new farmers are to be ploughed, and here are the pioneers who will turn them deep and strong.

They are Americans, mostly from the mid-west states, farm people wise enough in the ways of pioneering to temper criticism with caution. When Canadian land agents lured them to their established communities in the States they elected to send representatives north to see if the promoters' promises of "free land" were accurate and practical.

Now, encouraged by reports they sent out candidly—sometimes a few families together, often an entire community—brought themselves to the new land, and here they are, the pioneers who have helped to build the West.

The firm which sponsored Alberta at about the same time—1892—proudly salutes the American "covered wagon" pioneers for their faith in the province they helped to build great.

CHARLIE WHITTE HOLDS UP HIS 41 inch long fish that he caught in Fiddle Lake. The fish weighed 17 1/2 lbs. and took 20 minutes to land using the rod that Charlie holds in his hand. Accompanying Charlie on his catch was Bud Mills and Ernie Mills who agree that the fish is a beast of a pike. —Leader Photo

Athletics win sixth straight NWBL standings tighten

The way things stand now, one could say for a better league standing on the one that the Edson team. North Western Baseball League is offering. Going into the third stretch drive of the season, there is only one point separating the first and fifth place teams. Heading the pack are the Mackay Braves who have eighteen points, one more than the second place Edson Athletics. The Mayhew Imperials and the champion Jasper Ties are tied for third place with thirteen points apiece while the Whitecourt Eagles have 10 points.

As there was no paper published last week, a complete summary for the past two days in the games in all would take some time. Therefore, we will try, and make, a summary of the games highlights as possible.

SUNDAY, JULY 26
The Jasper Ties, fresh from their eleven first place in Edson's first Twenty-Eight game, their first game in eight starts. The Hi-Bites played out a 11-1 win over the Whitecourt Eagles in a single game worth four points. "No Sweat" summed up the doubleheader played at Mackay between the Mackay Braves and Jasper Ties, as the Braves finally took over first place from Jasper in the district, was three.

COMING GAMES — JULY 28th

Edson at Edson (2)
Jasper at Whitecourt (1)
and 2-3 margins.

In the first game, C. Cook batted off Athletics pitcher Ed Selby in the game which was 2-2. Edson came up with a run in the top of the sixth inning to win 3-2. The winning pitcher was M. Selby, who gave up three runs, two hits and two walks.

Conflicting reports have been received from the first game to be won three to four at the place. Fred Smith, Western Baseball League, having champion in 1927 and 1928, had tried his previous average from 24 to 26 as a result of his afternoon's performance.

SUNDAY, JULY 27
Both the Edson Athletics and Mackay Braves indicated their winning intentions in the game by virtue of strikeouts over their respective opponents in the first half of the game.

At Edson, the A's made it six straight as they defeated the Whitecourt Eagles 11-7 in the top, and 10-8. Meanwhile the Braves had their hands full at Mackay when they appeared on the field to play the Hi-Bites.

The highlight in the first game was C. Gallagher striding home with the winning run to give Mackay a 3-2 win. Al Smith pitched both games for the Hi-Bites and also hit a home run but it wasn't enough as the Braves four to straight wins gave them 18 points, one more than the Edson Athletics.

At Edson B. Gertie pitched his third straight game with one out in the first inning and then hit a home run in the second inning to give the A's a 1-0 win over the Hi-Bites. The loss was Jasper's fourth in a row after they had won a winning streak of five straight games.

San Francisco was the losing pitcher for Whitecourt. Jack Brown, Ken Lyden, and Rex Gertie had three hits, one with runners walking three times and striding home for a perfect afternoon at the Lyden, hanging out a triple and double in the first three innings. The game was a 1-0 win for the A's, who came in with seven runs in the first inning and a double in the first. The A's also allowed only one hit and one run in the first. The A's also allowed only one hit and one run in the first. The A's also allowed only one hit and one run in the first.

In a slight, also losing game at Jasper, the Mayhew Braves' pitcher's pitched into a third place tie with the Hi-Bites there as they defeated them 7-5.

Many pay respects to long time Edson resident

Both tributes were paid by Edson citizens when funeral services were held here for George T. Harrison on 25 years ago. F. C. Hopper of St. Catharines, Ontario, conducted the services. A Salute to Alberta's Jewish Pioneers Railway construction using of Jewish laborers in the early 1930's.

The transcontinental railway—a spiderweb of steel linking a nation together—was built by the labor of many men, among them—friendless and perhaps fearful—were the occasional workmen of Jews, immigrants newly arrived from Eastern Europe. Still dressed in their Jewish garb, still bearded in Turkish fashion, and commanded in their own tongue by a bilingual overseer, they toiled with the same sweat and steady hammer.

... I was helped to build the railway, now shines like a bright thread in the tapestry of Israel's history.

EDSON'S GOING WESTERN

What CPA means to Edson Rodeo this year

One of the most important features of the rodeo is the cowboy. In the rodeo, the cowboy is the hero. He is the one who saves the day. He is the one who makes the difference between a good rodeo and a bad one. He is the one who makes the rodeo what it is.

The cowboy is the hero of the rodeo. He is the one who saves the day. He is the one who makes the difference between a good rodeo and a bad one. He is the one who makes the rodeo what it is.

AT LAST YEAR'S RODEO SLIM MARTIN kept the crowd in between stitches of laughter and anxiety as he performed with a steer or two and with his trained mule. Slim of course, is a prominent member of Edson's Town Police Dept.

The rodeo is a sport that has been around for a long time. It is a sport that is loved by many people. It is a sport that is full of excitement and action. It is a sport that is full of danger and risk.

Bill Pickett began steer 'Dogging' at Century's turn

Nobody is quite sure who introduced steer "dogging" to the rodeo. Different theories are held.

It is thought that Pickett made one of his first trips before the turn of the century.

Bill Pickett, through out his career, has been a great success in the "dogging" line. He has won many titles and has been a great success in the "dogging" line. He has won many titles and has been a great success in the "dogging" line.

BEAUTIFUL HANDS

There is a new word made up to be beautiful. You may doubt this at this time of year. Handsomeness, good grooming and winds all seem to be working to make your hands as unattractive as possible.

Good habits will turn soft, powdered hands into an attractive pair in one week.

All hands should start and end a day with lotion or cream. Men's hands need it much more. No woman need have rough hands. The best softeners, used before and after each meal, cheer prevent, rubbers and chapping and keep the skin soft and smooth. Wash your hands often in hot water. Rub with a brush and soap. Rub with a brush and soap. Rub with a brush and soap.

Remember the following little hints will make a big difference:

1. Rub hands with soap and water.
2. Rub hands with soap and water.
3. Rub hands with soap and water.

The protection of cream, lotion and gloves is a blessing to soft as well as hands.

Remember the following little hints will make a big difference:

1. Rub hands with soap and water.
2. Rub hands with soap and water.
3. Rub hands with soap and water.

The latest innovation of steer wrestling is decreasing from a steady jump. The jump must travel at 25 miles an hour to keep up with the hurrying beast.

INTEREST HIGH FOR RODEO WEEK

The Leader
Edmonton, Alberta, Thursday, August 4, 1960
Vol. 6 No. 30

Grounds and track put Edson Rodeo plant at top in circuit

Interest in Edson's big summer event is building every day. Posters, newspaper ads, personal magnetism and just plain interest in rodeo has built up to a loyal up anticipation by people in the area West of Edmonton.

Anyone who has been out to the rodeo grounds this week cannot fail to appreciate some of the reasons for this buildup. The grounds are something out of all proportion to the short time Edson has had a stampede.

Twice as many bleachers, a race track that many thought could not be built in time, permanent rodeo stands, an old timers cabin, re-reinforced judges stands, etc., etc. And what's more most of the things built this year, and last, have been painted in attractive colors.

All this build-up has been accomplished by a hard core of steady work-parties for the last month and a half, plus dozens of other work party men, boys and girls that has numbered as many as 50 or 60 a night at the grounds. The volunteer work has been augmented by heavy donations of earth moving, lumber, materials and cash by individuals and local firms.

Outraging sportsping and human dynamo this year, as he was last year, has been W. R. "Bud" Brunelle. His enthusiasm has been caught up by the dozens of others who have worked the heavy to put the big rodeo show on the map.

This local effort combined with the professional appearance here, for the first time, of riders in the Cowboy Professional Association, makes off a professional style stampede presentation by rodeo fans surrounding Edson.

Starting Noon Friday, Aug. 5, there will be the mammoth parade and 11:30 Saturday the Sheriff's posse will ride up Main Street with the long harried support between the Rodeo Committee and the members of the Fire Department (owners to be hand down by the Fire Dept.) following in the afternoon and evening program of events in the corral starting at 2 and 7 p.m. respectively both days. A dance on the Rodeo Service lot both nights will climax the big days.

Pulp Mill officials to turn over park Aug. 14

The old mill a mile directly south of the C.N. Station, at Edson, is to be turned over to the Town of Edson in a ceremony at 4:00 p.m. Sunday, August 14.

The transfer ceremony was sponsored by the Town of Edson and the Pulp Mill. The mill has been owned by the Pulp Mill Co. since 1940. The mill has been used for the production of pulp and paper.

"BUO" BRUNELLE CHECKS A JOKE on the half mile of outside fence on Edson Tri-Service Rodeo's brand new race track. Some thought the track couldn't be built but when Bud starts working a committee the impossible doesn't take long either. The substantial donation of Sandy Construction in using the tremendous amount of clay for highway fill and pushing the rest into the low spots made the earth moving possible. Then the fence building parties took over.

A New Farm Study
A farm management study completed recently in the south-eastern area of the province has shown that the average farm income is $11,000. This is a considerable improvement over the $7,000 reported in a study made in 1957. The study was conducted by the University of Alberta, and the results are being used by the province's farm management service to help farmers improve their income.

the Manitowish family income were $7,000. Thus the total net return on investment of the farm was $11,000. This is a considerable improvement over the $7,000 reported in a study made in 1957. The study was conducted by the University of Alberta, and the results are being used by the province's farm management service to help farmers improve their income.

The province of the Central Alberta Association, which comprises 72 farmers in the Central and Lacrosse municipal districts, is in a unique and complex farm situation. A good example of this is the study made by the University of Alberta, which has shown that the average farm income is $11,000. This is a considerable improvement over the $7,000 reported in a study made in 1957.

Conclusions drawn from analysis of the report indicate that in many cases farmers are being misled by the results of the study. This is a danger of overreliance on the results of the study. It is important that farmers be aware of the limitations of the study and use the results as a guide rather than a rule.

The Editor, acting as treasurer of the study, has been criticized for his handling of the study. It is important that the study be conducted in a fair and impartial manner. The results of the study should be used as a guide rather than a rule. It is important that farmers be aware of the limitations of the study and use the results as a guide rather than a rule.

From an early sketch of Ontario families aboard the colonial car of a westbound excursion train... about 1893

A Salute to Alberta's Settlers from Ontario...

The nearly 25 years—beginning in the early 1890s and ending only with the start of the First World War—of the settlement trade was one of the West's most familiar scenes. It was a time of hard work, of long hours, of the struggle to build a new life in a new land. It was a time of sacrifice, of courage, of the spirit of adventure. It was a time when the settlers of Ontario came to the West to build a new life, to build a new home, to build a new future.

They came, these Ontario settlers, from the great and glorious Ontario. They came from the great and glorious Ontario, from the great and glorious Ontario, from the great and glorious Ontario. They came from the great and glorious Ontario, from the great and glorious Ontario, from the great and glorious Ontario.

Third and fourth generation Canadians whose ancestors had come from the British Isles or who had been proud United Empire Loyalists, these settlers and their descendants were highly adaptable to their new life. Their children in the present's America were in the greatest of the world.

Lodge sponsored trip was wonderful

By DARLENE WOYWITA
On July 2nd, in Forge North, a delegation of thirty-one women, from Alberta, Saskatchewan, Idaho and Montana met to begin the long trip to New York where they would visit the United Nations and the United Nations Conference on the Right of Women.

At Ottawa they were met by the Canadian Minister of the Interior, Mr. G. A. Healey, and the Minister of the Interior, Mr. G. A. Healey, and the Minister of the Interior, Mr. G. A. Healey.

After visiting the United States, the group visited the largest granite quarry in the world at Barre, Vermont.

On July 10th the group arrived in New York City where they met with delegates from Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island.

In all there were 110 delegates. After a guided tour of the United Nations Building the group heard

A recent bride shower was given in honor of Miss Betty Paul, July 20, at the home of Mrs. Dan Smith, who was hostess. All present enjoyed a game of bridge followed by a delicious lunch.

The honored guest became the bride of Mr. Roy Stewart on July 25.

The group spent a day in Washington, D.C. where they visited the Smithsonian Institute, Washington's monument, Lincoln Memorial, the P.A.I. building, the Lee Building, the National Archives, Washington's state and the White House.

Other stops along the way were at Chicago, Atlanta and Columbus, Ohio and St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Carrot Creek

Safe Thursday made it possible for local farmers to return to their fields in time for the annual carrot show on Friday, Aug. 12, and the first day of show's third annual run.

We've heard it said that the unexpected gets a little way to ward the making of a parade—and this would expect to see a bright and shining parade in the carrot show grounds near the creek, and a parade of carrots in the parade grounds.

Several local farmers took a well-deserved holiday of absence from their fields to attend the annual carrot show, Aug. 12, at the C. B. Berkhardt farm, 10 miles west of Edson.

INCREASES IN PAY FOR POST-AL WORKERS.

Recently the Postmaster General, the Honorable William Bennett, announced pay raises for postal workers effective July 1, 1938.

The increase was $1.00 for letter carriers and postal clerks, $1.25 for mail carriers and $1.50 for postmen.

These increases are the largest ever given postal employees at any time. They average 10 per cent in the case of letter carriers and 15 per cent in the case of postmen.

The total cost to the Post Office Department will be $2,000,000 and will affect over 100,000 postal workers across Canada.

This is part of the Government's program to improve the standard of living of its employees.

Mr. Bennett said that the postal workers are the backbone of the postal service and that the Government is proud to give them a raise.

He also said that the postal workers are the backbone of the postal service and that the Government is proud to give them a raise.

PROUDLY WESTERN

A Salute to Alberta's Scandinavian Population . . .

It may well be that Leif Erikson and his Vikings reached the shores of Canada 500 years before Columbus discovered the North American continent, and that actually the Scandinavians were the first Europeans to know of the existence of this vast country. Be that as it may, the people of Ireland and of Norway, Sweden and Denmark—when they came to Western Canada to homestead—found a land. Most of them had made their homes first in Minnesota and the Dakotas—settling here, they found Alberta country akin to their original homes—lying within the same latitude belt and offering the promise of the prosperous farming and dairy industries they had known in Europe.

Proud of their heritage, Alberta's Scandinavians may well be proud also of their contribution to the development of this province. Their pioneers established at least a half-dozen of Alberta's towns, most of its cheese factories, and many of its finest dairy and mixed farms, and today Scandinavians names are respected and honored in Alberta in every walk of life.

FIRST PRIZE COMMERCIAL WINNER, sponsored by Edson Tire Service, was really a highlight parade feature. The old steam engine is a 1906 model and was last used 30 years ago. Gerald Carter and G. Sokoski own it and helped Paul Sedler make it mobile.

THE SHERIFF'S POSE from Schenck all mounted on Pullman was a big attraction at Saturday's parade and evening performance. It was truly amazing with what grace those horses and riders are able to perform.

HAIR RUBBER UNDER TIRE AND RUBBER BARREL are part of the act the clown "bull fighter" was to distract the little animals.

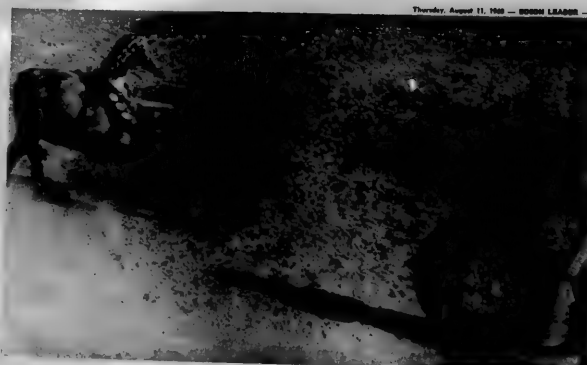

THE SPIRITUAL SIDE WAS NOT FORGOTTEN, the Edson Baptist Church entry was quite a feature and most commendable.

DARLING NEVADA, our favorite rodeo clown, Slim Martin was the cause of much hilarity during rodeo days.

FOLLOW THE LEADER TO THE RODEO was our motto, we don't know whether it helped or not but apparently it must have done the crowd of the rodeo got all the action during the western Alberta in the shade.

Edson joins stock car racing circuit

Not wasting any time putting the new track into use, the Edson Tri-Service Rodeo Association are planning an afternoon of stock car racing on the Sandy-Bach Track Saturday, August 27.

Among the car-addicts to appear will be Norm Elfrason, who is the 1960 Gold Cup Champion, and who has raced in Calgary as well. Another racer will be a Hinton driver, Eldon Rasmussen, who races regularly in the city.

In the class A race four chaps including Norm Klusien, in No. 1, will appear. The other three are George Krasnow (2), Edson Rasmussen (2), and Edson Rasmussen (1).

Six B class drivers will be on hand including Duke Foster (3), Don and Lloyd Rosenberger (30), Peppy Brown (4), Bill McCormack (1), Bill Walsh (75), and Tom Rod (10). (23) which has pretty well become the state racing center for the West, even, we are told surpassing the enthusiasm at Vancouver.

Bill Walsh will be the first of the major stars in Alberta to take up the sport. Unlike other sports there doesn't seem to be much reward for the driver except the thrill of the chase and elected

DUE TO HIS MOVING TO THE CITY SHORTLY Mayor W. H. Kanevitz handed his resignation in to Council on Tuesday night. The Council's present non-elected father, Councillor Percy W. Wells as Mayor of Kalamazoo until after the election in October. Mr. Kanevitz, who is also local Magistrate, was first elected to the Council in 1940 and elected Mayor a year later, for a two year term. He was again elected Mayor in 1944, by acclamation. In between he has served as chairman of the School Division Board. Mayor Wells was first elected to the Council in 1937. His term as Councillor was to have expired this October.

Mayorality and two councillor seats this year

It's a mayoralty year in municipal politics this year. In addition there are the usual two council seats to be filled.

Mayor W. H. Kambwiri has indicated that he will be leaving Bloom for the city shortly and therefore will not be available. The two council seats to be elected this year are those occupied by Councilmen P. W. Weiss and W. Hurlimann.

TYPICAL OF THE STOCK CAR DRIVERS
he will be appearing at Eden's first stock car racing setup a week from Saturday, in Eden Rasmussen of Minden. A class A driver, he has had the car racing bug for years. He vehicle is similar to those driven in Speedway Park in the city. He comes by his interest in cars naturally, as he is associated with Hi-Write Motors at Minton.

Edson Health Unit Dental Clinic now in Edson

The Edson Health Unit Dental Clinic which commenced operation at Dugan Valley, June 20th is now in Edson.

The dental is charge in Dr. Wayne V. Olsen assisted by Dr. Health Unit Nurse. The clinic has been set up at the Health Unit offices.

All patients of last year's Grade 1 children are reminded to bring along their children on the date and time shown on their appointment form as advised previously by the Health Unit.

A few children have not turned up at the clinic and the parents had not notified the Health Unit of their non-availability. This resulted in some loss of dental tag and considerable rearranging in being in their dentures of the service.

THEY'RE GOT NO GLASS IN THEM to splinter and their moped up engines, their low centre of gravity, and their road hugging qualities don't make for a car beauty. But they're coming to watch at least one race team will find out at the Edson grounds Saturday afternoon. They're not the only attraction as there will be charter races, horse racing, a free demonstration and so on. Make it an afternoon of the race this Saturday and see something different as Edson Tri-Service Station Announces.

The Edson Leader

The Voice of Edson Community

Vol. 6 Edson, Alberta, Thursday, August 25, 1966 No. 20

"ROCK" THOMSON AND A VINTAGE LOCOMOTIVE

Sunday, August 21st was a remarkable day for John Thomson. It marked the anniversary of 50 years since he was born. The time he arrived to help open up the road known as Highway 16, as Edson was known in 1916.

A native of Dundas, Scotland, Mr. Thomson had first come to the land of the Great Lakes in 1909 when he was in search of work. He was in Alberta and Canada for 51st birthday. After working around Port Williams and Fort Assiniboine, he came West with the late A. R. Edson and started to work for the railway out of Edson.

In those days the mail only came so far west as Wolf Creek and Mr. Thomson and another man went once a week by wagon to collect it and bring it to Edson.

Of the half dozen men who were together at the opening of the Edson community, he is the only living one left. He has also lived all that time in Edson territory. And it is therefore Edson's oldest resident from the point of view that he has lived all that time within the boundaries of Edson town. (His half century of continuous residence is only broken by a ten month stint at Calgary on the Coal Branch in the winter of 1930-31).

During his years in Edson Mr. Thomson has served on the Town Council and school board, been active in his church and numerous others. Since his retirement from the railway he has been serving as Magistrate up until a few months ago.

Mr. Thomson passed away last winter, his son, R. C., and daughter Mrs. Janet Kays and their families live at Jasper, where Mr. Thomson visits now and again.

Edson and District plans to make this great man who helped make Edson what it is today.

Coming Event

With the holidays almost over everyone seems to be ready to settle in to a kind of routine again. The latter members of the community will be trying out their new grade in school and adults are beginning to think of the effort the coming up to the different organizations.

Each, we offer the services of The Edson "Coming Events" section in general, lines of monthly reports, etc. They may suggest some new ideas and organizations or please the details in so we can do for you. In that way you can be assured of better and other events.

C of C sponsoring farewell for former mayor

All citizens interested in saying farewell to former Mayor W. H. and Mrs. Edson are cordially invited by the Chamber of Commerce to come to a luncheon to celebrate the departure of the former Mayor.

The luncheon will be a mixed meal and will be held at the Edson Hotel on Thursday, September 1st. The time will be 12:30 P.M. The cost of the luncheon is $2.00 per person.

School starts September 1st

The school will be a mixed meal and will be held at the Edson Hotel on Thursday, September 1st. The time will be 12:30 P.M. The cost of the luncheon is $2.00 per person.

Stock Cars Here Saturday

Word from Edmononton is that the stock car race drivers in the city are enthusiastic about the prospects of trying out Edson's half mile race track Saturday afternoon. They have only a quarter mile in the city to get up speed on.

The enthusiasm of the city drivers is more than matched by the people who are looking forward to seeing their favorite stock cars. Straight horse racing and the new and popular stock car racing will be held at least six o'clock will be on.

All week work parties of the Tri-Service Association have been picking rocks, grading and leveling the track, and laying lines of lay at strategic points around the perimeter of the course.

The day is designed to protect the public should a car come off the track. Other protective measures are being organized. The one will be a straight dollar a head for the driver who makes it to the finish line.

There will be horse racing on Main Street. It is hoped to have some exciting races on hand as well.

In addition to the Edson Junior Band under Andy Leland.

Tri-Service for a raffle to give the number of admissions at the gate will be sold on the grounds. The draw will take place just after the stock car race.

Western and other Alberta police and game laws prospective entrants are urged to get their's in before one official at the judge's stand on the race grounds.

Mrs. S. Lewis wins medal golf play Sunday

In spite of waverate and threatening weather many players played over the course on Sunday, August 21. The highlight of the day was when Mrs. S. Lewis won the ladies third annual open tournament.

The tournament commenced at 10 a.m. and was divided on two rounds of medal play. This event was won by Mrs. S. Lewis for the second consecutive year with a two round total of 114, as winning the Ladies Trophy.

Other prize-winners were Mrs. Kay Macle, winner in 1948, Mrs. Edna White and Mrs. Norma Evans.

Prizes were presented by Dr. Lewis, club president. Because of the inclement day it is hoped to hold another Ladies Tournament in September.

Mayor Kankewitt presides at last Council meeting

Towards the close of the regular Edson Town Council meeting Tuesday, August 13, Mayor W. H. Kankewitt asked Deputy Mayor J. W. Walls to accept the chair and read his letter of resignation.

Outlining that it was necessary for him to move to Edmonton and that he and his family were leaving the community with great regret. He also expressed his confidence in the outstanding Council and paid tribute to the efficient officers and staff of the Town.

The Council then accepted Mayor Kankewitt's resignation with regret and expressed their thanks on behalf of the community for the exemplary service rendered by Mr. Kankewitt through the years as well as gave him their best wishes.

Council then met and only elected Mayor to complete the unexpired term of Mayor Kankewitt. Councilor W. H. Remble was then named Deputy Mayor until the first regular meeting of the new Council in October.

Purchase of typewriter:
Mr. W. F. Bell, representing the Kensington Road Ltd. interviewed the Board regarding a special price for typewriters. The normal price for the Division would be $125.00 but during the special sale these machines would cost the Division $127.50, less $25.00 for each machine traded in. It was the purpose of the meeting that the Division should be purchased to replace a number of old machines which are becoming obsolete.

Secretary-Manager J. Fleming from Hinton, Mr. Willmore and Edna's Secretary-Treasurer Red Griggs recalled some of early donors on the bill which included Tom Fowler Jr., the grandson of the late M. Stevenson, who originally owned the quarter section and whose name was affectionately given to the hill. Mr. Stevenson, an exceptionally active man, learned to his regret that most men would not even think of taking up croquet. Vice President Paul Jacobs of the Edison Chamber of Commerce told the little gathering of how the local Lions club had approached the pulp company and suggested the setting up of the park.

hit by train

A man was killed Friday when his jeep was rammed by a CNA passenger train at Niles, 20 miles from San Francisco. The vehicle was rammed into the train during the agent's home wife's birthday celebration.

The dead man was identified as George P. Reynolds, 60, of Niles. Injured from flying glass and almost killed by the train were Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Gersh and their young daughter.

The accident occurred at 4:38 P.M. at the Niles station, where the train, the Super Continental, veered through the small town, and the jeep was rammed into it at a nearby store said Mr. Reynolds had been there and was driving home on the Niles branch tracks. His light jeep was smashed by the diesel locomotive and the jeep was thrown a few feet away from the tracks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gersh and their daughter were in the station. The jeep was rammed into the station, shattered glass and steel splinters were used into the air. The Gersh family was cut off the flying glass and went to the Niles hospital in a nearby hospital and later

Study Window

By Rev. C. C. Armstrong
The summer holiday season is over. For us it was one spent on our cars, and under cloudless skies. There were five of us at one time. At first we were rather crowded, but soon learned how to manage. Each evening we would be thoroughly ground with our studies. Each evening we would be thoroughly ground with our studies.

There is the morning. It was exactly anticipated and we would all expect our little bright morning session. At the end of the session we were able to hold quite intelligible conversations with our studies.

Vauxhall... the difference between skipping and saving!

HERE'S NO SKIPPING ON PLEASURE

That's the big difference with Vauxhall — it has the total visibility of a wrap-around window — a built-in steering to help you a lot that tight parking space — a low centre of gravity to give you a wonderful feeling of steady, smooth control over the roughest road.

NO SKIPPING ON COMFORT

That means all-back-and-forth comfort for five passengers. With Vauxhall there's no struggle to get into the back seat, four wide opening doors provide easy entrance and exit. Comfort-cushioned seats and steering column (pashell) are two of the many other Vauxhall luxury features.

NO SKIPPING ON FEATURES

There's not enough space to list them all but here are a few to tell you... a Canadian-style heater designed for the frigid winters... two-speed electric windshield wipers... top quality runproof body dip for years of wear and "just new" good looks.

SAVE AS YOU DRIVE

You can't help but save on the poppy-cylinder Vauxhall "over-square" engine. Its outstanding engineering ensures you long life and trouble-free driving. With the economy outboard you'll forget all your worries about gas consumption—you get up to 40 miles per gallon.

SAVE FOR THE FUTURE

Vauxhall holds its value for years — you couldn't make a better investment. From its righty-angled body—with runproof body dip, to its sleek and handsome appearance — Vauxhall has everything you expect in a General Motors car. And there's consistent wide service, too.

SAVE ON INITIAL COST

Always an important consideration when buying a car, Vauxhall is more considerate than most. Whatever make of car you own — a look at Vauxhall will make you think hard about your driving future, and you couldn't make a better decision than to visit your Vauxhall dealer — Right now!

New CNR Big Eddy steel and concrete bridge now in use

THE NEW BIG EDDY is considerably higher than the old wooden trestle as can be seen from this angle.

HOW THE BIG EDDY GETS ITS NAME can be seen in this shot from the new bridge looking south to the bend in the McLeod River.

Old "Big Eddy" bridge is coming down — and a new one came into use Tuesday, August 23. Travelers on the CNR mainline will have noticed considerable activity in the vicinity of Sundance Creek five miles west of Estevan where trains cross a 1,000 foot gorge, 80 feet above the water.

The old wooden trestle bridge has been known as "Big Eddy" since 1899. The first bridge crossing the Sundance Valley in this area was built during the winter of 1909-10 by the Grande Trunk Pacific. It was replaced in 1922, by a new trestle bridge 100 feet south of the old and, in 1926, the present "Big Eddy" was completed in the same location. The present or old bridge is 1,521 feet long, contains over one million board feet of timber and over 100,000 pounds of bolts and washers. The new steel and reinforced concrete "Big Eddy," now nearing completion, stands on much the same site as the old bridge of 1922. It is 440 feet long and runs 100 feet above the valley floor. Construction on the new bridge was started in 1926 with the building of a 100-foot high embankment at the east end, and a reinforced concrete abutment. All substructure units rest on steel piles.

Steel erection, totalling about 400 tons of structural steel, was started in March this year. Span lengths are 112 feet, 91 feet, two spans of 74 feet and two lower spans of 45 feet each. The added height over the old bridge is due to the track gradient consideration, allowing for greater ease in train operation and expense.

Old "Big Eddy" has had its day. Now standing beside its steel, modern successor, it will remain until dismantled, as a reminder of a bygone railway era, and as one of the CNR's largest wooden trestles in Western Canada.

DOZENS OF "BANDY DANCERS" were on hand from 4 a.m. on to switch the rails over to the new road bed Tuesday morning.

FREIGHT TRAIN No. 423 was the first train over the new bridge closely followed by the way freight and then No. 3 and 2 passenger trains.

School division teachers roster nearly complete

As schools opened in the Edson School Division for the first official day of the 1949-50 term, 145 teachers were on duty, with two positions yet to be filled.

Twenty-six of the staff members are new to the division, having been recruited from other parts of Alberta, as well as from Saskatchewan and Great Britain. Part of the increase in staff is due to the assignment of the Coal Branch School Division with the Edson organization.

The central office staff remains unchanged, with the exception of Assistant Secretary John Fisher, who replaced Mrs. Anne Burton in that position.

Mayor Wells takes top honors in golf tourney

Winning the championship title in the Edson Golf Club's members tournament on Sunday was 1968 Weekly Mayor Perry Wells who scored a mere 106 and only needed up 118 strokes for the 27 holes. The prize was the Edson trophy trophy. Club President Dr. Joe Lewis was also in the final with 122 strokes.

First flight: Tony Grant, who shot 127 strokes; John Burtan, second, 120 strokes; Jim Williams, 2nd, 127 strokes.

Second flight: Peter Cherman, who shot 140 strokes; John Lang, third, 140 strokes; Bill Williams, 140 strokes; Bob Wiltworth, 140 strokes.

Third flight: Don Walker, who shot 140 strokes; Bob Wiltworth, 140 strokes.

Horses found by obvious means

Two of Mr. Bill Campbell's horses strayed the other day and he wanted to find the fastest method to get them back. Well, he did because three days later he found them where he found them.

The reason he obtained such quick results was because he did the only logical thing — he placed an ad in the Edson Leader. So if you want to sell, find, rent or buy anything try the logical thing — the Leader want ad.

second, 106 strokes; Don McArthur, third, 117 strokes. Handicap event: Jim Williams won the Wethering Transport Trophy for the Low and Score of 106 strokes. J. Bell scored 113 strokes; Tony Grant, third 118 strokes. P. W. Wells having a net score of 106 strokes did not qualify for the event. (Championship Flight not complete).

Handicap, 100 stroke tournament is to be held Sept. 18. Entry fee $1.00. Starting time 8:00 a.m. Holes must be turned in before Wednesday Sept. 18.

As a special concession local residents may play golf for the remainder of the 1968 season only for 50¢ per round or $1.00 per

No one yet committed for elections

No Edson citizen has yet put out and not indicated he or she will be running their bid in the municipal election.

Tomorrow day for municipal elections and the two council seats to be filled were held Monday Sept. 23. The mayor's office is presently being run by Mayor Councilor P. W. Wells and the other seat is held by Councilor W. McArthur.

4 break-ins Monday night

There was a busy time for the Police force in Edson on Tuesday morning after the last week-end when three local business establishments were entered and small amounts of money and other articles were stolen.

The thieves got into all three places by means of breaking a window and did a considerable amount of damage.

The thieves gained entry to Marlowe's by breaking a plate glass window and stole $12.15 but did not do too much damage throughout the garage.

INDUSTRY GROWS ON ELECTRICITY

You could say that industry needs Vitamin "E" to grow — "E" for Electricity. An indication of any country's industrial growth can be measured by the amount of electricity generated and used. Alberta's rapid industrial growth over the last few years has been envied by many, and this growth continues. The Brown family, on a tour of Calgary Power's facilities, are seeing one of the ways that electricity helps the oil industry — working together to provide employment and prosperity for Alberta. They realize now, as never before, that such industrial progress could not have been possible without abundant electricity, planned for and developed in advance by Calgary Power. To-day, Calgary Power's engineers are planning for the demands of Alberta's industries in the future. Helping Industry to grow is part of our picture of service.

Zoning by-law and Town manager appointment discussed by Council

A new zoning plan for the lower part of Edson was introduced at the regular meeting of Edson Council held Tuesday evening, Sept. 9. Details of the new by-law appear on page 1 of this week's Leader.

The promotion of long-time Secretary-Treasurer E. C. Grogg as Secretary-Manager of the Town was also discussed and details will be published in next week's Leader. Thinking of the Council was that it was time Mr. Grogg be given the official title for a job of administration that he has gradually taken on throughout the years.

Many other items of business in his capacity as Secretary-Treasurer were discussed and approved by Council. Mr. Grogg was also named as the person to be in charge of the new by-law. Mr. Grogg was also named as the person to be in charge of the new by-law.

Delegation reports good chance for Windfall road

News of some sort of direct connection between Edson and Windfall was brought back from an interview delegation from Edson had with the Hon. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways, recently on consecutive meetings of the Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday night.

The Edson brief was presented by Mr. Law Robinson, introduced by the Hon. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways, recently on consecutive meetings of the Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday night.

The Edson Chamber asked for connection north from Lawrence Plains, but a survey by the Highways Department showed such a road, built to market road standards, would cost about $700,000. Mr. Taylor expressed the view that such a large sum would not be justified at the present time.

The Edson delegation also noted that a more direct road would be required and the Highways Department are to make a survey with such a connection in mind. When the road fact are in their number delegation will go in and interview Mr. Taylor.

Parkland Lodge to open Sept. 25

An open house to mark the opening of Edson's New Parkland Lodge for senior citizens is to be held from 12:30 to 4:30 Sunday afternoon, Sept. 25.

Edson and District citizens are cordially invited to attend. Tea or coffee will be served.

Firemen quell mattress fire

The Fire Department were called at 2:50 a.m. to put out a fire at the Cannadown Hotel.

One of the mattresses was a mattress which resulted when a mattress at the hotel fell asleep with a lit cigarette in it.

COUNCILLOR J. D. MEADE

has announced to The Leader that on the urging of various citizens he is offering his name to go before the Edson voters as a candidate for Mayor. At time of going to press other candidates had indicated definitely they would run. This day is Wednesday, Sept. 18, but in the case of a winning Council he must resign his seat prior to Sept. 17.

Former Edson man does well in B.C. election

Don S. Huggan, a former electrical shop operator in Edson and sheriff's bailiff here about ten years ago, placed in a comfortable position in the B.C. election in the riding of Delta on Monday's election in British Columbia. He 22 Services were elected with 13 CCF members as official opposition. Only four Liberals were elected and no PCs.

Huggan broke into the national headlines in the closing days of the election campaign when he stated he had been taken a jail term to help the "secret service" party a few days in Prince Albert penitentiary.

Huggan and his running mate polled 27,900 votes in the 41,900 votes polled by their CCF opponents. The Liberals candidates polled 18,450 and the PCs candidates 4,250.

In this particular riding the Social Credit polled 790, and the CCF vote increased from 25,000 to almost 43,000. Liberals picked up 1,000 votes. Conservatism chose 4,000. A fraction of the Liberal-Conservative vote would have put the Services over the top. Huggan lived here with his wife.

By during the war and the incident in the penitentiary was not mentioned in the election was of considerable interest to the Vancouver who knew him here.

Several revelations about Huggan's secret services in a Canadian sense that does not at all mean he was a low level spy.

Blissfully Young

By ALICE HOLLINGTON

He is the eldest son. Some unknown ones has not his feet and had said his eyes. How may we hope to reach his secret heart or give expression to a glad surprise?

A smiling word, a kindly touch, a smile and knowing glances—These are all he needs to grow to think he has not— and we take this little brother, change his destiny.

—Lillian Chaffey Grey, Newmarket, Ontario

By the time this goes to press, it will be two years since two months after the first small group of parents and other interested persons gathered in the Westminster Hotel, in June, what was to become known in this community as the "Blissful Young."

The idea of the organization of the group was to give children who had been in the care of the state, a chance to be adopted by a family. The group was to be a place where children could be adopted by a family. The group was to be a place where children could be adopted by a family.

Some are available. We, as a group, had much to learn. That in our members there was a family with a neglected boy of nine years who was not allowed to attend public school. The parents had made an effort to obtain care for him at the provincial training school at Red Deer but would have to wait for some time before they were allowed to take him there for admission. The Elton Boys had been invited to join the Alberta Association for Retarded Children, officially becoming a member of the Elton Association in May, 1959. Our name was changed to The Elton Association for Retarded Children, retaining the name in brackets as a courtesy.

Until this time we had been giving money aid to the Elton Association where our Elton boy was receiving good care. As a member of the provincial association we had now an opportunity to pay the provincial association for travelling expenses of our members chosen by the Provincial Association, to serve on their board of directors. We must now also provide funds for operating a day class in Edmonton. Here, or I should say, the Association, retained Elton's first day classes as one of its activities is organized and every effort is a private home until donated or rented class rooms are available. Health Unit was contacted and through their official and expert aid, admission was obtained for this child in the Westminster Hotel, in June, what was to become known in this community as the "Blissful Young."

What we did not realize, was the expense involved. A housing plan had to be obtained as there was no housing facilities at the hotel. The rent of house for a child was $100 a month plus $100 a month for food. This was a staggered sum for our small group to take responsibility for. It was also impossible for the parents to pay much as an amount.

Yet some people maintain it is wrong to try to set up a school room in a child's home. Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family.

Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family.

Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family. Some say that the child should be in a family.

Better than no road at all

Edsonians who were here before the advent of the present Coal Branch road will not be completely disappointed about failing to get a fancy connection with Winifred gas processing plant right away. This editor can remember Wednesday and Saturday afternoon spent by Board of Trade members not clearing brush on what was nothing more than a hole road to start with. The originally primitive road was later made into an acceptable gravel road. But it took a few years.

No responsible person quarrels with the point of view of Highway Minister Taylor about $700,000 being too much to spend on a Winifred connection right now. But a minimum road would prove to the hardier types at Winifred that Edson isn't such a bad place to come and see.

When a traffic pattern is established, then there would be no doubt that the government could justify a larger appropriation. If the extra survey takes too long, then chances are no action can be taken before freeze-up. This would be a pity, as a road opened right away and travelled during the frozen ground period, could prove the worth of the connection.

Better a modest road than none at all.

Training Junior Hunters

With hunter training camps now being approached it was with considerable interest that we studied account of efforts being made in New Brunswick to produce junior hunters well versed in the safety aspects of outdoor activities. Reported in the current issue of the Canadian Hunter, "Education" is the work of the Hampton, N.B. legion branch in training youngsters in the proper use of firearms, ballistics, compass and map reading and allied subjects that may help save lives in the woods and avoid mishaps.

The Hampton veterans want safety precautions to become a matter of habit to avoid excesses such as, "I thought it was a deer," "I shot at a sound in the bushes," "I don't know it was loaded," or "I never carry a compass." These who point the course are provided with a certificate that will open the door to a junior hunting license.

The course has the approval of the New Brunswick Department of Lands and Mines and stresses particularly the attitude of youngsters toward hunter safety. They are marked on firearms safety, map-reading and woodlore. Parents also attend and in many cases learn along with their children.

In our opinion the program has much to recommend it to other parts of the country that lack such facilities. We have a goodly number of hunters and many many people interested in the sports of field and stream and such a course would attract much local interest.

Every year the hunting fraternity grows in numbers with a parallel rise in accidents, and with a training course of the New Brunswick type it might be possible to keep our hunters out of the headlines in future years. We believe it is worthy of consideration by local organizations.

Was Walwright's problem, too?

We notice an editorial in the Lacombe Globe which starts out: "From the fringes of discussion at last week's town council meeting, it appears to be only a matter of time before Lacombe is cursed with parking meters on its main streets."

This brings to our mind the narrow escape experienced by Walwright recently, when a rather confident claimant seemed to be enjoying some support to his cause. As a sleep-gypsy means to stay off the driver of having my streets infested with their devices, the traffic byway was changed to provide for one-hour parking on certain parts of Main Street. This worked very nicely. The council seemed satisfied that they were discharging their duty in controlling parking. The people who came to Walwright to spend their dollars were quite happy because they didn't have to keep feeding signals for dimes into meters and everything was happy because no effort was made to enforce the regulations.

Tax plan not ready for fall session

The telephone rang and kept on ringing, but the new report made no move to answer it.

"Why don't you answer the phone?" asked the boss irritably.

"Well, I will if you like," replied the typist, shrugging her shoulders, "but it seems silly. It's bound to be for you, none of my friends know I'm here yet."

"It is certainly a fact when I married you," said the boss, "I gave you some dating, but I was so infatuated at the time that I didn't notice it."

A bridegroom is a fool who just paid his money for his wife.

I met my wife in a travel bureau, she was looking for a vacation, and I was the last man.

"Yes, that's what I did when we married you," said the boss, "I gave you some dating, but I was so infatuated at the time that I didn't notice it."

"I'm sorry," said the typist, "but I was so infatuated at the time that I didn't notice it."

CAPITAL REPORT

Tax plan not ready for fall session

The House of Commons has a special bill which will amend the Income Tax Act, but it is not ready to be introduced in the Legislature until after the fall session.

Last spring the government all but promised a member would be held this fall to implement the revolutionary industrial tax redistribution scheme and the municipal tax on pipelines and power lines.

But now, from all indications, it looks as though the parliamentary procedure won't be completed in time. If this happens a special session called this fall, it would be fairly late and would slow down the start of the next session in February.

So the revenue in government thinking that it might be just as well to wait until the regular 1950 session in hopes of having the government done and being able to rush the legislation through with a little delay as possible. Minister Arthur Meighen all kinds said it will take three or four more months before the provincial municipal advisory committee and representatives of industry before the actual demonstration effect of the taxation procedure can be determined.

Meanwhile, the municipal affairs department session plan is continuing to work on a conference committee of major industrial plant, pipelines and power lines which will report after the next session.

It is the outcome of the taxation talks that the House of Commons will have to wait. The plan of the government is to have a special session called this fall, it would be fairly late and would slow down the start of the next session in February.

By PASTOR HUB

In a news dispatch from Washington, several news correspondents were quoted as saying that Walter T. Rucker of the Chicago Tribune, on being informed of the death of the President, "traveled far from his home in Chicago to see the body of the President."

The habit of reacting for his Bible, the correspondent goes on to say, dates back to the President's boyhood days, when his mother taught him, reading the Bible to him in order to read the Bible whenever his temper got the best of him.

Several things about this thoroughly human story interested me, as was the way the President's mother, a good Christian woman, handled the situation. Of course we can never be sure of the truth per by the Jefferson use of the step — and there are times when

Vol. 8 Edison, Alberta, Thursday, September 22, 1960 M. 3

MRS. BESSIE GOLDSYCK has consented to run for one of the four Council seats in the forthcoming municipal election. A long-time Edison resident, Mrs. Goldsyck has taken an active interest in community affairs.

JOHN SCOTT has consented to let his name stand for election to the Edison Council we learned this week. Prominent in local Chamber of Commerce affairs, Mr. Scott is keenly interested in town problems.

The following information is directed to persons who plan to throw their hats in the local political race:

A candidate for Mayor or Town Council must be 21 years of age or over 2 be a resident of the Town 3 be a Canadian citizen or British subject 4 be able to read and write in the English language 5 have his name on the voters list 6 be a property owner 7 have his name on the assessment roll of the Town in respect of land fully exempt from taxation in the Town 8 be a person of good character and of the value of one hundred dollars and over and no other liens and incumbrances affecting same 9 be not otherwise disqualified; 10 sign a statement of acceptance of the nomination.

For the third time in the four year old history of the North Western Baseball League, the MacKay Braves reign as the league champions and for the third time in as many years, the Edison Athletics have bowed out to the same Braves in the playoffs finals.

Last Sunday, September 18 at Edison's Memorial Ball Park, the ever strong Braves captured the North Western Pulp and Paper Trophy, which is symbolic of NWBL supremacy, when they turned back the losing Edison Athletics by scores of 9-2 and 6-5 to win the best-of-five final series three games to one. Edison won the series opener 20-7 with MacKay winning the second and last.

Along with the NWP&P trophy, comes the Canadian Coachways (Whitcourt) Lid trophy and a cheque for $100.00 from the same firm. These two new league donations will be presented to Andy Shand, coach and manager of the MacKay team on Saturday, October 1st when baseball personalities and players gather at a league banquet.

Edison and MacKay, after sidelining Mayerthorpe and Whitecourt in the semifinals, opened their best-of-five series at MacKay.

The series' third and fourth games switched to Edison and if you were among the four hundred or so fans on hand for the set, you know the rest of the story.

MacKay, besides taking advantage of sloppy infield and outfield plays by the home-town Athletics came up with some good defensive ball and the clutch base knocks when needed to end the final

Certainly a big key in MacKay's fine showing was pitcher Charlie Gallagher who pitched 18 innings of baseball against Edson as Andy Shand was minus three of his other chucks. Sid Deane, Fred Solinski and Bert Zilinsky, Cal-

NDY SHAND without whom the ackKey Braves could not do so

Word was received by Marlowe Wells, that in recognition of her high academic achievement in grade XIII, the Queen Elizabeth School Board has awarded her with a scholarship valued at $250.

This was not surprising to hear as Marlowe has won all four scholarships offered in the Edison district for the four past years. This is the first time that this has happened in the Edison District. Marlowe's average for the past year was an average of 90 per cent, which is the highest average ever to be obtained in Edison's High School.

Marlowe's class of 1930 will all be of the most active people in the high school, this year trip is to the U.N. in New York as a prize for winning the 1930 BOOP Inter-Schools oratorical contest.

As for the Students' Union executive for several years, served on the year book staff, was a cheerleader, and was a member of the Glee Club. There are only a few of these. The rest Marlowe has relinquished by Edison High School boards, has Marlowe has left for the University of Alberta and is working to obtain a B. degree in Nursing.

With the resignation of Councillors M. D. Meade and W. R. Brunelle as of Saturday noon, there are now four vacancies to be filled on the Town Council. Mr. Meade has announced his intention of standing for the position of Mayor, and Mr. Brunelle is now eligible for the nomination, but has not made an announcement as yet.

For the four Council vacancies Mrs. Beessie Goldstick and Jon Scott have definitely indicated they will stand for election. At least six other Edison citizens have indicated that they are prepared to let their names stand, but prefer to wait until after nomination day, September 28 before confirming their candidacy.

It has been some years since local politics have been so all-pervading in street corner, coffee corner and home. Do the citizens want some "new blood" on the Council or would it be better to re-elect those candidates who have had previous Council experience. These are the questions being asked by the ratepayers of their neighbors and themselves.

Interest high in town affairs

There can be no other interpretation of the large number of possible Mayor and Council candidates being talked up around town this week than that Edson is fortunate to have so many citizens willing to devote their time to town affairs.

At the time of writing there appears to be two possible candidates for the Mayor's seat and anywhere up to ten or more interested in the four Council vacancies. The tasks of a mayor of a growing town such as Edson are demanding. Slightly less ones are the Councilor positions. Any citizen who offers his services to be is congratulated. It is very important that elections for Council seats should be held. Acclamations are not a sign of a healthy municipality.

One of the biggest headaches a practically new Council will have to face is the shocking demand being made on property owners by rising school costs. Whether the upsurge of demands from other municipalities for the Provincial Government to assume 90 per cent of school costs will be acted on this year, or whether it will be put off for just before a provincial election, can make quite a difference as to whether or not the new council will be financially embarrassed again.

In the work of a brief presented to the Provincial Government by former Mayor W. H. Kankiewicz, I have you will agree that any Council has shown a real concern in not increasing to create even a slight improvement in required municipal services in any one of the four areas, in extension to the sewage system to serve two residential and an industrial area.

Only to be disappointed that the most rapid rate held at 17 mills. However this time cannot be held indefinitely and it is apparent that only a relief is otherwise found or a reduction is achieved in the excessive burden of school rates an increase in our tax key rate is inevitable.

We gather by inference from our former Mayor's remarks that in his opinion our citizens, who in the past got along on modest incomes and pensions, can not be relied on to finance capital works programs that are pressing needs. The possibility is that higher school rates might force a reduction in the small amount of local improvements being made each year. That of the 65 mills levelled new 4 mills, so far hospitalization and for school and 17 to run the town.

If municipal services are to be increased in this town without greater burden on local taxpayers, then some of the school costs must be paid from some other source. In the last several years less than 50 per cent of school costs have been paid by the government, while a few years ago Edson School Division received grants of as high as 70 to nearly 80 per cent. There were called "equalization grants." Now, after our school division assessment increased with the coming of the pulp mill, there are practically no equalizing grants, so the result has been actually increased taxes for school for Edson taxpayers.

Town's which do not belong in a school division find their school costs are about $224.00 per pupil. Edson's per pupil cost this year is estimated at $217.49. This is not to say that we advocate Edson pulling out of the school division. We do emphasize that people of modest means and that includes most of us are being burdened with taxes on our property that promises only to get heavier.

The views of our municipality and council candidates on this problem will be interesting to hear at the public forum being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in the Legion Hall, Tuesday evening, October 11.

DUCK HUNTING DAZE ON

BY BEN MASON

EDMONTON — This is the time of year when duck hunting is in full swing. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water.

What we mean to say is that the duck hunting season has arrived. You can see it. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water.

Like most things, the arrival of duck hunting season has been delayed. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water.

Where's That Depression?

By ANDREW HILLS

A year ago, most of the pundits were predicting a serious recession or even a depression here in Canada. But we have been fortunate. Things have continued to pull along at a pretty fast clip.

What we mean to say is that the duck hunting season has arrived. You can see it. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water. The ducks are in the water.

WITH THE CHURCHES

THROUGH THE Study Window

By Rev. C. C. Armstrong

Those who attended the presentation of the drama "You're Mine" came away with a much better understanding of our western Canadian life, and the change around the church. They came away, also, impressed by the excellent quality of the acting. It was a pleasure to see the young people of the church, and the quality of the acting. It was a pleasure to see the young people of the church, and the quality of the acting.

Winter works projects being planned by town

What types of winter work projects should be applied for were discussed at the regular meeting of the Edson Council Tuesday evening. Under the new set-up announced by the Federal and Provincial governments winter works to relieve seasonal unemployment can now be started as early as October 15.

The Dominion pays 50 per cent and the Province 25 per cent of the labor involved in these projects.

Edson projects suggested include: a sewer extension along 49th Street between 1st and 2nd Avenues; construction of a sand house at the Town yard; in addition to the works garage; swimming pool lockers; cemetery and public clearing; a storage building at the cemetery; picnic tables; a water line for a proposed wedding pool at the swimming pool; Memorial Park ground-level improvements, with public restrooms. A program of acquiring crushed and fill gravel on a scale similar to last year's program was also discussed.

The Council decided to call for tenders for the covering of the skating rink roof. The town's consulting engineers, Haddad, Davis & Brown will supervise this work. The capital recreational grant from the Provincial Five Year Plan is expected to arrive the end of this project.

Present at the meeting were Mayor P. W. Wells and Councilors W. F. Kortman, W. Mac Donald and L. A. Hahn.

Mr. Donald Knapp addressed the Council on behalf of Edson City. He said that the town is in a position to accept the Provincial Five Year Plan grant for the construction of a new swimming pool and the improvement of the existing pool.

A letter from Edson Chamber of Commerce recommending the removal of all signs at the East and West approaches of the Town was read. It was moved that the recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce be accepted by the Council.

The Council approved because of the location of the Town in the Town of Edson. The Council also approved the removal of all signs at the East and West approaches of the Town.

Letter from Councilor W. B. Haddad dated September 15, submitting his resignation as Councilor of the Town of Edson was read. Councilor Haddad's resignation was accepted with regret.

Edson of issue on Sept 18 to 20. Haddad is in charge of the Town of Edson. The Council also approved the removal of all signs at the East and West approaches of the Town.

Two injured in accident

A little Renault sports car ran off Highway 16 at the intersection and into the ditch on Tuesday night, Sept. 13 about 8 p.m. injuring the driver and a female passenger.

The occupants were thrown from the car into the ditch. Both were rushed to the St. John's Hospital in Edson.

The driver Mr. William Colman, 35, of 10 St. John's Street, received a broken ankle, a broken arm and bruises and was suffering from shock. Miss Patricia Davis of Edson received a broken arm and bruises and was suffering from shock.

Full check fees were set at $15 for the forthcoming election day. Letter from Mr. Paul Gossie re opening the Edson Library and the new road and Secretary was discussed in reply. Mrs. H. Gossie's address and question of Council regarding the road was discussed.

Council's approval was granted to the Edson Library. The Edson Library is now open and the new road is now open. The Council also approved the removal of all signs at the East and West approaches of the Town.

The Council also approved the removal of all signs at the East and West approaches of the Town. The Council also approved the removal of all signs at the East and West approaches of the Town.

FLAMES THAT BROKE OUT ABOUT 3:00 Sunday afternoon gutted the inside of Red's General Store and threatened the surrounding buildings. Quick, efficient action by Edson's Volunteer Fire Department saved the city and brought the flames under control in the store. Considerable fire damage was suffered on the stock owned by Mr. Red.

FLAMES FROM A BACK ROOM spread into Red's General Store and this view shows some of the water and fire stained stock.

PAUSING IN A BUSY ROUND of getting their new building ready for its October 1st opening, Charlie Wudel and Stan Bronson, owners of Delson Tire Services Ltd. were soon off about the hundred-and-some things that were yet to be done for their October first opening.

Delson Tire Shop holding open house this Saturday

The dream of a business of their own is a brand new, tailor-made building will be a reality for Stan Bronson and Charlie Wudel this Saturday when they open the doors of their new tire shop and welcome friends from Hinton, Edson and Jasper to help them celebrate the occasion.

Keeping it a family affair, brothers-in-law Charlie and Stan have been busy getting things lined up while their new premises lack of the Fabric-Care building, was in the process of being constructed.

The building is of concrete block construction with plenty of windows in the working area in the back. The office and shop front faces Pembina Avenue with viewing to display case windows looking out across the square.

According to tire companies who will be supplying the stock for Delson, the new building is one of the best laid out and equipped in northwestern Alberta.

Delson, a combination of the two partners' names, will carry a brand of tires and a good selection of accessories. Works means art in the shop will be Mr. Wudel who brings more than four years of experience in the tire business. Stan will look after the rubber goods in the front shop and the care of the bookkeeping end of the partnership.

Kinteen to re-organize

After a successful term last year the Kinteen group are starting the year off right by opening a "Harvest Supper" for the High School, (Lakeland), Friday, September 20 at 8:30 p.m.

During the intermission the organizations will enter a new date. It offers for the 1968-69 season. The "renewal" means, don't miss this as it is shaping up to be something BIG.

so many model A's in one night — just show us a new car rolling smoothly along with a license the size of a postage stamp. Maybe it's a fact but whatever the reason, the Model A is on the road again.

Arriving in Edson recently we met a lone youth in a Model A chugging along the highway. The old car looked even more beat up than usual but it must have had a few hours left under the hood, because it promptly displayed a B.C. license. Through the misty windows, we could see stacks of camping gear, suit cases and what have you, as we were convinced the young man at the wheel was on a vacation.

After he resumed his work with the Carrot Creekers Sunday morning and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fawcett returned to their residence on the 19th Avenue following Sunday off the job.

Lowie Thomas spent the week end at the home of his good friend, Allan Shantz, Sunday afternoon at 11:30 a.m. Mr. and Mrs. Shantz were joined by Don and Mary Sunday afternoon at 11:30 a.m.

We called at the Holitz farm Monday evening just in time to polish off a plate of Chicken left over from the preceding evening. Actually we anticipated this bit of good fortune as today, mouthwatering meals and thoroughgoing hard to find.

Thorley Duvette and Mrs. Chart enjoyed a drive out Westcoast way Wednesday and called at Martin Luther camp during the afternoon.

MAD'S THE WORD

Teen and Herd

Let's all get out and have a roaring time at the Kinteen dance this Friday. It will be the first meeting of the Kinteen club and the new executive will be elected.

Bag has left his old home for Mrs. Shantz. Why? For to see the seven.

After to see Kinteen and Linda back for the weekend, shortly!

A few ambitious students were so wrapped up in their work and thoughts, they ran into the school leaving their car doors open.

Circle can do amazing things with other people's faces, especially on paper.

The reason why we get to this is to do the thing. Remember to do the thing. Remember to do the thing.

Market Outlook - Beef Cattle
In the cattle market the steady rise of U.S. prices continues to play a supporting role in a market. However, the fact that the substantial increase in domestic consumption of beef is the U.S. market for the rest of the year, as well as an increase of four per cent in cattle on hand and the expectation that U.S. farmers will increase their marketing by six per cent in the current quarter over last year's U.S. prices are likely to cause downward after the end of 1960 but no sharp drops are anticipated.

In Canada, with increased slaughter since January up to 20 per cent increase has been reported and exports of cattle and beef down 20 per cent, a 15 per cent increase in domestic consumption has kept the market in balance. This increase in consumption is related to current factors. Lower prices have widened the demand for beef and a substantial increase is expected in the near future.

Canadian Mental Health branch organized here

A Canadian Mental Health Association branch was organized here last week. The meeting was held in the Edson City Building and a very good representation of the organizations and people interested in this work were present.

Representing the Northern Alberta region of the C.M.H.A. were Mr. Geo. McFarlane, psychiatric social worker and treasurer of the Northern Alberta regional board, Mr. C. M. C. Smith, executive director C.M.H.A., Northern Region, and Mrs. Norma O'Brien, supervisor of the Edson White Cross Centre's rehabilitation project for mental patients.

They discussed the problem for a patient who has been in a mental hospital or has been taking psychiatric treatment, the help that could be given morally and spiritually to encourage a patient to go into society prepared to meet the everyday challenges that would be confronted with the assistance of the community.

The Edson branch for the time being would coordinate education of programs between the various organizations, to stimulate interest in the work of the Canadian Mental Health Association.

SUCCESS is provision for future in the later years!

Have you provided for your future? One of the smartest things about success is being able to meet the years ahead... to know that when the time comes to retire, you will be able to enjoy the comfort income you so richly deserve. But one kind of income can't be counted on to give you peace of mind and a happy life. It's a good feeling to know that both your financial future and that of your family are secure under a...
How about you? If you don't have enough provision for your future, you can't be sure because you don't have enough LIFE INSURANCE with valuable savings features. Look into it. Your LIFE INSURANCE man is a most important person to talk to as you plan your future.

The regular September dinner of the new local Lions Club was held in the Chambray Hotel banquet room with President Paul Jacobs in the chair.

Various entertainers were set up and some of the coming winter activities were outlined. After the closing of the meeting Lions Club members enjoyed the movie with the first of a series of travel films taken in Vancouver and the Hawaiian Islands.

These films, which were made to assist really blind people to travel, were shown to the club members and the regular meeting on October 7.

Shipments of salmon from Canadian waters rose 13.9 per cent in 1959 to 1,286,768 tons.

THE HOMEWORK
 ALL DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
 "THE HOMEWORK" BY J. W. SMITH
 (Author)

Just, certainly, it should be considered as a study aid. Correct lighting should be used. Get out your reading lamp and check some measurements with you. The key lighting for most things doing homework is a soft and gentle light for the whole room with added light for the work area. The light should be at the level of the student's head and the amount of light should produce visual comfort.

There are the measurements that you should have when the student is at specific positions. At the dining table or desk when the lamp is in front of the child minimum distance is 18 inches from table top to shade bottom, similarly at a desk where there are two lamps, currently placed 20 inches apart. The shade should be fairly dense, a cover in a light but not strong color.

Edson ski club improving slopes on new park

Members of the Edson Ski Club were out in force last Sunday improving their ski skills in Wetmore Park, in preparation for their annual ski race. Weather permitting, park two will be out every Sunday afternoon for the next few weeks, and all skiers are invited to join in the work. Persons interested should see Weldon Taylor or Bud Gigg.

Membership in the Edson Ski Club was greatly increased last winter, as the "ski bug" got in the young and old. The present slopes are being improved and new runs planned to provide for the new interest in skiing.

AME AND MRS. H. THALEN ON THEIR 50th wedding anniversary which they celebrated with friends and relatives in Glenora hall last Wednesday. Coming from the Netherlands in 1932 to visit their children who had left earlier the tender Thalens liked Canada so well they decided to stay. They have a potato and vegetable farm at Wolf Creek with their sons. Both are 71 years of age this year. Besides two married sons and three married daughters in Canada as well as 21 grandchildren, they have two children, one son and a daughter, still in Holland.

Some suggesting changes

When only three out of 100 students in the district are writing their Grade XII or university at Haultain school, parents and teachers hold a public meeting to discuss the matter. Addressed at that meeting, the following:

1. No student is permitted to discuss class, no meeting by students on school property, teachers' instructions to be obeyed, no arguments to be conducted on time and in the school by the teacher.
2. Proper clothing to be worn by students already under consideration by the school board.
3. Teachers to treat students as adults and prefects and seniors that students believe as such. (We hear a food raspberry for this one, but it is surely worth the effort.)

4. Eliminate dances for Junior high school students. These dances are supposed to develop "social graces" among Grade 7 and 8 pupils but it is highly doubtful that they do so and in any case there are enough dances at work today putting the child beyond his years without forcing another on him.
5. High school dances and parties to be held in a minimum and dancing and dating of students to be considered an extra-curricular activity to take place outside school hours. None but 18-year-olds and better students be allowed to attend. (One reader suggested dating only with good money graduates!) In any case, parents to take their responsibility and not to be ridiculous about prohibition parties.

6. Principals and teachers to be instructed to send a detention note any student who breaks rules and CALS, HIS PARENTS TO THE SCHOOL. This would considerably increase the percentage of students who are sent to the principal. In any event, the suggestion put forward represent an honest attempt to greatly concerned parents to make school house and teachers to the realization of their hopes for their youngsters. —Lester Representative

Emelia Routhier October 1 bride of Theodore Batog

HINTON—The Lady of the Possibilities Roman Catholic Church, the bride of Theodore Batog, was married on Saturday, October 1, 1960, at 2:30 p.m. The bride, Emelia Routhier, 21, of Hinton, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Routhier, 1000 10th St. N. The groom, Theodore Batog, 21, of Hinton, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Batog, 1000 10th St. N. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Fr. J. J. Batog, pastor of the church. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a long train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and a small basket of flowers. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt. The ceremony was held in the church's sanctuary, which was decorated with white flowers and greenery. The bride and groom were joined by their parents and other family members. The reception was held at the church's reception hall. The bride and groom were surrounded by their friends and family members. The ceremony was a beautiful and memorable event.

Midnight fire quickly under control
The Hinton Fire Department were called out about 1 a.m. Sunday to put out what could have been a bad fire in the recent fire house.

A number of the Police Department, on a routine check of the area, discovered smoke rising from the building and hurried to the scene. The fire department arrived on the scene in time to keep the fire from spreading. The fire was quickly brought under control by the fire department. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Blissfully Yours —

By ALICE HOLLINGTON

I have heard them speak of blissfully "like my mother used to be" I have heard them tell of cozies, apple pie and angel cake; but for good old Joe in cooking, where the honey must be fed, it's just like some homemade butter and a loaf of mother's bread.

There was honey must be in the mixing and the kneading of the dough. There was care used in the watching that the fire burned just so. There was hearty attention when the hot loaves, golden-brown from the oven to the table and there turned them upside down.

Then the pressed them with white butter-knives, sides and tops and ends.

And to see them there cooking, was like greeting old time friends. And I'd give a baker's dozen of the loaves which I now enjoy. For a bit of homemade butter and a loaf of mother's bread.

Last week I mentioned that the best time to plant is in the fall. Now the question is which kind of plants to plant. The answer is to plant what you like to eat. This is the best time to plant what you like to eat. This is the best time to plant what you like to eat.

There is nothing so good as a good growing bulb. Prepare, as for all plants, a hot bed for the fall. This is the best time to plant what you like to eat. This is the best time to plant what you like to eat.

Many failures occur through one little bit of carelessness. One usually uses a trowel or a spade to plant a bulb. This is the best time to plant what you like to eat. This is the best time to plant what you like to eat.

The Agricultural Soil and Fertilizer Laboratory, set up in 1952 is a cooperative effort by the University of Alberta and the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Since that time over 1,000 soil samples from all parts of Alberta have been tested annually. The soil tests are designed to give indication of fertility status of soils and to assist in making fertilizer recommendations. They cannot evaluate land in terms of soil pH or nutrient value. Copies of the booklet may be obtained at the University of Alberta in Edmonton Department, Edson.

Largest vote in Edson history

The largest vote in Edson's history was run up Wednesday night when the returns showed that 653 town voters cast their ballots as follows:

FOR MAYOR:
W. R. Brunelle 620
M. D. Maude 33

Spotted ballots 10

FOR COUNCILLORS
P. W. Wells 522
Frank Resek 456
Jim Scott 384
W. R. Mills 376
Walden Taddy 350
Mrs. Rena Goldrick 322
J. E. Griffiths 304
Adrian Marti 256
John Hook 206

Spotted ballots 19

SECRETARY-MANAGER BY-LAW
For 550
Against 384

EDSON DISTRICT SCHOOL TRUSTEES:
(Elected by acclamation)
M. A. Collins 3 years
R. Gaskin 3 years
J. T. McManis 1 year

The record vote is an indication of the interest created by nine council candidates and two mayoralty candidates who all actively presented ideas for the ratepayers to approve.

High men Councillors Wells and Resek will serve for the full three years and Councillor Scott will serve two years and Councillor Mills for one year. The two extra vacancies were created this year when former Councillors Brunelle and Maude resigned to contest the mayoralty.

The favorable vote for the by-law now means that the Council can change the position of Secretary-Treasurer of the town (Continued on Page 6)

Do slates appeal to the voters?

Watching the counting of the ballots last night we were struck by the thought that probably slates don't appeal to the voters. There were less than a hundred who voted for the four man slate for council as such. The majority ballot, being separate, did not show the complete slate, but presumably anyone voting the slate voted for Mayor Brunelle as well.

This is not the first time a slate has been tried in Edson. A try was made in the 1949 election and only one member of it received the nod, so was the case this election. Councillor Mills who made the top four was edged very closely by non-slates Walden Taddy and Mrs. Rena Goldrick and state-man Jim Griffiths. State-men Adrian Marti and Jack Hook were missed most often as the vote showed. The position on the ballot may have had some bearing on the slates as the voter headed down the long ballot to vote for favorite Percy Wells. Position has been found to be important in big city ballots and quite often the names are rearranged every hundred or two to give each candidate the advantage of top and bottom position.

IMPORTANT CITIZENS

We were writing this Wednesday afternoon before the results of the election are known. We are not so rash as to try and predict how the will of the local citizens will be shown at the polls. Whoever is chosen to serve will assume a little more stature and those who have offered to serve will have done what good citizens should do. That is offer their services to their town.

This makes two categories of good citizens in a town — those willing to give their time and ability and those citizens who are interested enough in their town to look at the issue raised and put out and vote. Good citizens should be able to do both.

The small town has a practical, and even essential, need for the preservation of democracy and freedom in Canada. The very small village could probably have a bit more of a role in the future. The small town has a role every year. It has problems that can be tackled by alert, conscientious, small town people, willing to act on behalf and for the town.

One of the reasons why small towns get bigger is that there is more a tendency for the larger small towns to offer goods, services and recreational services on a par with the big neighboring city. This offers to some degree the trend of cities to grow bigger and bigger as more and more industries locate around them.

We admit we're prejudiced, but we feel sorry for the big city small towns. The man in a small town can be at his work in a few minutes, while others get home to lunch. In this area especially, he can be fishing or hunting in a few minutes after he has finished work at the end of the day. He quite often has a better home for less money. His social life is at least as good as (we think better) than the city.

But most important, he personally knows the people who serve in his local municipal bodies. He can drop him in the street and tell him that so and so much is plugged up and so on. The local citizen may be hard put at election time to try and pick the better of his neighbors to represent him. It is his choice and one worth preserving by constant interest in town affairs.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I came across this article in a U.S. trade magazine.

What Good Does Your Vote Do?

Frequently you hear this question. What good will my vote do? Well, my vote has a lot to do with a lot of things in this country.

Think of the things that are decided by one vote in the election of a Congressman.

John Quincy Adams.

Richard B. Hayes was elected president by one vote in the election of 1876.

And it was referred to as an electoral commission.

Again he was by a single vote.

The man who cast that vote was a Congressman from Indiana, a lawyer who was just elected to Congress by a margin of just one vote.

And that vote was cast by a client who, though disappointed, still believed in taking the vote to the polls.

Just one vote gave statehood to California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas, and Washington.

And that vote was cast by a client who, though disappointed, still believed in taking the vote to the polls.

PROVINCIAL POLITICAL SCENE QUINTESENT

By KEN MASON

ALBERTA — It is hard to imagine the Alberta political scene being any more quiet and serene than it is at the moment. The next provincial general election is a good two and a half years or more away. Premier Manning's government is about as secure as it ever has been with all 43 seats in the House, and it still has not yet started getting serious about federal election.

The only event coming up which may cause a little excitement is a by-election expected to be held in the late fall or early winter in the central Alberta riding of Didsbury. J. L. Owens, the Social Credit member for Didsbury, died late in September. Under the Electoral Act, his riding must have representation during the next session of the Legislature, as a by-election must be held for it.

Didsbury has always been a fairly safe Social Credit seat, so it is highly likely the voters will return another government supporter. On the other hand a by-election always gives the protest voters a chance to express their disapproval with the government, if they have any, without any danger of defeating the government. And in view of Premier Manning's overwhelming victory in the last general election there's no need to change the thinking unless they decide they should provide the province with a more liberal government.

Now and then, Alberta is in the political doldrums. The Liberal and Conservative provincial parties are inactive and still in the shadows of their slumping fortunes. They are doing little or nothing to keep the people's mind on the issues of the day.

There's a lot of noise being made about the Alberta Power Profits Uncontrolled?

By HENRY TOWSE

ALBERTA — It is very interesting to read about the recent celebration at Lac La Poudre on the occasion of the opening of the town's new municipal office. The celebration was held on the occasion of the opening of the town's new municipal office. The celebration was held on the occasion of the opening of the town's new municipal office.

Lac La Poudre is certainly to be congratulated on the occasion of its people who own their own gas utility and as well benefit by all the savings and surplus money instead of paying tribute to the big interests on every foot of natural gas they use.

It is very nice too that Premier Manning and our Provincial Treasurer took time out to attend this function and to tell the local citizens that while the government believes in private enterprise they have no objection to people doing something for themselves.

However in his speech Mr. Manning reported to have referred to the wonderful job being done by the private utility companies in Alberta on the basis of the fact that their profits are held down by the Board of Public Utilities.

This is a very misleading statement and in a larger extent entirely false. As far as the gas utilities are concerned, each of them can possibly be made, but the experience of Edmonton and other cities in recent years indicates that the Board is not doing a very effective job of control.

However if we look into the matter of electrical rates in Alberta we find no evidence of control at all.

How Calgary Power and a couple of other companies dominate the scene, setting rates that they see fit. Edmonton Power is being held and the Utilities Board has been able to protect the public. Since there has never been an investigation of power rates in Alberta, the Board has had to rely on the fact that the rates are reasonable and the financial statements of the power companies tell a story of profitability.

There is no doubt that the Board is doing a very effective job of control.

Let us take the case of Calgary Power, the daddy of them all. It is a subsidiary of Montreal Power Inc. It is controlled by a handful of shareholders who are completely unaware of the public interest.

In 1947 the 350,000 shares of Calgary Power Company stock were valued at $25.00 per share. Since that time there has been a steady rise in the value of the stock. It is now valued at $100.00 per share. This is a very significant increase in the value of the stock.

WITH THE CHURCHES

As I See It

By PATTINSON
A recent series of newspaper articles about the increasing number of successful businessmen who will go to the churches to find their spiritual needs met.

The author, Robert K. Robinson, was concerned with the fact that many businessmen are so preoccupied in winning financial success that they are willing to sell their very lives for the rewards that they never receive.

The businessman is "too often willing himself to produce a better world for his wife and children to enjoy," the articles state. But this, up they must realize that nearly a million Americans work a year "half themselves" just to satisfy as if they jumped into the East River, played Russian roulette or swallowed poison. And they said that five times as many men die from heart attacks as did twenty five years ago.

The argument is a telling one. No one in his right mind would barter years from his life for a larger salary. It is recognized that he will never live to enjoy the wealth that he gains in return. But what of the man who gives his whole life into the task of making money and neglects his spiritual needs? He is the man who has prepared for the life to come in the name of receiving the gift of salvation but who refuses to make all his deposits in every day good only to this moment.

Remember our Lord's parable in Luke 20 about the rich man who pulled down his barns and built greater ones? There is comparison as well as condemnation in the judgement of God who says, "Thus far, this night the soul shall be required of him, when shall these things be, which thou hast provided?"

There is still more important consideration. This life is not all life measured by God. A life well lived is of fellowship with Him. He entered in the way of those that pursue eternal money filled but emptiness separation from the God who made us here. If you have not your spiritual needs met, you are not prepared to enjoy your earth life's adventures.

The latest issue of the United Church Observer features an article on "What Every Christian Should Know about Marriage."

It points out that in marriage, there purposes are fulfilled for the welfare of the individuals concerned and of society.

Marriage is a union of two persons in perfecting as they live together as one in unity and thus become such other as husband and wife, help and love, share life's joys and sorrows.

Procreation continues the sacred activity of God and fulfills the spiritual and physical longings of the natural needs of a husband and wife in the beginning of children. (Gen. 1:28)

Personal responsibility is best fulfilled and family life is enriched as both parents share in the care and upbringing of their children as a divine vocation. (Eph. 6:4)

The report covers a wide variety of themes: birth control, abortion, artificial insemination, adoption, education for Christian marriage, sexual abuse, incest, divorce, remarriage, and remarriage. It also discusses the responsibilities of the church in relation to the family.

Perhaps at this point, people will ask a question that has been asked by the church: How does one marry a woman who is not a Christian? This problem was faced and the report states that the church must help to establish moral and healthy relationships for couples.

Presumably this means such things as: counseling, premarital counseling, and the like. But it need hardly be mentioned, he believes, that the church has a role to play in helping those who are in the midst of a difficult situation, rather than those who are the church and would not want any interference from "outsiders." A good many people seek a lawyer or a doctor before they will come to a clergyman. In particular way, however, the church can take the initiative that is through preparation spiritually, morally and in every other way, through prayer and participation of the congregation.

TO START WINDFALL ROAD SOON

The Edson Leader

The Voice of Edson Constituency

Vol. 8 Edson, Alberta, Thursday October 27, 1960 No. 43

Really big industry difficult to attract

Really big industry is difficult to attract to any town under 10,000 population. Les Holzman, district representative on the Industrial Development Committee for the province, told members of the Edson Chamber of Commerce at their regular meeting Wednesday night.

Mr. Holzman, of Markham, Ontario, was leading a discussion on the possibilities of Edson district as a testing industry. Smaller industries can be attracted through and gradually a community grows to a point where big industry starts having a look at a town. This latter view was the consensus of opinion at the recent Industrial Development seminar held for the provincial body at Edmonton.

Much of the meeting was projected from the point of view of the cities said Mr. Holzman. There were also observers from industry, the utility companies and smaller centres.

One of the points discussed at the conference was the difficulty smaller businesses have in obtaining capital. This problem is to get further study by the board. Mr. Carl Rickles of Calgary, and Mr. Holzman, was one of the more interesting speakers at the seminar. He told on the possibilities of the oil and gas industry were staggering when referred to the area. In addition to the billion dollars spent in the last few years, as much more will be spent in the next five as was spent on the St. Lawrence river project.

Much can be done by the community who wants to attract big things is clearing up the old building signs on Edson's highway approaches and other distracting signs can make the town look more attractive, he said.

During the discussion several members of the Edson Chamber urged support of the industrial area nearby situated in the district. Among those mentioned were the dairy industry and the local bakery, which has been awarded for its quality bread.

Moose crosses highway into hunting season

A number of our local big game hunters, have already bagged their animals, but the hunting story is still one from Vancouver.

A hunter up that was watched a moose in the hunting zone with across a highway into an open area.

We don't suppose the moose ever knew what hit him, but the hunter would be quite proud of himself.

Mail to close 4 p.m. daily

Effective this Sunday, October 23, mail service at the Edson Post Office closes for Train No. 4, Edmonton and points beyond at 4 p.m. This change is due to a change in train schedule.

Building program needs discussed at school meeting

Mr. P. O'Hara, Supervisor of Construction reported on the progress of construction for the new classrooms being built at Nelson and Kewburg of the regular meeting of Edson School Division Board, Wednesday, Oct. 19 in the School Division board room. The findings are progressing at a satisfactory rate and the Board was advised of minor changes which have been made in construction to this date.

It is anticipated that the buildings will be completed by the contract date. Mr. O'Hara was asked to investigate and report at the next regular meeting the request of the Nelson School for a clock system to be incorporated into the present building program.

The chairman, Mr. A. W. Leun, called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. with the following resolves in attendance: Messrs A. L. Pank, J. H. Leun, G. Monna, H. Nishenko, H. N. Garland and A. W. Leunard, Trustees, Superintendent of Schools, A. B. Jordan, Assistant Superintendent, A. Kreslman, Superintendent of Works, P. E. O'Hara, Secretary, Treasurer, D. S. Bhandel, and Mr. B. A. Brierley, Teacher B. Brierley.

Fire Loss
Members were advised that the former explosion claims at Evansburg and Wilbroad have now been adjusted in the amount of $2,700. It was recommended that this adjustment be accepted with the Secretary being empowered to sign on behalf of the Division.

1961 Classroom Needs
Messrs M. D. Moore and D. M. Cullen met with the Board and discussed the probable classroom needs within the Town of Edson for this next year. There are a number of possible alternatives and the matter was referred to the Edson Local Board, School Principals and the Superintendent, Mr. Jordan, for investigation and recommendation to the Divisional Board.

Also discussed were the probable needs in the Wilbroad area with the matter being referred to the next regular meeting which will be held on page 5.

Clearing during winter construction in early Summer

A location line for a road linking up the Windfall area with the existing district road leading into Edson will be run very soon, a communication from the Hon. Norman Wilmore to President Paul Jacobs of the Edson Chamber of Commerce announced this week.

According to Mr. Wilmore the right-of-way on this location will be cleared this winter and construction will commence next spring or early summer.

The Minister also congratulated the Chamber on the excellent presentation made to the government by an Edson delegation two months ago requesting consideration of an Edson connection with the Windfall development.

The announcement was received with enthusiasm by Wednesday evening's banquet meeting of the Chamber. Approval of the road culminates representations for the Edson connection made over the past year or two since plant activity in the Windfall area was first started.

The biggest worry of local people has been that, through inactivity on an Edson road, the Whitescourt community would get the edge on Edson. Both communities are approximately the same distance from the centre of the projected development.

Presumably the early start on locating the line for the road and clearing will be undertaken under the terms of the winter work program. Funds for winter work are provided on a 50-25 percent basis on labor costs by the Federal and Provincial governments, in the case of municipally initiated projects. Presumably Federal help is available for Provincially initiated winter works as well.

The Weather Week Figures don't always prove anything

The following weather statistics were recorded by the Edson Meteorological Station during the past week.

To see many readers who point out that 478 votes for Mayor Beaudette and 383 votes for Mr. De Meade, plus 18 spoiled ballots don't add up to 861—we know it too! (Don't!)

The latest name of topographical error doesn't dispute the fact that we made a typesetting error. We did get the figure right in our story on the percentages voting we ran on the back page.

CONTRACTORS FOR THE NEW ARENA ROOF have lost no time as they take advantage of the fine Indian summer weather to put a new roof on the Edson Arena. Heavy tongue and groove lumber covered with heavy asphalt shingles will provide an insulating and weatherproof cover for the popular winter building. Cressy & Owen Construction Ltd. were the successful bidders on the $12,800.00 contract. Part of the recreational grant from the province will be used on the reroofing. Labor costs will qualify under the federal provincial winter works program.

Opt-Mrs Fashion Show draws appreciative audience

Shrew elegance in fur and new (other) fashions were modeled at the Opt-Mrs. fur fashion show Wednesday, Oct. 19. The audience was full and the show was warm and lively with the remainder of winter to very sleek on the attractive models who volunteered their time to make the fur show the success it was.

Mrs. Joyce Maclean played the background music while Mrs. Mary Kratzman commented in a cheerful, down-to-earth manner.

During the hour models a breath varied entertainment filled the afternoon. Kathy G. Small and a solo, Carole Field played an arrangement on her accordion and the Pauline Jones played a duet on their accordions. Mrs. Rose Moore presented a group of grade seven girls who sang two songs.

There were 12 lucky people who won the various door prizes.

The Opt-Mrs. Club will, it is thought, the local merchants for their donations, and all who helped in any way.

New Northern Affairs Minister at student meet

EDMONTON — Some 70 Albertans at University and high school student seminars attended western Canada's first student Public Affairs seminar in the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium here, sponsored by the Progressive Conservative Student Federation.

The seminar board was headed by Mr. Donald MacPhee, Minister of Northern Affairs and Natural Resources. Mr. Donald said Canada must create "economic" initiatives from the Soviet Union and Commonwealth nations (who) have recognized the importance of large scale and rapid development of their base resources. The new minister said Canada must develop northern resources immediately and extensively.

Ernest Watkins, M.A., address of the seminar's evening, hoped the seminar would help to bring the attention of governments and all government officials. "My own program is preferred to others."

In afternoon sessions students broke into four groups to discuss Education, National Defence, Foreign Affairs and Justice. A two-hour evening session ranged over topics not discussed during the afternoon.

Student Conservative president Joe Clark of High River said the seminar was designed "to discuss and criticize public affairs, and present a University student interest in politics." He said the seminar was enthusiastically received and will likely result in future seminars and in greater emphasis upon political discussion.

Presiding Witness going for course in Toronto

Mr. Martin Schwaner, presiding minister of the Edson congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, has been invited to the Canadian headquarters of the Watch Tower Society in Toronto for a month-long training course in January 1961.

He is one of four ministers from Northern Alberta and of 30 from across Canada, who have been selected for this program for advanced training in congregational leadership.

Before the congregation overviews of Jehovah's Witnesses of Canada will visit their local office and go through a rigid schedule of their study, door-to-door missionary improvement and leadership qualifications. Their off-hour schedule will include such things as the study of the Bible, taking the doors of the Canadian as serving terms in the kitchen as men's helpers and dishwashers.

Mr. Schwaner has been one of Jehovah's Witnesses since 1943. In 1950 he received the full-time ministry in Calgary where he was for six years.

After coming to Edson, Mr. Schwaner has been instrumental in building up local interest in the organization. In September they were over 40 brothers as well as sisters with the Edson congregation.

FATHER J. C. HAPMAN was "surprised" by a group of knights from Edson Sub-Council on Columbus Day two weeks ago. Local Knights and friends staged a "vigil" in Sacred Heart Parish basement complete with cake and candles as Father Hapman's birthday falls on Columbus Day. Elaborate precautions were made to see that Father Hapman was generously "surprised" by getting him out of town as preparations were made for the social. Leading Knight John MacDonald and organizer Jim "Steno" O'Dair flank their favorite padre as he finishes blowing out his candles. A very enjoyable affair was followed.

Vol. 8 Edson, Alberta, Thursday November 3, 1960 No. 43

Council to probe sewer disposal plant problem

The problem of the overloaded Town sewerage disposal plant caused its usually quiet at the first post-election Council meeting Monday night. The brisk meeting was chaired by Mayor W. B. Brunelle and attended by four new Councillors J. Scott, F. Neale, W. Mills and P. W. Wells, as well as continuing Councillors L. A. Mahon and W. F. Kortzman.

A letter from M. L. Hodge, Provincial Sanitary Engineer, referring to the conditions existing at the sewage disposal plant was read and indicated the engineer's opinion that the plant was badly overloaded.

Council decided to ask the Provincial Sanitary Engineer to visit Edson at his early convenience, examine the system and the general picture, and to discuss remedial proposals with the Council.

Present were Mayor W. B. Brunelle and Councillors W. F. Kortzman, L. A. Mahon, W. Mills, J. Scott, F. Neale and P. W. Wells. Mayor Brunelle and Councillors Mills, Neale, Scott and Wells duly filed their Oaths of Office as required by Section 40 of the Town and Village Act.

The following Committee as recommended by the Mayor were accepted, Finance and Town Hall, Wells, Scott, Kortzman, Neale and Brunelle; Health, Mills, Neale, Scott, Kortzman, Wells, Brunelle and Brunelle; Parks and Recreation, Mills, Neale, Scott, Kortzman, Wells, Brunelle and Brunelle; Planning and Development, Brunelle, Wells, Kortzman, Neale, Scott, Mills, Brunelle and Brunelle.

Councillor Kortzman was named Deputy Mayor until the first meeting in February.

The regular meeting of Council are to be held, as in the past, on the first and third Tuesday of each month, in the Civic Building, at 8:00 p.m.

Councillor Wells was appointed representative of the Council to the Edson School Division as provided in Section 26 subsection (2) of the Town and Village Act. Councillor Scott was appointed as representative in case Councillor Wells is unable to act.

Councillor Mahon was appointed as Town representative in the Edson Health Unit Board and the Edson Foundation Board. Councillor Neale was appointed as representative in case Councillor Brunelle is unable to act.

School patrols getting co-operation

A. H. Bain, grade six students are patrolling the intersection of 4th Ave. and 44th Street at noon and before and after school to see school children safety across the intersection.

The patrolmen are instructed to be polite and helpful. Co-operators have been very cooperative in clearing down when the patrolmen with their uniforms and equipment remind them that extra caution is necessary.

Stiffer sentences for sex offences

Charges brought before Magistrate Hallett this week included one of a very serious nature that involved a juvenile girl.

A local youth was charged with sexual intercourse with a juvenile girl aged 13 years. He was sentenced to two years, less a day, on this charge. The girl was taken to a party out of town where the lad who had brought her left her and came quietly this was at the mercy of people such as the defendant.

The Magistrate declared that offenders of this nature were becoming too prevalent and stiffer sentences would be imposed to act as a deterrent. A juvenile girl is now under the age of 18 years.

The lad who took the girl out to the party and left her there was fined $50 and costs as a charge of contributing.

The owner of the house received one year suspended sentence. A local youth who had been placed on suspended sentence he came involved in causing a disturbance, which was a breach of his recognizance, and was fined $200 and costs.

Another lad was fined $50 and costs for obtaining liquor while a minor.

Two other youths received $10 and costs and $10 and costs for obtaining liquor while a minor due to circumstances in these cases.

An interdict who had consumed some beer got 30 days in jail.

Youth Appreciation Week being organized in Edson

November 14 - 20, Youth Appreciation week activities sponsored by Optimist Club, being organized by Optimist Jim Hall, General Chairman for the Optimist Club of Edson.

Youth in Government, School, Religion, Business and Community. They are being planned for this week. These activities are being coordinated so that we as citizens of Edson might take a good look at our teenage population. Did you know that 50 per cent of our young people are not making the newspaper headlines? They are busy getting ready for tomorrow by taking an active interest in what is happening today.

Just in the observance of Youth Appreciation Week, November 14 to 20, sponsored by our local Optimist Club. Give our young people the pat on the back they so richly deserve.

Let us all recognize the accomplishments of youth in the home, school, church, and community.

Sat. is Poppy Day

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion will be selling the traditional poppies for Remembrance in Edson on Saturday.

Proceeds from the sale go to the Poppy Fund which has helped many a veteran's family to weather the winter storm.

50 bed chronic hospital announced for Edson

The announcement that Edson was to be the site for a 50 bed chronic hospital to supplement the senior citizens' home and our local St. John's Hospital was noted with enthusiasm by district people this week.

The results of six months of intensive planning were made known by Minister of Health Hon. J. Duggan Ross, M.D., as part of the auxiliary hospital plan that will, within the next number of years, provide 2,500 hospital beds for the treatment of the chronically ill in Alberta.

Edson has been chosen as the site for the hospital for complete hospitalization. The site for the hospital is located on the north side of the town. It will cost the province a great deal of money and will be a great asset, but it will prevent a particular challenge to the residents of the community. It is hoped that the voluntary organization in all communities will join in a common cause to insure that these hospitals as well as the Senior Citizens' Lodges in the various areas of Alberta are provided with adequate auxiliary help to insure the most efficient and comfortable and happy time as possible.

Edson oldtimer Mrs. A. Morris dies Tuesday

The community was saddened by the passing of Mrs. Agnes Morris on Tuesday, Nov. 9. A long time resident of Edson, Mrs. Morris was well known by Edson oldtimers. Funeral services will be held from the Sacred Heart Church on Friday morning at 10 a.m. The Rev. Fr. J. C. Nephew officiating.

Mrs. Morris was predeceased by her husband several years ago. She is survived by three sons, one of Calgary, one of Edmonton, and one of Lethbridge. She was a member of the St. Mary's Church and the St. John's Hospital.

Parkland Lodge officially opened

Edson home hooked up to province-wide ceremony

Wednesday afternoon the citizens of the District between Edmonton and the Rockies gathered around the open fireplace and filled the many lounge and recreation rooms at Parkland Lodge in taking part in the official opening of our senior citizens' home.

With radio speakers spaced throughout the building, the province-wide program originating in Westlock was first enjoyed. The Hon. A. J. Heek substituted for Premier Manning, due to illness, during which he called on the Government present an illuminated scroll to the Chairman of the Local Foundation L. A. Mahon.

Immediately following the radio broadcast a local opening program was held under the direction of Chairman L. A. Mahon as Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. C. C. Armstrong, Minister of Education, and Mr. C. C. Armstrong, Minister of Education, were the first to address the assembly. Mr. Armstrong was followed by Mr. C. C. Armstrong, Minister of Education, and Mr. C. C. Armstrong, Minister of Education.

Farmers to discuss Artificial Insemination

Artificial insemination will be discussed at a meeting for all interested farmers on Thursday, November 16, at 2 p.m. in the Prairies Community Hall.

Practical Lectures: Cattle Insemination, W. H. Ward, and P. H. Hume, Supervisor of Dairy Cattle Improvement, will be addressing the meeting. The first Agricultural R. C. Bucking has commenced.

It has been suggested by many farmers that an artificial insemination unit should be established at Prairies. Such a unit would serve as a model to all in the area.

Any further steps towards the unit will depend on the attendance and interest at the meeting. It is hoped that many will be interested in artificial insemination of their own herds.

Artificial insemination makes possible the raising of a herd of cattle without the necessity of having a bull. This is of particular value in the dairy industry where it is not desirable to have a bull in the herd.

Artificial insemination also makes possible the raising of a herd of cattle without the necessity of having a bull. This is of particular value in the dairy industry where it is not desirable to have a bull in the herd.

Day long H & S conference well attended

An all-day conference was held in the House and Senate chambers of the high school auditorium at Edson Saturday. Twenty-three persons from Edson were present.

Mrs. J. Stedman, chairperson, presided over the conference. The purpose of the day was to discuss the needs of the public in relation to the health of the community.

Mrs. Stedman pointed out that there is a real need for a better understanding of the health of the community. She said that the health of the community is the health of the nation.

Division decides on schools at Edson Wildwood, Cadomin

Due to expanding pupil population an eight room junior high school on a separate school site was thought necessary for Edison at the regular meeting of the Edison School Division Board held in No. 47 Wildwood school Nov. 17. A three room addition for the Wildwood school was recommended as well as a portable school for the Calamin pupils.

Advisor of Construction P. O'Hara reported that the Niten and Evansburg schools are now to the heating and electrical stage. As a result actual construction has slowed on the 1960 building program. Mr. O'Hara felt that both buildings would be completed within the tendered time.

Present at the meeting were Messrs A. L. Yanak, M. J. Sells, J. H. Lenton, C. M. Jones, W. E. Heford and J. Ward. Twelve Supervisors of Schools A to L and Assistant Superintendents J. A. Kruttschnitt, William F. Smith, Teacher Representative R. E. Hays, and the following members of the Board of Education: J. R. Blundell, M. C. Committee members, recommended and approved the action taken by the committee when the Board of Education held its regular board meeting to discuss problems forwarded to the Secretary by the individual trustees and individual citizens.

...all recommendations could then be discussed and approved in regular meeting minutes.

Truck fined for passing school bus

The screaming headlines in the papers all over the country were telling of the disaster of a school bus hitting a train in Lamont, when a local driver was being tried for passing a stopped school bus with a loaded pulp truck.

The school bus came to a stop at the first crossing east of Marlboro at 4:25 p.m. on November 23 to let out three students in grades 4, 5 and 6, when a loaded pulp truck rane around the stopped school bus. The children scattered to escape being hit and the bus driver tried to get a license number from the passing truck.

P8: Traffic from both directions must stop when a school bus is discharging its small passengers. Watch for the bus signal lights.

Greater efficiency planned for elementary grades

Assistant Superintendent of Schools A. Kraftmann of the Edison School Division was asked to be guest speaker at the last regular meeting of the Edison Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Kraftmann chose the occasion to announce an administration change in the Edison elementary school set-up. As the talk is of wide interest we take pleasure in printing his remarks in full.

You may think I'm free and confident, that a topic such as this seems a little divorced from the regular nature of a Chamber of Commerce program and that business men and professional people of this town are perhaps more directly concerned with money than that of the organization of elementary schools in Edison. Let me begin on the address by pointing out to all present that this is a definite stake in the town. We must build a definite stake in our town, our province and our nation. The next generation is destined to face tremendous problems of worldwide consequence. Thirdly, you are here tonight because you are civic-minded people, anxious to see the commercial, industrial, and business development of Edison go forward in rapid bounds. You are concerned that Edison make its mark on the Alberta map. That is, however, to you, to me, to all of us, it is obvious that this can, and has to be, done.

Let me expand on this point for a moment. In the fall of 1987, the people of the Edison District saw fit to approve of policies of the educational staff concerning a primary ungraded program in the area. Perhaps you have heard of this program as streaming, a more commonly used but most inappropriate term. This program is now solidly entrenched in the seven large schools of the Division, and will continue until a better organization may appear on education horizons. A return to traditional graded classes will never be made. This trend has been noticed by many areas of

The elementary schools of the Town of Edson. His purpose tonight is to tell you as well what we are going to do next September, although many of the details and nuances of the plan have to be worked out between now and then. However, here are the facts with supporting arguments and appraisal of any disadvantages which may go hand in hand with many advantages of the proposal.

In the very first instance allow me to review the elementary school situation as it exists and has existed for some time. For several years two elementary schools have been in operation in this town each consisting of grades from first through third. VI Each has had its principal re-

Canadian history books a bore says novelist

valuable literary heritages in the world yet history books written under the "national subject" or the student's curriculum, Canadian historians might say, are said to be as dull as the "national subject."

"Students should drop the old chronological method of presenting events, and concentrate on individual experiences and personalities. This will provide the essential background of Canadian history and the story of Canada itself,"
Mr. Macfarlane said.

After reading tales of Champlain, LaSalle, Frontenac, Huron and Montcalm, the story of how Canada became a nation reads like a long anticlimax. The student gets no clear idea why the Americans needed why the Louisiana signed treaty. Why Protest Canada did not join the Revolution, or why the Confederate States did not join the United States.

Macfarlane proposes a new text book, with the history of Canada. "The story of how Canada came to be what it is today, the story of the people who have made it what it is today, the story of the land which has been the home of so many of our people."

WHEN FARMING WAS BEASTLY

The trouble with plowing by hand power, back in the days of primitive man, was that usually man's muscles gave out before the beast's.

Now that we have learned to harness more manageable animals of power to do the plowing and other work, and our standard of living has never been higher.

Today Canadian farmers rely on petroleum-powered horsepower rather than animal power, and Canadian farms are among the most efficient in the world. Canadian farmers can depend on oil supplies whenever and wherever they need them—without unreasonable prices.

The price of fuel for tractors and other farm machinery has gone down, rather than up, over the past ten years.

CHRISTMAS

TIDINGS

With daylight waned by night, the wondrous tidings of the Christ Child's birth, first sung forth, and with awe and rejoicing, they sought the place where He lay. And as every Christmas morn, the sacred story lives anew... gloriously, radiantly lighting the world with hope and faith, peace and good will.

Yet with the joy and peace at Christmas a season abundantly filled with the abiding joy and spiritual inspiration that He brought to earth.

Talking about Santa

Talking about Santa Claus there was a time when for the boys and girls of Edson in many countries good child were receiving hampers and the same on this day. And he is not only the picture of child and give of gifts. But the saint of mothers, scholars and parents. Now his did knowledgers of all ages. There are many legends about St. Nicholas. One for three nights in a row he threw a bag of gold through the open window of a poor man who was desperately cold and suffering from his children. Over the years the three bags of gold became the present of the poor man who was the gift of the three bags of gold.

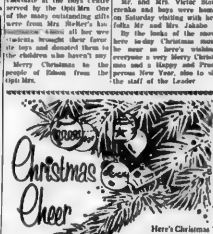

Drostan News

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hearn and family drove to Edson on Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hearn. A good party time was had by all at the Christmas Eve of the Hearn family on Friday evening. Songs and parties were given by the children were just finished when Mrs. and Santa arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Hearn and Mrs. E. Worthing and children also Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hearn and Mrs. Hearn. MAD'S

THE WORD FOR Teen and Herd

Everyone is busy creating what they are going to wear for the big "Teen and Herd" (this Friday night) seems that they are all going to wear for the event and that is why it is trying to combine the other one.

Let's all think of them, down town doing their last minute Christmas shopping in the crowded seasonal town.

Everyone is planning their Christmas activities, this year with each one in that they don't clash with the rest of the crowd's plans.

This little was not realized for a new while they knew for sure if he is still here or not.

See someone with all the makings of a hero, who he hoped out for his friends, cry, cheer in hand, and really going out for his money. Even when crying, we cry for a cause "I" it looks real funny and cannot be made any politer when we see it for our money.

These two teenage girls that you see hanging, it is very often were at it again when I saw them walking on Main Street making with the friendly ladies and ladies as hard as one another that they could not with a straight line (cousins, eh?)

And so we have been very busy this past week and have not seen the much going on we would like to say to you all in it. Nevertheless, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Greetings

We have the wonderful music of Christmas songs and our holiday joy great and deep. We want to share it with all our friends, and to wish them a truly happy season.

EDSON Gas company asks price on 20 lots and whole block

Conceded at a price on what amounts to all the residential lots in town now serviced on Tuesday evening. Twenty lots to be exact. The request for a price on a full block of land near the East crossing.

The company, which is connected with the town of Edson, is looking for locations for its employees who will be stationed in this area. They also plan to build a warehouse and storage yard, some thing similar to that operated by Canada Pines here for several years.

The request for information as to price was not a firm commitment by the company to locate in Edson, but it did produce a surge of enthusiasm in town that the impending gas export was going to mean something to Edson soon.

The 20 lots gas line is to cross Highway 16 at Carleton Place and we understand the gas company has also requested similar information from the village authorities at Wainwright. We're prepared, but we can't help thinking they will favor our town with its greater facilities.

The decision, presumably, will be made early in the new year as the gas line is scheduled for operation late next year.

No many friends in Edson are very happy to hear that Mr. George Long is back home after his long stay at the University Hospital in Edmonton.

Businessmen welcoming first baby of New Year

The generosity of Edson businessmen will make for a gift of welcome for the first baby to be born at St. John's Hospital here after midnight, Dec. 31.

A tradition that has proven very popular with new parents. And the presents come in handy for couples who have been parents before.

Contributing this year are: Sillers, But's IGA, Tom and Jerry's Shoe Store, Murray's Super Drug, Edson General Supply, HAN Stores Ltd., Gehlke's Jewellery, Don Rite Foods, Edson Hospital Services, Embert's Flowers, Marshall-Wells, Milt's Furniture and Appliances and the Edson Cheesemakers.

Four Edson men elected to Scout Council

At a meeting held at the Edson Hotel on Wednesday, December 19, four Edson representatives were elected to the Scout Council. The new council will be set up on the executive committee of the newly formed Scout Council. The council will be composed of four members: a president, a vice-president, a treasurer, and a secretary. The council will be responsible for the Scout activities in the Edson area.

Other members of the executive committee were: President, Jack Murray of Business Services; Vice-President, Harry Payne of Edson; Treasurer, Norman Edson of Edson; and Secretary, Harry Edson of Edson. The council will be responsible for the Scout activities in the Edson area.

Town planner to meet council

The provincial government's town planner, Mr. Noel Duff, is scheduled to meet with the Edson Council on Thursday, December 21, at 10 a.m. The meeting will be held at the Edson Hotel. The council will discuss the town's future development and the planner will provide advice on the best way to proceed.
